Legion Dedicates New Facilities

William Tanner, left, pins past district commander's pin on Bert Bastedo during ceremonies at the local Legion on Saturday. Bastedo stepped down recently after four years in the position. He was chairman of the program on Saturday.

Mrs. William Tanner, wife of the guest of honor Saturday, makes the draw for the color television set, held Saturday afternoon at the Legion. The winner was Frances Armstrong of Frankford. Ron Welch, chairman of the draw committee waits to make the momentous announcement.

A capacity crowd of Legionnaires, families and friends, jammed the hall on North Street Saturday afternoon, to hear congratulations heaped upon the work of the local members, as the new addition to the premises was officially opened for use.

Officiating at the ceremony was William Tanner, third vice-president of Ontario Command, Royal Canadian Legion, a member in Toronto for 20 years. In addition to praising the efforts of the local branch, and also using the ceremonial scissors to cut the ribbon across the double doors, he delivered a short but inspiring message to the assembly.

He noted that the Legion is steadily gaining memberships not only through legislation which allows social and fraternal members, but also there is about a four per cent gain each year among veterans themselves. He attributed this to the fact that the World War II returned servicemen have now seen their families educated and married, and now have time to devote to Legion work.

He stressed the fact that service to the veterans, especially those who require pension and other assistance, has been, and will continue to be the main function of the Legion. There has been an uphill battle to gain what the Legion felt were certain standards in this area, and now that they have been achieved, the members can devote their attention to other matters, which may have suffered in the interim.

REMEMBRANCE

Tanner outlined the fact that the Legion was borne out of Remembrance for those who died in the First World War, and "while our society was not maybe the best, it was the best we knew," and this was the stimulation behind the enlistment of hundreds of thousands in the second world conflict.

"They put the defence of a wholesome life ahead of

THIS is the interior of the new addition to the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 228 Club Rooms, which was officially opened Saturday afternoon. The construction was largely carried out by volunteer labor, with only three sub-contracts issued. The furniture is in blue and gold, the Legion colors. It was paid for by the draw held for a television set.

News-Argus Holds Contest

Subscribers to the Stirling News-Argus will have a chance to save money on their renewals and also new subscriptions for the balance of October, and at the same time, receive a chance to win up to $15 in merchandise vouchers in a draw conducted during the month for those who renew or take out a new subscription.

For the balance of this month, any NEW subscription can be taken out for $4.00 in Canada, $5.00 in the United States or overseas. The same prices also apply to renewals. For the same period, renewals will be accepted at $4.00 per year. Should the subscription be in arrears, the same discount of $1.00 will be given for each year of renewal, either in arrears or in advance.

Any paper on which the date shown is prior to October 1, 1973 is in arrears, and the October papers should be paid sometime this month to be up to date. Postal regulations state any paper which is over three months in arrears may be suspended from mail service, but so far, this has not been strictly enforced. Most daily papers allow only one month.

In addition to the specially reduced price for subscriptions, each renewal or new subscriber will have his or her name put on a ballot and deposited in a container at the office. November 1, a draw will be made for three prizes, worth $15, $10 and $5. The winners will receive vouchers for $5 each according to the prizes won, good for use at any of the advertisers using display ads during the month. Thus, the first prize winner will receive three vouchers, and the second winner two. These must be selected from different places, if more than one is won.

The subscriptions may be taken by mailing in the special form printed in the paper, or bringing it with you when renewing, although this will not disqualify the discount.

The newspaper office is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., including noon hour, and occasionally until noon on Saturday. If the office is closed, remittances may be put in an envelope and inserted through the slot in the office door.

Senior Citizens

We were about 52 strong at Senior Citizens on Thursday. Two visitors were welcomed. Fred Kent of Stirling and Pres. John Kane's sister Mrs. Mary Doogan of Hamilton.

Get your think cap on for we want you to be ready to nominate your new officers for 1973-74 at a meeting about the middle of October.

The birthday song was sung for Lil Heasman who along with George celebrated their wedding anniversary last week with a big feed. John and Fanny Kane who stood up for them were also guests. We extend our best wishes to this popular pair. We were off 48 strong on a color four or October 1st, and are now planning how and where we can have a Christmas blow-out.

Edna Sharpe and Mina Smith took first place at euchre and John Ryan and Helen Williams had to sit in the basement. Tilly Senior, Alice Heasman, Fanny Kane and Kathleen Ryan served a tasty lunch. Ann Faulkner and di ole Scribe, both being on a special diet had to play it safe. They both found out "that what you don't eat".... "don't go to (wait)." SCANDAL SHEET

Last week Helen Fittich caught Clarence at the four corners winking at a girl. Clarence said "I wasn't winking, that's a windy corner and something got in my eye." "Yes" said Helen "and it got in your car too." dis ole Scribe.

Hear Whelan

Federal Minister of Agriculture Eugene Whelan will be guest speaker at a banquet sponsored by the Prince Edward-Hastings Liberal Association October 12.

The reception and dinner will be held in the Royal Canadian Legion hall here.

There is no indication what the subject of his speech will be. But Mr. Whelan has been one of the leading federal spokesmen on food cost issues.

Branch 228 History

During the ceremonies on Saturday, Bert Bastedo gave a brief resume of the history of Branch 228, Royal Canadian Legion, Stirling.

The branch was founded in the early 1930's, but for many years had no permanent hall or quarters of its own. He recalled attending various functions of the new branch with his father, including church parades and Remembrance Day events.

The past presidents up to World War II were: Dr. W.H. Peasley; Ernie Dainard; Jack Butler; George Heasman; and Rev. A.S. McConnell.

Following the return of the servicemen in 1945, it was decided to re-organize the branch, and Rev. A.M. Lavery, former minister at St. Paul's United Church, headed a steering committee. The original charter was granted to the group in December 1946.

Charter members on that occasion were C.R. Bastedo, Harry Brooks, Roy E. Duffin, Harry Francis, George Heasman, Rev. A.M. Lavery, Edgar Matthews, George Noble, John Munro, X.P. Mayhew, W.V. Scott, Harold Skillern, Dr. C.F. Walt, Ernie Wannamaker, Clare West, R.K. West and Joe Whitehead.

PAST PRESIDENTS

Presidents since 1946 were: 1947 R.K. West; 1948 George Noble; 1949 X.P. Mayhew; 1950 Art Abernethy; 1951-53 Fred W. Houchin; 1954 Blake Faulkner; 1955-56 Ray Tanner; 1957-58 Ross Kirk; 1959-60 Bert Bastedo; 1961-62 Gil Finkle; 1963-64 Allan Lawes; 1965-66 Bill McMullen; 1967-68 Elwood Wilson; 1969-70 Wiegner De Jong; 1971-72 Douglas Patterson.

Many of these men still live in Stirling and area, and most were present Saturday.

Until the late 1950's the Legion met in the Masonic Temple, and instead of establishing building fund, operated the local arena and spent considerable funds on renovations.

In 1957 the present property was acquired and the hall built. It was officially opened in 1958, Stirling's Centennial year. At that time, Wiegner De Jong and three of his block layers worked on their own time to build the new premises. Since moving in, there have been extensive renovations, including interior paneling, terrazzo floor, new lighting, bar and vestibule facilities and development of parking facilities.

NEW ADDITION

By 1971 the branch had set aside $8,000 for building expansion and it was decided to spend about double that amount on new facilities. The final cost is expected to be much less than anticipated.

Wiegner De Jong was supervisor of the project and responsible for the block work. Only three sub-contracts were let, the balance of the work being done by Legion members.

In addition to thanking those who worked, Bastedo paid special tribute to Ed McPheat for plans for construction and also those required by the LCBO; Angus Rupnow, Carol and Doug Faires, who raised $400 through a bikeathon for the Kingston which paid for the public address system; Ferlie Weatherall who donated a clock in memory of her father, and the present and past editors of the News-Argus for their support.

Personals

George Carlisle entered the General Hospital, Belleville, on Saturday, September 27, for treatment.

Ross Carlisle is a patient the General Hospital, Belleville. He was admitted Monday September 24.

Audrey Williams New President

The first meeting of the 1973-74 Executive of the Stirling Festival of Sacred Praise was held Monday evening Sept. 17, 1973, at the home of the president Mrs. Audrey Williams with 11 members present.

Reports from the various Committee Chairmen indicated preparations for the 1974 Festival are well-advanced. Because additional classes are being offered in the instrumental group we anticipate a larger registration this year.

The Syllabus Committee hope to have the Syllabus ready for distribution the first week in December, which is approximately six weeks earlier than former years and trust this change will give the prospective contestants more time to consider and select their class choices. Festival dates for 1974 are April 29 and 30, and May 1 and 2.

For the convenience of those participants in the Festival the Music Committee is material things," and went to war on many fields of battle to fight for and preserve this ideal.

He challenged the local members, now that they have expanded their facilities to suit their needs, to move out into the community and see what needs to be done to help it grow and develop.

Berty Bastedo, past president of Stirling Branch 228 and also immediate Past District Commander, was chairman of the meeting. Following the opening, and silence in memory of deceased comrades, he extended a welcome on behalf of President Stan Kosmak and the local members.

Others who spoke briefly, extending congratulations and welcoming those present were Ray Short, Reeve of Hawdon Township; Councillor Maurice Montgomery, Village of Stirling; Clarke T. Rollins, MLA; James Colton, Consec, Zone Commander; John Maw, District Commander, who introduced William Tanner.

Following the cutting of the ribbon, Rev. James F. McGarvey, co-padre of the branch, offered a dedication prayer and Carl Cooke, First Vice-President of Branch 228, thanked all those who participated in the event.

After the official closing of the meeting and the Royal Anthem, the audience was allowed into the new facilities. A buffet supper for members and friends only was held at the supper hour, and was followed by a dance in the evening.

Minto

(By Mrs. Lindsay Tanner) Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGee accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Murray Morgan and spent the weekend on a motor trip to North Hastings and Haliburton Highlands and called on Rev. and Mrs. Woodward of Pawaissin.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Courtney of Ottawa visited Mr. and Mrs. John Courtney during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrin Kemp of Palmerston spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Tanner.

SOME of the many visitors to the Village Shoppe on Saturday, get a preview of one of the styles modelled by local ladies. Mrs. Marjorie McMullen, the new owner of the business, formerly Bateman's Ladies Wear, was overwhelmed with the opening day response.

Carmel Nursery School Seeks Grant

(By Mrs. Arthur Pyear) Mrs. Retta Grills accompanied Mr. and Mrs. John Carlisle and Mr. and Mrs. George Carlisle to Nanpene on Friday where they attended the funeral of their cousin, the late Mrs. Arthur Langman at the Wartman Funeral Home. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Pyear and Mr. and Mrs. Barry Pyear were guests at the Brown-Bouch wedding in Hoard's United Church, and the reception at Campbellford.

Mrs. Retta Grills attended the Wilson family picnic at the Fish and Game Club on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie MacMillan, Belleville, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Keating.

News-Argus Notebook

ATTENDS PLOWING MATCH - Kenneth Mumby, area representative, spent the past ten days attending the International Plowing Match near Sarnia. He reports a record attendance of 150,000 for the event.

SEEK VILLAGERS' CO-OPERATION - In an effort to streamline garbage collection, which is being continued hampered by numerous bundles of non-household refuse being included, a special collection of such items as leavens, old lumber, etc., will be held October 11 and 23. Residents are asked to help by only putting out normal garbage for Tuesday collection until these dates.

Community Shower

A large crowd of friends and neighbors of the West Huntingdon community gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barton Haggerty recently to honor their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vardy, who were recently married.

Russell Sills presided over a program which opened with community singing led by Mrs. Goldie McNiroy and accompanied by Mrs. Reg. Haggerty. Readings were given by Mrs. Ted Pollock, Mrs.

Goldie McNiroy and Mrs. Harold Thompson. Miss Letta Tuinman gave two musical numbers on the accordion. Gary Martin, playing on the guitar, and daughter Kim, sang two numbers.

Miss Letta Tuinman read an address to the bride and groom and Miss Marie Kerby presented a purse of money.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Vardy replied, thanking everyone for the party and the gift.

Lunch was served by the ladies and everyone enjoyed a social hour.

ART SHOW PRINCIPALS

Mrs. Margaret Bosiak, right, Reg. of the Hon. J.R. Cooke Chapter, IODE, poses with Mrs. Madeline McIntosh and Gary Barr, two local artists, during the Art Show and paintings on show, and enjoyed the hospitality of the IODE, as well as patronizing the bake sale. A draw was also held for a quilt with proceeds from the whole event to go towards the annual bursary.

Bon Voyage

A long and successful business career came to a close in Stirling last week with the closing out of Bateman's Ladies Wear, operated for over thirty years, by Fred Bateman and his wife Anne.

As with any such instances, there is mixed feelings on the part of the owners, and as well, the residents of the community. One cannot be in business for such a lengthy time without making many friends, and we feel sure the Batemans are among the most respected citizens of the community.

They can look back with many memories and many happy times during their business and residential stay in the community. Due to the fact they will continue to live here, we are not saying good-bye, but rather adieu.

Although both have had more than their share of personal ill-health over the years, we trust that in their retirement, they will be able to enjoy such pursuits and endeavors as they may wish in the years ahead.

Still Waiting

Time truly travels fast.

It is only about five years ago that the residents of this area were surveyed about their wish to have direct free calling to some area outside of the Stirling Bell Telephone Exchange. The response was overwhelming, and it was assumed at the time that within a reasonable time, there would be some action taken.

So far none has.

Stirling is one of those unique communities which does not enjoy free calling to anywhere, even Frankford, which is only seven miles distant. Most other communities can call one or more places without long distance charges. According to Bell officials, the reason is that we cannot be given this privilege without it costing other subscribers outside our area more money, and their rates are now at the maximum for service provided.

Two years ago, we were informed that a study was being made to allow Stirling telephone users to call one place, probably Belleville, without any charge to us, but the reverse would not apply. So far nothing has happened on that course of action either.

It is one of those unfortunate situations, that in the communications field, Bell has a monopoly on what is done, where, how, and how much it will cost. As there is nothing that can be done about this, perhaps something could be done soon on at least giving us the same type of service available to most other subscribers in the area.

QUEBEC ELECTION
Premier Robert Bourassa called a general election in Quebec for Monday, October 29. At dissolution of the National Assembly, the Party standings were: Liberals 70, Union Nationale 16, Créditéistes 11, Parti Québécois 7, Independent 2, vacant 2.

SHARP AT U.N.
External Affairs Minister Mitchell Sharp was in New York City this week to address the U.N. General Assembly. Mr. Sharp told French Foreign Minister Michel Jobert that the Greenpeace incident must be resolved in a way satisfactory to Canada so as not to harm good relations.

While in New York, Mr. Sharp also had his first formal meeting with the new Secretary of State, Henry Kissinger.

MONEY REFORM
Finance Minister John Turner and representatives of 19 other member countries of the International Monetary Fund are meeting in Nairobi, Kenya, to find a method of reforming the world monetary system. While some countries are pressing for a complete reform package, Canada is proposing a step-by-step approach.

AID TO CONSUMERS
Consumer and Corporate Affairs Minister Herb Gray, proposed regulations under the Consumer Packaging and Labelling Act. The new regulations will help consumers in their selection of prepackaged goods by providing more factual information on labels and protecting against fraud and deception in packaging and labelling. Interested parties have two months to make representations with respect to the proposals.

DR. A'S MINI-TALES

Giant and the Bean Stalk

Once there was a giant whose mother was very tiny. She worked hard to buy food for him. Once she saved a whole quarter for a treat. Giant skipped off to spend his quarter. He met an old woman with a basket. But he had lost his quarter. Giant was started to cry. Soon there was a pool around him. The woman was afraid she would drown. "Stop!" she cried, and she gave Giant a bean as big as an orange. Giant took the bean home to show his mother. But she was so angry, she threw the bean out the window. The next day there was an enormous bean stalk in the back yard, growing up into the clouds. Giant climbed the bean stalk and found a new land. He peeked into the window of a house and saw a boy playing with a hen that laid golden eggs. But then Giant broke the window by mistake and cut his finger. He rushed home crying to his mother. She fixed Giant's finger with a hundred band-aids. Then he climbed up the bean stalk again. He found the boy, Jack, chopping at the bean stalk with an axe. Quickly Giant told Jack he was sorry about the window, and he used some of his bandages to fix it. Jack was so happy to have a new friend that he promised to share his golden eggs with Giant. So Giant would never have to be hungry again.

IT'S A LONG L-O-N-G STORY

It stretches the imagination, but the fact is the longest-lived member of the animal kingdom is the giant tortoise - has a record life span of 190 years.

Another span - Louisiana's Lake Ponchartraine Causeway - is the world's longest bridge: nearly 24 miles end to end.

The equivalent of 300,000 miles of leased lines - 12 times the equator's length - go into the world's largest commercial communications network. It's Holiday Inns' Holiday system, which scans room availability and makes instant reservations throughout the six-continent chain.

And by a bare 145 miles, the Nile ranks as the longest river. It flows 4,145 miles, as against the runner-up Amazon 4,000 miles.

Do You Remember? 25 Years Ago

Apple blossoms in October are a bit unusual but Mr. C.M. Sine, Stirling, R.R. 1, brought a cluster of blossoms, which he had picked off a snow apple tree in his garden, to the News-Argus Office on Friday last. Later the same day, Mr. Ernest Sines, of Minto, brought some in he had picked from a tree on the farm of Arthur Wood, Ivanhoe. Apparently the fine weather we have had is fooling even nature a bit.

On Tuesday, September 28th, the student body of the High School met to nominate the candidates for this year's "Students' Council." On the following Thursday, the nominees made their speeches, and the following officers were elected: Honorary President, Mr. R.E. Fox; President, Ross HERNIMAN; Vice-President, Lorraine Gray; Secretary, Gladys Clarke; Treasurer, Benny Mason; Press Reporter, Marilyn Eggleton; Pianist, Betty McConnell; Literary Convener, Eva Anne Bastedo; Girls' Athletic Rep., Joan Green; Boys' Athletic Rep., Richard McLachlan; Grade 10 Rep., Evelyn Lancaster; Grade X Rep., Mary Byrnes; Grade XI Rep., Ross Bradshaw; Grade XII Rep., Douglas Luery; Grade XIII Rep., Barbara Faulkner.

Dr. and Mrs. W.H. Pedley, of Ottawa, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bailey.

The Women's League of St. John's Church held their October meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Morrow. Mrs. Woodbeck opened the meeting with the League prayer. The minutes were read and approved and Mrs. Reg. Coombes spoke of the Blue Cross Plan. Mrs. Graver was convener.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Wrightman spent Thursday in Trenton, and Mrs. Wrightman visited her mother, Mrs. A. Farrar.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bush, Glen Miller, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bush.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Chumbley and children spent the tea hour on Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Nix and Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Heath of Springfield, were tea hour guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Heath and Donald.

35 Years Ago

The guest speaker for the 32 anniversary of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Stirling, was Rev. M.E.R. Boudreau, B.C., S.T.D., of Pictou. Special music was rendered by the choir, including a solo by Arthur Duncan.

A record for threshing for this district was established at the farm of Mr. George Bailey, at Harold, on Monday, when 2122 bushels of grain were threshed in 10 hours. The mill which is owned by Mr. Theodore Cooney, of Rawdon, was powered by an International tractor.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lamp, Rednersville, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Crouter, of Carrying Place, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Francis.

Months of speculation as to where Stirling's new post office would be situated has been ended with notification being received by the Village Council that the Matthews lot at the corner of North and Charlotte Streets has been chosen for the site.

Miss Margaret E. Bateman, with Miss M. Donald Smellie, of Toronto, will give an address on Denmark in the Parish Hall of St. John's Church.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Percy Hubble entertained six boys in honor of Master Neil Hubble's birthday. The guests were Eric Summers, Don Spencer, Keith Johnson, Bruce Melville, Bob Merrick and Jerry Melville. Misses Lois McAdam, Joan Hoard, Evelyn Melville and Gladys

Dental Topics

FORECASTING TOOTH DECAY

Tooth decay can be forecasted now even if x-rays don't show the signs, thanks to a big step forward by bacteriologists working with dentists.

A small, measured amount of your saliva would be bottled by your dentist and sent to a bacteriological laboratory. The lab counts the number of acid-forming bacteria. This count serves as an index on the rate at which tooth decay could already be going on, or could soon begin.

The dentist counters this situation by advising a change in diet without interfering with normal nutritional needs. This recent advance will be particularly useful in warning youngsters who eat too many sweets. In the case of a high bacteria count, the dentist would advise reducing the intake of carbohydrates, especially sugary food, to either prevent decay or stop it in a short time.

Other periodic bacteria counts could keep the patient, especially one who suffers frequently from decay, on the preventive road. The saliva test is not yet as widely used as it should be. Ask your dentist about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cook to honor the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Reynolds (nee Verna Jones). Mr. W.J. Tanner acted as chairman and Edith Tanner gave a reading.

Mr. Barton Haggerty has taken possession of the farm formerly owned by his father, Mr. James Haggerty, County Treasurer. Mr. Neil McLeod who has had the farm leased for the past eight years, has retired from farming and will sell in the near future for a visit to his home in Scotland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Jeffrey, of Thomasburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Reg. McKeown and Billy were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Mumby.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL TO EXPROPRIATE LAND

IN THE MATTER of an application by the Minister of Transportation and Communications for approval to expropriate lands in the Township of Rawdon.

FOR THE PURPOSE OF the reconstruction of the King's Highway 14.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that application has been made for approval to expropriate the land described in the schedule hereto.

Any owner of lands in respect to which notice is given who desires an inquiry into whether the taking of such land is fair, sound and reasonably necessary in the achievement of the objectives of the expropriating authority shall so notify the approving authority in writing.

(a) in the case of a registered owner, served personally or by registered mail within thirty days after he is served with the notice, or, when he is served by publication, within thirty days after the first publication of the notice.

(b) in the case of an owner who is not a registered owner, within thirty days after the first publication of the notice.

THE APPROVING AUTHORITY IS
Minister of Transportation and Communications
Parliament Buildings,
Toronto 5, Ontario.
Director, Right-of-Way Branch

NOTES:

1. The Expropriations Act provides that, (a) where an inquiry is requested, it shall be conducted by an inquiry officer appointed by the Minister of Justice and Attorney General;

(b) the inquiry officer, (i) shall give every party to the inquiry an opportunity to present evidence and argument and to examine and cross-examine witnesses, either personally or by his counsel or agent, and (ii) may recommend to the approving authority that a party to the inquiry be paid a fixed amount for his costs of the inquiry not to exceed $200 and the approving authority may in its discretion order the expropriating authority to pay such costs forthwith.

2. "owner" and "registered owner" are defined in the Act as follows:

"owner" includes a mortgagee, tenant, execution creditor, a person entitled to a limited estate or interest in land, a committee of the estate of a mentally incompetent person or of a person incapable of managing his affairs, and a guardian, executor, administrator or trustee in whom land is vested;

"registered owner" means an owner of land whose interest in the land is defined and whose name is specified in an instrument in the proper registry, land titles or sheriff's office, and includes a person shown as a tenant of land on the last revised assessment roll;

3. The expropriating authority, each owner who notifies the approving authority that he desires a hearing in respect of the lands intended to be expropriated and any owner added as a party by the inquiry officer are parties to the inquiry.

Progress Mirrors Many Faces

(By Olive Marrow)
Passing by the sign "Airport Information Here," I wondered what answer I would get if I stopped to question, "What will the new face of Pickering look like after demolition and re-construction are finished?" But I didn't need to ask; I knew.

Malton, Ontario, endured the pangs of face-lifting in the late thirties. During the second world war development was rapid in the area and for many years now Malton has been linked with almost every country of the world by airlines.

Back in the Roaring Twenties and early thirties life was different. People were working night and day to earn reasonable living; farmers trying to keep one plough length ahead of the twitch grass and mustard, few concerned with the world at large. People still dashed to window or door to see a low flying plane passing overhead.

They were energetic, fun loving folk these Maltonites. Despite the lack of bowling alleys, theatre or indoor skating rinks no one was bored with life. The community halls were gay with progressive crokinole and euchre or dancing. Without T.V. to look at, visiting was a fine art and lively conversation and home-made music provided a stimulating evening. Horse-shoe pitching and ball games filled summer evening hours.

Annual threshing and corn-cutting, although dusty, tiring days were social events in a way. Men changed hands, the women folk, (having never heard of Women's Lib.) got together to happily prepare and serve their men folk hearty meals. One newcomer to the community who was an imaginative cook served huge platters of Swiss steak, creamy mashed potatoes, buttered squash and salad. For dessert she handed out generous servings of banana butter-scotch pie with whipped cream topping. The men were delighted but the wives looked at the cook with considerable suspicion. The next year she kept in line with the traditional dinner of roast beef, plain boiled potatoes and cabbage. Malcolm's village store was a central gathering place for males of all ages. Large wooden bread boxes standing in the centre of the floor provided seats for them as they rested after their day's work; remember even the youths did a good day's work along with their elders.

Four sturdy posts out front did double duty in holding up the porch roof and serving as hitching posts. Horses and buggies were still in vogue and Dobbin waited patiently beside the Model T Ford of the more prosperous farmer. Inside, the customer received the fine attention of the store keeper and there seemed to be an abundance of goods of all kinds. Sugar, rubber boots, chamberlain, milk strainers, stove pipes, unwrapped large double loaves of bread, coal oil, molasses and cheese; all had their special niches. No modern supermarket can ever have that exciting odor as in the old village store.

Just south-west of Malton was a small community of Elmbank; you won't see it on any map but like villages and hamlets in Pickering Township, it had its own special place in Peel County. People were real and life was vital; children were educated in the fine one room school and Christmas concerts in the nearby hall were exciting events. Somewhere under one of the huge runways at the International Airport, dreams, disappointments, hopes, fears, love and heart-break are buried for all time. Progress must be served no matter the cost.

Were any human bones found in the rubble during excavating for the airport? Settlement of Malton began in 1820 and down through the years stories of dark mysterious happenings were discussed behind closed doors. One was of the transient guest at the old inn two miles south of the village. Having consumed a liberal portion of liquid refreshment, he stumbled into the black night and down an open well. Why was the well open and who was the man? "Tis said that the proprietor simply filled in the well. Where is the old headstone proclaiming that here lies Noah Heaton who was murdered Feb. 20, 1847? It stood in the churchyard at Bethany United Church which was demolished to provide more airport space.

Gone - the farms, homes, the melody of the sleigh bells on the mailman's cutter as he traveled down the sixth line, along the fifth, east on the sideroad and along the Old Indian Line. Gone is the lilting call of the meadow larks and killdeer intermingled with the musical call of Gee and Haw as the farmer tilled the fields. All gone in the welter of modern progress.

Just so will the face of Pickering change and for many, the heartbreak of seeing loved landmarks disappear forever.

Returning home to our beautiful Hastings County I wondered - today massive power corridors are being planned - tomorrow - What? We protest, then we accept the inevitable and finally we turn the mirror to the wall and the new faces of progress take over. Then with nostalgia we remember that the old ones certainly did have their day. Progress, we decide, is not so bad after all.

Miss Bonnie Danford, Ottawa spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Danford.

Miss Blanche Gibson, Campbellford, was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bert McCoy on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sedore and children were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hart, Belleville, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Mason and Derek, Agincourt, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Brownson were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Swanson and boys, Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Forsyth, Sudbury, are spending a few days with Mrs. Myrtle Cassidy.

Mrs. Jane Reid, Stirling, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Reid on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Forsyth, Shelley and John, and Dan Seabrook, Peterborough, were guests at the same home on Sunday.

A number of ladies met in the church basement on Saturday evening to honor Marlene Shortt, bride-to-be of this month. Mrs. Hazel Mumby was chairlady for a program of songs and readings. Marlene was presented with numerous and useful gifts for which she thanked one and all. Following lunch a social chat was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones, Oshawa, and Mrs. Esther Leonard spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ron Leonard and family of Hazel-dean.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Acker, Oshawa, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reid and family.

Douglas-Mumby

St. John's Anglican Church, Stirling, was the scene of a pretty wedding April 28, 1973 when Lorne Allan Douglas, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Douglas of Sulphide and Mabel Florence Mumby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Mumby of Moira were united in marriage.

Rev. Charles Staples performed the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Gail Faulkner played the wedding music and accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Foster of Moira when they sang "Hand in Hand" and "I'll Walk Beside You." Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of butterfly embroidered sheer over arnel with a bow in the back, stand up collar, long sheer sleeves with deep cuffs closed with pearl buttons. She wore a three-layer veil, the bottom one being a long, lace edged train. All were held in place by a large white fabric rose. The bride carried her white bible covered with lace and adorned with a corsage of red sweet-heart roses, white streamers and gold butterflies.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Paul Andrews of London (nee Betty Baumhour), friend of the bride. She was dressed in a floor length pink floral sheer over matching arnel, long sleeves that were gathered at the wrists and the bodice was trimmed with narrow velvet ribbon. Matching ribbon formed the wee bows in her hair. Junior bridesmaids were Joyce Douglas, sister of the groom, dressed in green and Barbara Mumby, sister of the bride, in mauve. Both girls' dresses were of the same material and style as the matron of honor. All girls carried bouquets of 'mums in white and color matched to their dresses.

MR. AND MRS. LORNE ALLAN DOUGLAS

The flower girl, four-year-old Laura Mumby, sister of the bride, was gowned identical to the matron of honor and carried one long stemmed pink rose, tied with white ribbon.

The best man was Robert Grier of Napanee, friend of the groom. Ushers were Stanley and Lindsay Mumby, brothers of the bride. All wore white jackets and black trousers.

Ring bearer was five-year-old Stephen Malm of Angus, Ont., nephew of the groom, dressed in a navy blue vest suit, pink shirt and white bow tie.

The groom's parents were ushered to their seats by Garry Mumby. The bride's mother was ushered by Harvey Mumby, both brothers of the bride, giving every member of the bride's family a part in her wedding.

The bride's mother, in a royal blue crimp floor length gown and corsage of pink 'mums, assisted by the groom's mother in a floor length medium blue crepe and corsage of yellow carnations, received at a reception held at the Hillcrest Community Hall, Belleville. Approximately 80 guests sat down to a delicious turkey supper prepared and served by the Moira Community women and other friends of the bride. The head table was adorned with a three tier wedding cake, decorated by the bride's paternal grandmother, and flanked by green and white candles in crystal candelabra. Mr. Roy Salisbury, uncle of the groom, asked the blessing before the meal and Mr. Don Foster, another uncle of the groom, was master of ceremonies. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing to the music of the Fendells.

For a short trip to Toronto and points north the bride wore a red, white and navy crimp knit pant suit, white knit cape, white accessories and corsage of red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas are residing at 124 Syney St., Belleville.

Guests at the wedding were from Valleyfield, Que.; Southampton, U.S.A.; Niagara Falls, Bowmanville, Angus, Glenora, Oshawa, Maple Leaf, Napanee, Belleville, Stirling, Tweed, Thomasburg, Sulphide and Moira.

Prior to her marriage the bride was given a miscellaneous shower by Mrs. Ross Ketcheson of Moira with co-hostesses Miss Carol Thompson, Mrs. Marilyn Patterson and Mrs. Rhonda Lee. She was also recipient of a lovely clock from her co-workers on the Dietary staff of Belleville General Hospital. The groom received a gift of money from his fellow workers at Belleville Northern Electric.

Rebekah Lodge Holds Meeting

A very good attendance of members of Laurel Rebekah Lodge No. 211 were welcomed by the Noble Grand, Sister Marjorie Stapley, at the recent meeting held in the newly decorated Lodge Hall in the I.O.O.F. Temple, Stirling.

The Charter was draped in memory of Brother T.R. McFadden, Past Grand Master and Superintendent of the I.O.O.F. Home in Barrie; Brother V. Ibbotson, Past Sovereign Grand Master and Sister Hazel Schlar, Past President of the Rebekah Assembly, Sister Betty Johnson, Vice Grand, reported several members ill and they have been remembered with cards and flowers.

A letter regarding the Sovereign Grand Lodge Workshop being held in Belleville on October 10th was received. The Noble Grand, Sister Marjorie Stapley is planning to attend. Members wishing to go with her will please get in touch. Laurel Lodge's Installation of Officers will be held on Tuesday, October 9th with Sister Eva Farrell, District Deputy President of District No. 4, of Thomasburg and her staff in charge of the Ceremonies. Sister Marion Carter PNG will be the Refreshment Conventor assisted by Sisters

Nora Wannamaker PNG, Nellie McIntosh PNG and Lillian Johnson PNG.

Sister Hilda McGowan of Madoc will be showing her slides after our October 23rd meeting.

The Birthday Party in November will be discussed at the next meeting. With these important evenings coming up the members are urged to make a special effort to attend each one. Your support is VERY IMPORTANT.

A short staff practice was held after the meeting, with Sister Patricia Svoboda PNG, Staff Captain, in charge.

Hold Crusade At Kingston

Canadian Evangelist Rev. Glenn Gable will hold a City-Wide St. Lawrence Seaway Harvest Crusade for Christ in Kingston October 22-24 at the K.C.V.I. Auditorium.

It has been said that Glenn Gable is, "one of Canada's most outstanding young Evangelists of today." A native of Ottawa, Reverend Gable's message is one of salvation, that "you must be born again to be saved." His message is from the Bible and he tells it like it is.

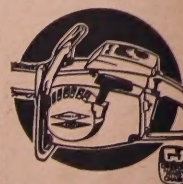

Mr. Gable has preached across the United States and Canada and is now devoting himself full-time to crusading in Canada. He says, "Canada needs Evangelism, and Canadians need Christ."

A new addition to the Glenn Gable Evangelical Association Crusade team is the Nashville-based Gospel group, Jerry and the Singing Goffs, one of the most exciting aggregations in Gospel Music; a package of versatile successes, with vivacious dignity and excitement containing a Spiritual depth that is rare and delightful.

Sidney Muscular Dystrophy Campaign

Tom Nobles, left, was honored with presentation to Governor-General Roland Michener and his wife during the recent visit by the vice-regal couple to CFB Trenton. Nobles was the top collector in the canvass by East Sidney Township Fire Department and collected $325 for Muscular Dystrophy in the brief campaign. He only joined the department in June of this year.

Inspector Morley Cameron poses with a replica of cheque for $1,636, which the department collected in its week-long campaign. Last year, the department turned in over $1,000 in its first effort, and was awarded the prize as the top first-year department by the M-D Association. This year's campaign showed a 42 per cent increase.

Put Planter Away Carefully

Aside from weather, nothing affects financial success of a crop like the way it is planted. Nothing. Even the most carefully applied herbicides and fertilizers can't make a poorly planted crop provide great yields.

So if you don't do anything else when you've finished planting, take time to put your planter away properly so it will be ready for next year.

To help guide you through the maze of lubrications, adjustments and checks to be made, Massey-Ferguson's planter engineers have developed the following suggested list:

1. Carefully check over the entire planter. Correct any obvious problems. Replace (or order replacements for) worn parts.
2. Clean all ground-engaging parts, apply grease or heavy oil to all polished surfaces to prevent rusting.
3. Empty seed hoppers and clean them thoroughly. Coat moving parts at the bottom of the hoppers with heavy oil.
4. Remove all seed hoppers, planting mechanisms and seed plates and store in a dry place. Follow manufacturer's recommendations for planters that do not use plates.

5. Clean seed tubes thoroughly.
6. Empty fertilizer hoppers and thoroughly clean them inside and out. Coat inside and outside surfaces with oil. Set collars on lift rods to hold openers off the ground.
7. If liquid fertilizer is used, flush tanks well and clean dispensing system thoroughly.
8. Remove and clean herbicide and insecticide dispenser augers and hoppers, but be careful where you dispose of herbicide or insecticide waste.
9. Remove all roller chains and store in a can of light oil.
10. Coat all detachable link chains with oil.
11. Store in a shed or cover with canvas in a protected place.

Don't however, let this post-season servicing be the only one your planter gets. Be sure to check it over again next season and follow the manufacturer's recommendations for taking it out of storage. That way you can expect to get all the good service and long life the manufacturer has built into the most important machine you own.

TREMENDOUS TRIFLES

THE BET THAT GAVE AMERICA ONE OF ITS GREATEST AUTHORS

James Fenimore Cooper is one of this country's best known writers, yet we might never have enjoyed any of his books except for a bet made in disgust after reading what he considered a poor piece of English literature.

Cooper was destined to become a farmer, not a writer. Shortly after the close of the Revolutionary War, Cooper's father bought a large tract of land in central New York State and founded the town of Cooperstown, later to become famous as the place where organized baseball made its start. But its first real claim to fame came when James Fenimore Cooper took over the management of the large Cooper farms, and settled down to the life of a pioneer farm manager.

Reading became one of his principal relaxations. When he read an Englishman's book that showed an obvious lack of knowledge of the subject of which he wrote, Cooper threw the book away in disgust.

"I'll bet I could write a better book myself," he told his wife and some friends who were visiting him.

In the days that followed, they kept reminding Cooper of his bet. In defense he actually did start writing. Because his wife and friends kept "egging" him on whenever he seemed to slack off in his writing, his first book was completed in 1820.

The first book was "Precaution," one of the few James Fenimore Cooper works which was a failure. No publisher could be found who believed in it enough to publish it, but his family and friends praised it highly. Spurred on by their praise, Cooper began writing seriously, and shortly afterward turned out his masterpiece "The Last of the Mohicans," one of the thirty novels of this prolific author.

Cooper afterward said that the bet wasn't a binding one, since nothing was involved except his own honor. Yet America owes a debt to this tremendous trifle.

Healing Substance: Shrinks Piles

Exclusive healing substance proven to shrink hemorrhoids and repair damaged tissue.

A renowned research institute has found a unique healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids painlessly. It relieves itching and discomfort in minutes and speeds up healing of the injured, inflamed tissue.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most important of all—results were so thorough that this improvement was maintained over a period of many months.

All this was accomplished with a healing substance (Bio-Dyne) which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulates growth of new tissue.

Now Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation H. Ask for it at all drug stores. Satisfaction or your money refunded.

Stirling Horticulture Society

The initial meeting of the Stirling Horticulture Society for the fall term was held Monday evening, September 17 at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Hall with an attendance of 42. Mrs. W. Haggerty provided a bouquet of roses for the president's table. Mrs. Floyd Armstrong welcomed the group as president. There are almost two hundred paid members. The two plant sales in May and the bus trip to the CNE were successful methods of providing funds. The expenses were for the June Flower Show prize money at the local fair, also special signs erected at the roads entering the Village.

Mrs. Raymond McConnell won the Simpson-Sears gift "an electric server" as she had the most points in the specials for horticultural members only at the agricultural fair.

The Friendship secretary sent out seventeen cards. Mrs. Grant Hubble gave a very interesting account of the Provincial Convention held in June at Guelph. The theme was "Make Ontario a better place to live". 160 Horticultural Societies from all over Ontario were registered at the Convention. The bus tour to Elora and a visit to the bird sanctuary were highlights of the first day. It was stressed that they also serve who only pull weeds.

Mrs. Ashley Brooks reported the proceedings of the two sessions on the second day which included a Memorial Service. Mrs. Hubble told of the banquet. The speaker was Tom Thompson from Toronto known as the "Jam Guy." He made 1600 jars of jam in 1972 and sold it all at the market.

Mrs. Kenneth Tompkins read a poem entitled "Noise" and conducted the assembly singing with assembly singing with Mrs. Roy Taylor as piano accompanist.

Mrs. Kenneth Ray introduced Mrs. W. McGowan of Madoc and she gave a very informative talk on her trip to Australia. She covered 20,000 miles by air and 3,000 by bus and crossed the equator.

During her talk she gave a recording of "Waltzing Matilda." Australia is noted for their opals. During their trip they visited Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Donnan and Seymour Ashley at their various homes.

Her talk was followed by a travelogue with scenic pictures of the country, flowers, animals, etc. Mrs. McGowan then showed a large array of souvenirs which included a wrap-around skirt, a mohair stole, silver pieces and bills in their currency, and in Hawaii she purchased a grass skirt. She had a large array of interesting souvenirs and gave a vivid description of each.

At the conclusion of her message she was the recipient of a gift after which the social committee served doughnuts and cheese. The lucky cup prize was awarded to Mrs. Grant Hubble.

Mr. Frank Jeffs opened his 80th birthday anniversary on Sunday, September 30. He was the recipient of numerous cards and gifts.

The U.C.W. will convene Thursday evening, October 4, in the church hall. Themes "Thanksgiving" and "Grandmothers Night." The bazaar and tea is scheduled for Thursday, October 11.

Miss Joan Jeffs began her duties Monday, October 1, on the staff of the General Hospital, Belleville. Harry McAdam enjoyed the bus tour to Alvinston on Thursday and attended the International Plowing Match.

In Appreciation

After almost thirty-three years of operating a business in Stirling, known as "Bateman's Ladies Wear" we wish to announce our closing date as of September 25, 1973.

We wish to express our Sincere Thanks to all Friends and Customers who assisted in making our task a pleasant duty.

To all the efficient staff who assisted during the years, we say a Special Thank You. Without your courteous assistance we could not have managed.

Also Sincere thanks to thoughtful friends who sent Retirement Congratulations and Best Wishes for our future.

We wish the present owner, Mrs. Marjorie McMullen, every success and trust our former customers will give her their loyal support.

We congratulate you, Marjorie, on your most successful opening on September 29.

Now in the words of Tiny Tim, we say, "God Bless You one and all."

Fred and Anne Bateman.

Get Your Bed By Computer

Utilization of hospital beds in Belleville may soon be streamlined by computer. It's only one administrative area where computerization will play an increasing, dominant work role.

Belleville General Hospital already uses a computer service in some administrative tasks—including payroll and accounting.

But now a committee drawn from 10 hospitals in the east-central Ontario region—BGH among them—is studying establishment of a regional computer service, the hospital's board of governors learned Friday.

Such a facility would perform a wide range of work. Meantime, BGH is discussing use of computers at Loyalist College for "better utilization" of hospital beds, reported executive director Philip Rickard.

It's a program now being developed in many Ontario hospitals.

A sophisticated range of information sets standards for how long a particular patient may be expected to stay in hospital. The admitting physician's estimate of how long his patient will be in hospital is also fed into the computer, along with daily progress records.

Springbrook WI

Mrs. Lorne McInroy was the hostess for the September meeting of the Spring Brook W.I. with an attendance of 21 ladies.

Mrs. G. Williams, president, extended a welcome to all and opened the meeting with the Ode, The Mary Stewart Collection, and the singing of O'Canada.

Mrs. L. McInroy, convenor for citizenship and world affairs, introduced the guest speaker E. Klompaker, and the guest musician John DeVries both of Stirling.

Mr. Klompaker gave a very interesting and informative account of his own personal life in the Netherlands, the immigration of his family to Canada with its happy, sad and humorous aspects.

Mr. Klompaker also stated during his address that while we often gripe about conditions in Canada, there is no better country in which to live, and that we have reason to be proud to be Canadian citizens. In conclusion, he said that to be a Canadian citizen AND a Christian with the hope of a future citizenship in Heaven, that, in his words "we have it made."

John DeVries then entertained with his accordion music which was really enjoyed by the ladies. Mr. Klompaker joined him in singing a few hymns in the Dutch language. Mr. DeVries concluded his entertainment by playing and singing "This land is your land, this land is my land" with the group joining in the song.

Mrs. George Williams expressed appreciation to both guests for their participation in the meeting, and gifts were presented to them by Mrs. Lorne McInroy.

Mrs. G. Williams, also citizenship convenor, gave a very interesting reading, which she had written. "There is only one race - humanity." Current events were then given by each one. The roll call was answered by naming the racial origin of a new Canadian.

Mrs. W.J. Barlow read the minutes of the August meeting and the correspondence, which included thank you notes from two members. Pennies were collected for the friendship fund. Happy Birthday was sung to four ladies, Mrs. G. Burkhitt, Mrs. F. McKeown, Mrs. Murrey Mason and Mrs. L. McInroy.

There was a short time of business during which Mrs. G. Williams was elected to go to the area convention in Peterborough as a delegate on the 24th of October. The material was given out to the canvassers for the blind. The bus trip to Ottawa October 16th was discussed and the fares collected.

Those who had participated in the "secret friends" for the past year, disclosed who their secret friend had been. Those who did not take part last year, or lost the name of their friend will have another chance at the October meeting. Come on, it's lots of fun if everyone does their part, and not let their friend down.

Mrs. Williams thanked the hostess and the co-hostess's Mrs. Cyril McKeown and Mrs. Ward McInroy.

THREE CHURCH OFFICERS HONORED

Three of those honored at a special gathering of St. Thomas Anglican Church, Rawdon, recently, were, from left, John Courtney, church warden for 38 years; Miss Edna Tanner, organist for 46 years; and brother George Tanner, church warden for 8 years. St. Thomas closed its doors to regular weekly services at the end of September.

Close Rawdon Church

A mixed feeling of sadness, thanksgiving and optimism pervaded a get-together on Sunday afternoon, September 16 at St. Mark's Anglican Church, Bonarlaw, when the three congregations which make up Marmora Parish met to mark the closing of one of the churches.

The few remaining members of St. Thomas' Church have decided to close their picturesque red brick church on the 10th line of Rawdon Township built by their forebears in 1883.

Former rector of Marmora Parish, Rev. Robert Stewart, now of St. Mary Magdalene Church at Picton, assisted Rev. John Lombard at the 2 p.m. Communion Service in St. Thomas' Church and delivered a very inspiring address.

The three congregations met at 3 o'clock in St. Mark's church hall for a friendly visit with each other over a cup of tea or coffee and fruitbreads. Also present for the occasion was another former rector, The Very Reverend Richard Fleming, Dean of St. George's Cathedral in Kingston, who brought greetings from Bishop J.B. Creegan and Archdeacon Alan Anderson.

Dean Fleming, who was accompanied by his wife and four children, spoke of his happiness to be present on this occasion with so many good friends. He recalled that Marmora was his first parish and his experience here was a formative and happy one. He urged the members of St. Thomas' to look on the closing of their church as a change, not as an ending. While giving thanks for the past, look on the closing as a new beginning, he said and advised them to move into the future with the certainty that all things work together for good.

Letters of appreciation to John Courtney for his 38 years service as church warden and to Miss Edna Tanner for her 46 years as organist of the little church were received from Bishop Creegan and read by Rev. Lombard.

Bishop Creegan's statement that he would prefer to see the church levelled rather than have it destroyed by vandals, was greeted with dismay by Mr. Courtney and other members of St. Thomas' who hoped it would remain as a monument to the people who built it 90 years ago.

In appreciation for the contribution which the members of St. Thomas' have made over the years, the congregations of St. Mark's and St. Paul's, Marmora, combined to obtain pictures of the church which were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Courtney, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. George Tanner, Miss Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Preston, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Colden, Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Colden, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cook and Mrs. Phil Vance. George Tanner has been St. Thomas' other church warden.

Bethel U.C.W.

On Sept. 27, Mrs. Wm. Heath, Stirling was hostess for the regular meeting of Bethel U.C.W. The President, Mrs. E. Ketchen, opened the meeting with a poem, "Playing Square and Prayer." The roll call was answered by 24 members and one visitor with a verse containing the word "fruit."

Mrs. F. Reid read the minutes of the August meeting and of an executive meeting, also the correspondence which included several "Thank you" notes. Cards were signed by all to send members who are ill. An invitation was received from Mount Pleasant and from Hoards Station U.C.W's. The Fall Rally will be in Madoc on October 25. The members were reminded of some future catering. The decorating committee reported on their work and its cost.

Next year Bethel Church will be 100 years old. Plans were discussed on ways to celebrate this event. An order of Centennial Plates has arrived and several were sold. Mrs. B. Heagle and Mrs. F. McGee conducted the worship service and a short program. Mrs. H. Elliott was pianist and the hymn, "In Christ there is no East or West" was sung. The scripture from Acts 26 was read by Mrs. Heagle. Mrs. McGee gave the meditation on the theme Vision, also led in prayer. The offering was received by Mrs. Russell and dedicated by Mrs. Heagle. One verse of Lead us Heavenly Father was sung. Readings were given by Mrs. H. Holden, How Large a Circle; Mrs. E. Broadworth, - The Loveliest Season; and Mrs. G. Sine, - A Spring Song. The Benediction closed the meeting. Mrs. Ketchen thanked the hostess and all who helped with a very interesting meeting. A social time with coffee and dessert was enjoyed.

Members are reminded that the October meeting will be at the home of Mrs. D. Heath on October 18.

Masons Visit Lakeshore Lodge

Wor. Brother G.H. Hogle of Stirling, accompanied by Very Wor. Brother Graham Mouck and Wor. Brother Gordon W. Bailey, both of Stirling Masonic Lodge No. 69 G.R.C. A.F. & A.M. Stirling, Ontario, on the occasion of Wor. Brother Hogle's Masonic Lodge, being Lakeshore Lodge No. 645 G.R.C. A.F. & A.M. annual inspection by the District Deputy Grand Master, Right Wor. Brother A.J. Grosvenor of Toronto District No. 1, of the manner in which the Degree work was being conducted on the Candidate of the evening, Monday, October 1st.

These three Brethren, accompanied by Wor. Bro. Hogle's two sons, Morley and Glencoe Jr., who are also members of Lakeshore Lodge, were escorted into the lodge room and presented to the Wor. Master, visiting brethren and members by Right Wor. Bro. William A. Stewart, a Past District Deputy Grand Master of Toronto District No. 1 and who had been the first Candidate initiated by Wor.

Bro. Hogle in 1945 and who had been elevated to this high and distinctive office in recent years, apart from being a Grand Steward and an elected member of the Board of General Purposes of the Grand Lodge of Ontario.

This occasion was a surprise visit to Wor. Bro. Hogle's home lodge in Mimico, as his eldest son, Harvey Hogle, was in the Junior Wardens Chair. Hence the Junior Wardens lecture was to be given by him on this occasion, which he mastered with perfection.

These distinguished brethren returned home after a most enjoyable evening well spent, in the wee small hours of the morning.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Chapman of R.R. 1, Frankford, and the groom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Tubby of Fernleigh.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of white crepe with a chapel length train. Embossed lace trimmed the empire waist, stand-up collar and fitted cuffs. Her headpiece of flowers and seed pearls held a train-length veil, and she carried a bouquet of talisman roses.

Diane Chant of Brockville acted as maid of honor in an orange ice satin gown with a scoop neckline and short puffed sleeves. Her brimmed hat was in variegated yellow. The bridesmaids, Janice Chapman, the bride's sister, and Cheryl Bowlers of Brockville were dressed identically, and wore hats of variegated orange to complement their gowns.

The best man was Fred Smith of Stirling. The brides were John and Matthew Tubby, brothers of the groom.

FABULOUS FLOWERS

With all the concern these days over waistlines and the natural environment, it's no wonder that flowers are more than holding their own as gifts for every occasion. As a cash crop, flowers present a rewarding and worthwhile enterprise for a growing number of Ontario floriculturists. Greenhouses, constructed from materials ranging from glass to fiberglass to plastic, permit flowers to be grown year-round and to be available in the high-demand seasons of Christmas, Easter, Valentine's and Mother's Day. And there's something eye-catching about a greenhouse full of carnations and roses, while all around the ground is covered with snow.

Stirling Woman Killed in Crash

Mrs. Paul Snider, 126 Church Street, Stirling, was killed in a car-truck accident at the intersection of Highway 14 and the fourth concession of Thurlow Township Tuesday morning.

Two other persons, her son Harold, 19, driver of the car and Sid Faulkner, Belleville, were taken to Belleville General Hospital. At press time, the son was reported in fair condition, with multiple injuries, while the truck driver escaped with an injured arm.

Traffic was diverted from the highway for an hour, as it was feared the propane truck might explode. The truck partially overturned, and a crane was required to remove it from the scene.

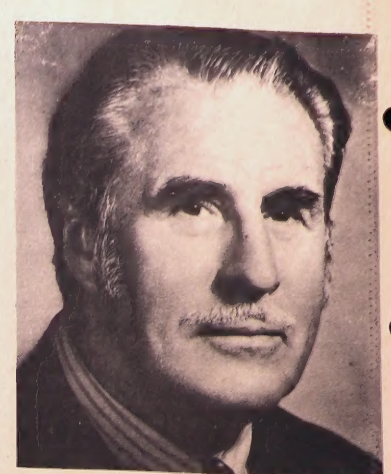

Firefighters from the Thurlow Township Fire Department kept an eye on the situation until the scene was cleared, in the event fire occurred.

It is believed Mr. Snider was in the Toronto area Tuesday, and this meant difficulty in locating him.

County Homes Filled

County homes for the aged, both at Belleville and at Bancroft, continue to operate at capacity, county councillors were told at their session this week.

The homes for the aged committee reported that as of the middle of September there were 11 applications on a waiting list for Centennial Manor at Bancroft. At Hastings Manor, outside Belleville there were no county residents awaiting admission but there were more than 40 city residents on a waiting list. Committee chairman Reeve S.J. Carr said this situation existed despite the fact Belleville has over 90 residents at Hastings Manor for the 75 beds originally agreed upon.

HEES VISITS STIRLING

George Hees, MP for Prince Edward-Hastings, visited in the Village on Tuesday and spent sometime discussing various aspects of the political scene with local officials.

LEGION NOTES

The monthly general meeting of Stirling Legion was held in the branch hall on Tuesday, Oct. 2nd last. A good attendance was on hand to enjoy the meeting. Branch President, Stan Kosmack was in the chair.

The resignation of Rev. Roy Taylor as co-Padre of Branch 228 was read. Comrade Roy, who has been a great help to the branch and to its members as our co-Padre, however, the resignation was accepted with reluctance. It is hoped that Comrade Roy will continue to be an active and welcome member.

President Kosmack reported that the recent winner of the Legion color T.V. draw, Francis Armstrong of Frankford, had made a donation of $100 to the branch building fund. This generous gift is sincerely appreciated by all members. It was also noted that the family of the late Comrade Morley Aythart had donated a hand-made cribbage board. This beautiful piece of hand-work will be a reminder of Comrade Morley and it will be valued greatly.

The meeting approved a motion to donate the sum of $10.00 to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

Membership chairman, Vic Jackett reported that three new members had been received by transfer from other branches. Stirling Legion welcomed comrades Ken and George Gozard formerly of Coe Hill Branch, and comrade Wm. Rainey of the Bowmanville Legion.

The branch president, Stan Kosmack voiced his thanks to all comrades and legion friends who played any part in the recent successful opening of the new addition to Branch No. 228. He stated that it would be impossible to personally thank each person who assisted in one way or another.

The next zone meeting of Zone F-3 will be held in Stirling Legion Hall. With delegates from all other branches in the zone, a large attendance is expected next Sunday, Oct. 14. Stirling Legion members are welcome and are urged to attend this meeting which will be hosted in Stirling. The business session is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. Oct. 14. The meeting will adjourn at 12:30 noon for a beef stew dinner to be prepared by the ladies of the branch. All Stirling Legion members are urged to be on hand next Sunday at 10 a.m. Let's show the Zone a real Stirling welcome.

Recently, the Legion-sponsored Pee Wee and Novice baseball teams, attended a banquet in Batavia which honored the Trenton teams who won the League championship. At the dinner, Stirling coach Lyle Faulkner was presented with an award as the outstanding coach in the league. The Legion congratulated Lyle and wish to thank him for his devoted work in Legion-sponsored sports for many years.

Plans are being made for the Legion Halloween Dance to be held on Saturday, Oct. 27. Further details will be announced in the Legion Bulletin and Legion Notes. All members are urged to plan their costumes now for this annual event.

The Legion is sponsoring a bus trip to the Toronto-Ottawa C.F.L. football game in Ottawa on Sunday, Oct. 21. Tickets are fast disappearing. Anyone interested is asked to contact Ray Tanner at once. At last report there were only six tickets left.

Minor hockey registrations have been held and the latest count shows some 198 boys have signed up. There's room for more and any youngsters in Stirling or district are asked to sign up at once so that teams can be formed. Fees are: 1 child - $5.00; 2 children - $8.00; more than 2 - $10.00. For further data please call Ted Dobson at 395-3714, Cecil Solmes 395-3360 or Merritt Wood 395-2239.

Comrade Ron Woodbeck has started to form a new organization within the Legion. We have all heard of SWEEP, the anti-pollution project, which involves so many of our young people. In Stirling Legion we have a lot of younger members and some older ones too. They have some extra time on their hands, perhaps even an hour or two a week. Ron is forming a "HOOS" club and is looking for members. HOOS is short for "Help Our Old Sweats" - in a nutshell, we need more volunteers to help our old faithful clean up the Legion Hall, prepare for bingo and in general keep our Legion premises in good shape. It means giving perhaps an hour a week, day or night - whenever you can spare 60 minutes.

When you consider that 90 per cent of the cleaning up, preparation for bingo, etc. is done by less than 10 per cent of our members, you'll know why you should join the Branch 228 "HOOS Club". Contact the following Comrades who are HOOS members: Pres. Stan Kosmack, Sec. Bert Bastardo, Executive members Ron Woodbeck, Vic Jackett or George Noble and Vice President Carl Cooke. "Help our old Sweats" - spare an hour a week to help keep Branch 228 spotless!

Next Executive meeting is Tuesday, Oct. 16 at 7:30 p.m. Remembrance Day, poppy campaign is just around the corner. Be proud to be a Legion WORKER!

Rawdon Township Council met on October 1st with all the members present. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved on motion of Pollock and Sharpe.

Finch-Spencer that McKewen Motors be paid $53.29 for supplies for the fire department.

Pollock-Finch that the report of the Building Inspector be received and filed and his account for inspection and mileage of $65.60 be paid.

Senior Citizens

Senior Citizens met again on Thursday with a good attendance. Progressive eucure was our fun and John Holmes, one of our older members and is now almost 90 years young, was high man. Good going John. Lenora Williams was high lady. Hats off to you (to Canary). Lil Heasman and Fred Kent were low enough to get a refund of their eucure fee.

A good feed of donuts and cheese was provided by Helen Williams. Mina Smith, Lenora Williams and Murn Stanley. We would like a good attendance on October 11 as we will have election of officers. Our Christmas dinner is all set for December 13 at St. Andrew's Church. More details later. We are happy to report that Lydia McKee and Ethel Duffin are both in circulation again and we hope they will soon be back at our meetings.

HOSPITALITY PLUS

When our past president Fred Heasman went to hospital recently, a nurse, who was showing him to his room said: "Now we want you to be happy and enjoy yourself while you are here; so, if there is anything you want that we haven't got, let me know and I'll show you how to get along without it."

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eggleton and Mr. and Mrs. Hector Eggleton spent the weekend in Sarnia and attended the funeral of their sister-in-law, Mrs. H.G. Eggleton, formerly of Brandon, Manitoba. She leaves a daughter (Mae) Mrs. John Perry and a son, Earl Eggleton in Sarnia.

Thanksgiving Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon McIntosh were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones and Sharon of Belleville, Mrs. Marson Smith, Pamela and Jeffrey of Brockville, Mrs. Jim McIntosh of Oshawa, Mr. and Mrs. Don McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. Ross McIntosh of Stirling, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Patterson and Candace, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Patterson, Lorraine, Barbara and Meredith of Clayton, N.Y., and Mr. and Mrs. William Clarke, Patricia and Mary of Watertown, N.Y.

Mrs. Wilda Graves returned home after spending Thanksgiving with her family in Toronto.

Miss Annie Ackers, 18 Victoria St., Stirling, spent Thanksgiving dinner with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Richardson. Mr. and Mrs. Gunter Wuster and family of Batavia were also guests for the dinner.

Boys and girls from Stirling and area signed up last week for the coming minor hockey league season. It is expected that ice will be available in the local arena in early November. Registrations were taken from the boys for Junior and Senior teams, and will be attending the annual meeting of the Ontario Minor Hockey Association in Toronto this weekend.

Mount Pleasant UCW

(By Mrs. Percy MacMullen)
On Thursday evening, October 3rd Mount Pleasant United Church Women convened at the hall with 32 ladies in attendance, which included one visitor from Mimico. The hall was decorated with colorful maple leaves, golden pumpkins, rosy red apples, sheaves of corn and a variety of posters pertaining to Thanksgiving. Each grandmother received an artificial corsage. Miss Brenda Williams gave a piano prelude and accompanied the Thanksgiving Hymns.

Mrs. Robert Hoard, president, welcomed the group and read a poem, "Sizing up Grandmothers."

Mrs. Ira David read the September report and the roll call was answered with "a saying from grandmother's day." Mrs. Eldon Chapman read the correspondence.

In the business section it was decided to cater for the Laurel Rebekah Lodge Birthday Party in November.

Plans were finalized for the bazaar and tea on Thursday, Oct. 11. Mrs. Burton Sharpe gave the financial report.

The program committee provided prizes for various grandmothers and these were distributed throughout the program as follows: Most Grandchildren - (a tie) Mrs. Donald Knight and Mrs. Percy MacMullen, each received a prize. Visiting Grandmother - Mrs. J. Beatty, Mimico; "Oldest Grandmother" - Mrs. J. Beatty, Mimico, 82 years of age; Newest Grandmother - Mrs. Leonard Sharpe, Newmarket; Most Grandchildren - Mrs. Arthur Couch, October Wedding Anniversary - Mrs. Raymond McConnell; Youngest Grandmother - Mrs. Stanley Williams; Most Grandsons - Mrs. Archie Bailey.

Mrs. Douglas Fyare gave a message on Stewardship. Mrs. Archie Bailey outlined what is needed for the clothing cupboard and other welfare work. A donation of money will be given for the Rally at Madoc. Mrs. Harry MacAdam, Citizenship Secretary, read "Old and New Ways of Worship."

Mrs. Herbert Smith gave a list of "old sayings of grandmother." Miss Brenda Williams was given a seat of honor and Mrs. James Hoard read an appreciative address and made the presentation of a gift for which the recipient voiced grateful thanks.

Mrs. Archie Bailey and Mrs. Jack Dunham presided over the program which opened with "Come Ye Thankful People, Come," and a psalm of praise was read responsively. The Thanksgiving was gathered by Mrs. Leslie Nelson and Mrs. Harry MacAdam and dedicated.

Mrs. Dunham read a story entitled "Beauty." The Bible lessons, found in various psalms which centered around the thought of praise, were read by Mrs. Douglas Fyare, Mrs. Vernon Harry, Mrs. Stanley Williams and Mrs. Margaret MacMullen.

Mrs. Bailey read a poem on Thanksgiving and Mrs. Dunham outlined the story to that theme. All sang "Sing to the Lord of Harvest" and a Litany.

Mrs. Kenneth Weaver gave a very informative report of a meeting which she had attended at Golden Lake.

Mrs. Claire Knight and Miss Brenda Williams gave a novelty number, "Old and New Grandmothers."

A large array of bazaar items fashioned by Miss Annie Holmes, were displayed. Also other items, which had been donated, included black poodles, aprons, Christmas decorations, etc.

River Valley WI

Mrs. Hudson Ketcheson, president of Hastings West District W.I., paid her official visit to the River Valley branch on Oct. 4th. She was welcomed into the home of Mrs. Sheldon McIntosh.

Following the Opening Ode and Mary Stewart Collect, business followed its usual form. The R.V.W.I. received several invitations to Autumn Teas and Bazaars. The members gave a donation for the "Save Sight" project; this is to go to the Trent Valley Area Convention, Oct. 23 and 24, via the District President, Miss Alice Heasman was the appointed delegate to attend, with Mrs. Ernest Carr her alternate. The District will sponsor a bus to Peterborough both days. The W.I. will again have card parties during November, January, February and March, beginning Nov. 2nd.

Standing Committees reported: Canadian Industry - Mrs. Robert Hoard told about the George Palliser plant, recently opened at the west end of Stirling; Citizenship - Miss Alice Heasman read the following statement from Manpower and Immigration, "If you were in Canada by Nov. 30, 1972 and have remained here since as a visitor or without legal status, we are going to give you until midnight, Oct. 15, 1973 to make our country your country." Education - Mrs. Paul Sorensen noted greeting cards were going to shrink in size and go higher in price due to a paper shortage; Family and Consumer Affairs - Mrs. Ernest Carr offered some advice for women "fasten your - urse in your seat belt with you, fasten your seat belt with groceries with them too."

ACWW - Mrs. Roy Tucker read from The Countrywomen about the annual Lady William Powlett Needlework competition for African Homecraft Clubs and Institutes, held in Rhodesia. A short lesson on Public Relations entitled "A Helping Hand" was given by the P.R.O. Mrs. Roy Bush, Curator, asked each member to jot down one historical item that has gone into history this summer and bring it to the next meeting.

Mrs. Paul Sorensen presented two gavel, fashioned by her husband, to the W.I. One of these will remain in the Branch, the other to go to the Friendship Link W.I. in England for Christmas.

The program conveners - Mrs. Raymond McConnell and Mrs. Claude Tucker had prepared the program on Cultural Activities.

Mrs. Sheldon McIntosh delighted the group with two favorite numbers on the electric organ.

Mrs. Roy Tucker introduced Mrs. Hudson Ketcheson from the Wallbridge W.I. She chose to tell and show just how valuable the Loan Library can be to members. With their help, you can borrow folders for each convener for several programs. One folder was "Using paper to save time." Accompanying it were several paper items, e.g. a bikini. She was thanked by the president and given a gift.

A musical contest was conducted with Mrs. Phil Conley the winner.

The roll call was answered to "Let's share our ideas by displaying an inexpensive gift. Among those shown were crocheted tie-backs for curtains, booklets from the Hastings County Historical Society, African violets, waste paper baskets fashioned from egg cartons, a Christmas candle arrangement from Tide soap. This splendid display led up to the motto which was "Busy hands cheat the devil."

Mrs. Harry Morrow read two numbers entitled "Work" and "What Have I Done To-Day?"

The meeting closed with the W.I. Grace and lunch being served. Mrs. Hudson Ketcheson and Mrs. Phil Conley had the lucky cups and were each the recipient of a lovely African violet from Mrs. Ross Bush.

St. Paul's UCW

Mrs. R. Keating presided for the October meeting of the St. Paul's U.C.W. on Tuesday evening at the church hall with 37 attending.

The Thanksgiving devotionals was taken by Mrs. B. Sayers, Mrs. C. Cooke, Mrs. J. Cooke and Mrs. J. Davidson. The meeting was opened with the hymn "Come Ye Faithful People," with Mrs. A. Pyear as pianist. The Scripture was Bless the Lord, O my Soul and forget not all his benefits.

Then a talk followed on devoting more time to being thankful. We call ourselves Christians, but are we sincerely thankful for all our resources. Mrs. Sagers closed with prayer.

Mrs. Bogart then gave a talk on Stewardship explaining many ways one can serve their Lord and His works. Find your way in serving as a steward and practise it daily.

A contest of discussions followed.

Mrs. Pyear and Mrs. Coleman spoke along these lines, bringing out the point that there is always a way provided for us to do our share in missions if we pray for an opening to serve.

The business then resumed with Mrs. R.A. Patterson reading the minutes.

Mrs. L. Harlow gave the financial report.

Mrs. H. Wray reported the cards of thanks received.

Announcements were made of coming event invitations to Oct. 11 Mount Pleasant tea, Hoard's Harvest tea on Oct. 24, Holloway St., Belleville, Wednesday, October 17, at 8:30 p.m. The production is sponsored jointly by the Quinte Arts Council and St. John's Anglican Church, with several offering cars for transportation.

Mrs. Harold West reported on the progress being made for the Nov. 30 Bazaar and Tea. The November meeting will, as usual, carry out the tradition in a pot luck supper served at 6:45 p.m.

The meeting closed and lunch was served.

Festival Singers In Belleville

The Festival Singers of Canada will present a concert in Bridge Street United Church, Wednesday, October 17, at 8:30 p.m. The production is sponsored jointly by the Quinte Arts Council and St. John's Anglican Church, with several offering cars for transportation.

The Festival Singers is a well-known Canadian musical group. During the past two years, in addition to performances in major Canadian centres, the group has also performed in such cities as Vienna, London, Cardiff, Paris, Zagreb, Yugoslavia, and Lucerne, Switzerland. Wherever they sang, they received the warmest of welcomes.

The conductor of the Festival Singers is Elmer Iseler, a graduate of Port Colborne High School, Waterloo Lutheran University and the University of Toronto. He conducted the Toronto Symphony and chorus for two years, and in 1954 formed the Festival Singers. He is also conductor of the Toronto Mendelssohn Choir, Canada's oldest and largest musical organization.

A native of this area, he was well-known in the construction business, dealing primarily in excavating work, and related types of business. He was also in charge of installation and repair work for the Stirling Public Utilities Commission, and handled the snowploughing and some maintenance work on the village streets.

He was a member of the Anglican Church, Stirling, 69, AF & AM, and former member of the Stirling Chamber of Commerce.

Minto

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clements spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Art Evans of Bowmanville.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Jackson of Stirling were tea hour guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vene Hagerman on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGee spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Orval Jackson of Stirling.

Accident Does $2000 Damage

A St. Catharines woman was hospitalized in Belleville following a two car collision at an intersection at Holloway on Monday.

Lana Swann, 20, of St. Catharines was admitted to Belleville General Hospital with a badly fractured left ankle Monday night. She was reported in satisfactory condition.

Stafford Mark LaChapelle, 19, of R.R. 4, Stirling, the driver of the second car was uninjured. Mr. LaChapelle's car was struck by the other vehicle, travelling south, upon entering the intersection at Highway 62. The vehicle driven by the St. Catharines LaChapelle vehicle, went through a guard rail, and into a ditch on the east side of the highway.

Damage to the vehicle was estimated at $2,000 while the second car, driven by Mr. LaChapelle, sustained an estimated $100 damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eggleton and Mr. and Mrs. Hector Eggleton spent the weekend in Sarnia and attended the funeral of their sister-in-law, Mrs. H.G. Eggleton, formerly of Brandon, Manitoba. She leaves a daughter (Mae) Mrs. John Perry and a son, Earl Eggleton in Sarnia.

Thanksgiving Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon McIntosh were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones and Sharon of Belleville, Mrs. Marson Smith, Pamela and Jeffrey of Brockville, Mrs. Jim McIntosh of Oshawa, Mr. and Mrs. Don McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. Ross McIntosh of Stirling, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Patterson and Candace, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Patterson, Lorraine, Barbara and Meredith of Clayton, N.Y., and Mr. and Mrs. William Clarke, Patricia and Mary of Watertown, N.Y.

Mrs. Wilda Graves returned home after spending Thanksgiving with her family in Toronto.

Miss Annie Ackers, 18 Victoria St., Stirling, spent Thanksgiving dinner with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Richardson. Mr. and Mrs. Gunter Wuster and family of Batavia were also guests for the dinner.

STIRLING PL BUILDING CENTRE

Merrie Bowlers

Things are beginning to liven up with those Merrie Ones. Already the race is on for the high single. The first week Geri Huncar had a 272, second week Ruth Glover 288 and this week Dilly Montgomery steamed her machine up to 303 and that's dangerous. Just think with these speedy vehicles what could happen in a race to top that. If things get too rough they may have to spare their strikes.

Barb Noble is driving hard, rolled a 223 and 226 this week, bringing in the high triple, at this point, of 614. She's also sporting the high average of 185. Barb is a tough competitor, has sure helped put the Striders in top position.

The team racing was a bit one-sided. Dilly Montgomery's Cruisers came up with the 7 points against Lorna Wrightman's Yamahas. Likewise Isobel Hutcheon's Sno-Jets captured 7 from Flo Parsonson's Arctic Cats. The standing now is Sno-Jets 18; Cruisers 12; Arctic Cats 8 and Yamahas 4. Lorna feels the Yamahas always need snow for speed.

Other over 200 games included Helena Oosting 215; Geri Huncar 232; and Betty Hubble 214.

Moorcraft-Richardson

Grace Chapel, Stirling, was the scene when Sheila May Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Richardson, R.R. 3, Frankford, and Alan J. Moorcraft, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moorcraft, Foxboro, were married.

Robert McLaren officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire gown with long full bodied sleeves and chapel length train. Her layered

Taylor-Pakkanen

Armour Heights Presbyterian Church, Toronto, was the setting for the August 18 wedding of Elvi-Helena Pakkanen and Allen Roy Taylor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Juhon Pakkanen, Toronto, and the groom the son of Rev. and Mrs. Roy A. Taylor, Stirling. The groom's father officiated at the ceremony.

The processional music was Finlandia by Jean Sibelius, and the recessional the Wedding March by Mendelssohn. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown, appliqued and beaded with a full train and short veil, with a princess cap for a headpiece. She carried a bouquet of stephanolias, and baby pink roses.

The bridesmaids were Lea Kemppi and Vivianne Pakkanen, Toronto and Heidi Higgin, Bowmanville. They wore floor length gowns of blue and green chiffon, with butterfly sleeves, and a halo of flowers in the hair.

The best man was Douglas Bensley, Jr., Stirling, with the groom's brother Barrie and Kimmo Oikkinen, Toronto, acting as ushers.

The wedding reception was held at the Fontaine Bleu Reception Centre, Toronto, where the bride's mother received the guests wearing a floor length dress of green chiffon, with beads at the waist. The groom's mother assisted, and wore a blue, silk knit sheath dress, with white lace bodice.

For the honeymoon to the Bancroft area, the bride chose a travelling costume of brown and white checkered dress, with matching jacket.

Some of the out of town guests attending were Mrs. Ida Kayhty, Miss Kerttu Sitonen, of Finland; Mr. and Mrs. Roger McLeod of Owen Sound and Miss Patricia Sparrer, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Walden, and Miss Rosemond Jacobs.

The couple will reside in Guelph, where they will attend classes at the University of Guelph this fall.

Put Plow Away

Whether you plow in the spring, the fall or both, one thing is for sure: it feels good to have the plowing done. But don't let yourself think things are finished until that plow is properly cared for and put away. Taking a little time to put your plow away properly will save you time when you need the plow later. And it may save you money by reducing the number of parts you'll need to buy.

With these thoughts in mind, Massey-Ferguson engineers have developed the following check list of things to do when you've finished plowing:

1. Clean all soil-engaging parts and apply a heavy coating of grease to prevent rust.
2. Make a thorough visual inspection of the plow. Check for worn or broken parts and make notes of them for replacement during the off season.
3. Check nuts and bolts for tightness and tighten as needed.
4. If plow has hydraulic reset, check system pressure. Maintain recommended pressure in accumulator.
5. If plow is to be stored outside, cover accumulator and hydraulic gauge with waterproof canvas or black plastic film (clear plastic film will attract moisture).
6. Plug and cover hydraulic couplers to keep them clean and protected from weather.
7. Sure hoses in hose frame.
8. Check pressure in tires and inflate to recommended pressure.
9. Store plow in a shed or in a protected place, out of your way but easy get to when it's plowing time again.

If you'll take just a few minutes to do those few things, you'll find not only that your machinery performs a little better and lasts a little longer, but also that it's ready to go sooner next time you need it. Next season, you'll congratulate yourself for good planning.

Loyalists Meet At Picton

The United Empire Loyalists' Branch in Bay of Quinte Region held its September meeting in Benson Hall, Picton, recently. This branch rotates its meetings in the regions of Trenton-Belleville, Picton, Napanee and Kingston. There is an increasing interest in the U.E.L., thus augmenting the large membership. Family histories, research, history and relevant current issues provide action for the programs.

The Heritage Foundation of Canada has extended an introductory free offer to all members of U.E.L. in order to strengthen their organization across Canada. The membership would expire September 30, 1974.

Mrs. Smith of Bath proposed the project of printing "Loyalist Graves of the Bay of Quinte," written by Dr. H.C. Burleigh. A local company has offered to do the printing as a gift to our Association, providing the paper can be supplied. W. Vankoughnet of Napanee supported the publishing and the task will be undertaken.

New members accepted at this meeting were Mrs. Pearl E. Davis, Brockville and J. Donald Hough, Mississauga. Mr. Young also extended a warm welcome to E. Switzer, Bath, and D. Flagler, Florida, who attended for their first time.

Mrs. Evelyn Drew of Picton announced the sale of United Empire Loyalists Christmas cards available from herself, branch treasurer, and urged members to order as soon as convenient.

The highlight of the evening was a paper given by Charles F. Young of Bath, branch president, outlining the history of his ancestors through the Buck Family. Much research had been done to trace the history of many families belonging to this family. Mr. Young suggested that each member of the executive be asked to trace his or her ancestry and present it

Federal Minister At Trenton Friday

Following is a biographical sketch of Mr. Whelan, who will speak at the banquet sponsored by the Prince Edward-Hastings Liberal Association, in the Royal Canadian Legion Hall, Trenton, Friday night.

Eugene F. Whelan was born in 1924 in Anderton Township, Ontario. He has been a resident of his constituency of Essex-Windsor for all his life, and he and his wife, the former Elizabeth Pollinger of Kingsville, and their three daughters, Theresa Ann, Susan Elizabeth and Catherine, now live on a farm near the one on which he was raised.

He attended the township public school, Amherstburg High School and Windsor-Walkerville Vocational and Technical Schools where he studied to be a tool and die maker. Following the family tradition, he has been active in public life since he was a teenager.

Mr. Whelan has been active in the Ontario Federation of Agriculture, serving as president of the Essex County Branch at the age of 24. He was one of the organizers and one of the original directors of the Ontario Winter Wheat Producers Marketing Board. He was also president of one of the largest local co-ops, the Harrow Farmer Co-op, before becoming a director of it and of the United Co-operatives of Ontario. He was an organizer and agent as well as a director of the Co-op Insurance Association, a position he had to relinquish when elected to the House of Commons. He is a member of the Lions Club, the Knights of Columbus Council 3844, and a former member of the UAW-cio Local 89. His favorite sport is hockey, having been active in local leagues and having played in the Ontario Rural Hockey League. Other recreations are swimming, soft ball, boating and bowling.

POLITICAL CAREER
Mr. Whelan was first elected in 1962, and re-elected in a subsequent meeting. Mrs. Smith gave a preliminary report concerning preparations for the historic trip to Bennington, Vt., by the Bay of Quinte Branch members and friends. The approximate travel price of a bus leaving Napanee would be $15 per person and accommodation $20 per night for a couple. She asked all concerned to give the matter thought for making the trip in the Spring.

Those interested are asked to contact the president at Box 112, Bath or Mrs. Meda Hart, Box 486, Picton.

1963, 1965, 1968 and 1972. He represented Essex South, which was renamed Essex-Windsor following the redistribution before the 1968 election. His riding is one of the most diversified in Canada including the problems of fisheries, agriculture, immigration, labor and heavy industry of all kinds. He has held an elected position ever since the age of 21 when he was elected to the Anderton Township School Board. He served as reeve of the township, chairman of the County Road Committee and also as warden of Essex County. Since his election to the House of Commons, he has taken an active interest in legislation affecting agriculture, public accounts, banking, commerce, food, drugs, environment, justice and legal affairs, and the Great Lakes water levels. He was one of the first Members of Parliament to have a Private Member's bill sent to committee to become law. This bill was to protect primary producers of perishable products against financial loss in case a processor went bankrupt. His parliamentary interests also include rural development, pollution and conservation. He attended the World Parliamentarians' Conference in Belgrade, Yugoslavia, in 1963, and in Lima, Peru, in 1968, and attended the United Nations in New York in January 1967 as an Observer. He served as Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Fisheries and Forestry from 1968 to 1970, and was chairman of the Agriculture Committee. He is a strong believer in participation in caucus and has served on special caucus committees on Agriculture, Citizenship, Immigration, Public Works and Northern Affairs. Mr. Whelan was appointed Minister of Agriculture on November 27, 1972.

"Nobody does that better than he does."

Do You Remember?
25 Years Ago

The regular meeting of St. Paul's Young People was held in the Sunday School rooms on Tuesday October 12.

The meeting opened with a worship service based on Thanksgiving and led by the fellowship convener, Georgina Hoffman. The president, Glen Bush, conducted a short business period. Rev. Barker conducted the installation of officers.

Stirling High School Rugby squad completely outclassed Tweed on the latter's campus on Thursday afternoon last to win easily by a score of 27-0. The locals lost the services of J. Reid, backfielder, in the first half, when he sustained a fractured ankle.

A party of Stirling Hunters Messrs. Walter and Jimmy Wright, Fred Eggleton and R. Bruce Bell, bagged a wolf while hunting in the Minto district on Monday morning.

R.W. Bro. S.C. Wood, District Deputy Grand Master of Prince Edward District, will make his official visit to Stirling Lodge 69, AF and AM, next Thursday evening, October 21. A banquet will be served by the Ladies Association of St. Paul's United Church in the Community Hall, following which a regular communication of the craft will take place in the Masonic Hall.

The many friends of T.E. Fleming who has rendered forty-one years service as postmaster at Ivanhoe, extend to him their sincere congratulations upon the receipt of his Long Service Badge.

Dental Topics
ATTITUDES MUST CHANGE WITH METHODS

Tooth decay is Canada's most prevalent disease, affecting 95 per cent of the population and costing $250 million in dental bills alone.

A sadder fact is that, while dentistry has developed new methods to control decay and gum disease, neither the public nor the dental profession is putting this knowledge to thorough use.

Preventive dentistry demands serious re-adjustment in the thinking of patients and their dentists. The patient should visit his dentist twice yearly and faithfully do the homework prescribed. More time and concern is needed on the part of the dentist who should draw up individual programs to protect the teeth of each patient.

Although sounding complicated and irksome, preventive dentistry in the long run is less complex, less costly and less painful than the old repair-and-replace dentistry.

Resistance is built into baby and permanent teeth by topical application of fluorides, through home brushing with a fluoridated toothpaste and by twice yearly visits to a dentist. The dentist gives the teeth a thorough cleaning - removing tartar - and the fluoride solution is painted on.

Preventive care of the baby teeth, which influence the positioning of the permanent teeth, can ensure a correct bite, attractive teeth and can forestall many conditions (which cause gum disease and tooth loss).

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL TO EXPROPRIATE LAND

IN THE MATTER of an application by the Minister of Transportation and Communications for approval to expropriate lands in the Township of Rawdon.

FOR THE PURPOSE OF the reconstruction of the King's Highway 14.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that application has been made for approval to expropriate the land described in the schedule hereto.

Any owner of lands in respect to which notice is given who desires an inquiry into whether the taking of such land is fair, sound and reasonably necessary in the achievement of the objectives of the expropriating authority shall so notify the approving authority in writing.

(a) in the case of a registered owner, served personally or by registered mail within thirty days after he is served with the notice, or, when he is served by publication, within thirty days after the first publication of the notice.

(b) in the case of an owner who is not a registered owner, within thirty days after the first publication of the notice.

THE APPROVING AUTHORITY IS
Minister of Transportation and Communications
Parliament Buildings,
Toronto 5, Ontario.
Director, Right-of-Way Branch

NOTES:
1. The Expropriations Act provides that,
(a) where an inquiry is requested, it shall be conducted by an inquiry officer appointed by the Minister of Justice and Attorney General;
(b) The inquiry officer, (i) shall give every party to the inquiry an opportunity to present evidence and argument, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses, either personally or by his counsel or agent, and (ii) may recommend to the approving authority that a party to the inquiry be paid a fixed amount for his costs of the inquiry not to exceed $200 and the approving authority may in its discretion order the expropriating authority to pay such costs forthwith.

2. "owner" and "registered owner" are defined in the Act as follows:
"owner" includes a mortgagee, tenant, execution creditor, a person entitled to a limited estate or interest in land, a committee of the estate of a mentally incompetent person or of a person incapable of managing his affairs, and a guardian, executor, administrator or trustee in whom land is vested;
"registered owner" means an owner of land whose interest in the land is defined and whose name is specified in an instrument in the proper registry, land titles or sheriff's office, and includes a person shown as a tenant of land on the last revised assessment roll;

3. The expropriating authority, each owner who notifies the approving authority that he desires a hearing in respect of the lands intended to be expropriated and any owner added as a party by the inquiry officer are parties to the inquiry.

The Builders

Ed Note: At the time of the passing of former Principal John L. Good, the editor wished to comment, but it was difficult to find the appropriate words. With the sudden passing of Harry E. Cooke this week, the following thoughts materialized.

Seldom have communities as small as Stirling lost two prominent citizens in such a short time, who made their respective marks so indelibly, yet so differently on the face of the village. Such is the situation with the deaths within about a month's time of John Good and Harry Cooke.

Both men were builders, one of individuals, one of material things; both were dedicated to producing the best they could from the materials provided, one with human resources, the other with tools and machinery made from products taken from the earth on which we live; both had the same basic ideal - service to their fellow man in their chosen fields.

Walking the streets of many communities in Canada, and possibly in other countries as well, are men and women who owe their success in life to the education and, we believe to a degree, moral instruction, learned from their teachers and principals. Each leaves his impression on students, and while most students don't like school much of the time, nevertheless, when they arrive at graduation, and subsequently take their place in the business world, they look back with respect upon those who helped shape their lives and careers. John Good was such a man.

Nearly every street in this village can lay claim to bearing the imprint of Harry Cooke's hand. Through his invaluable work in the service department for the Public Utilities, his construction of innumerable basements, installation of various services, snowploughing, and a host of other talents he was called upon to perform, he had a knowledge of this community few could claim. Perhaps few would want it, if they saw his truck coming and going at the hours it did.

But there are two more common bonds between these men of such different yet similar vocations - both were active in the work of their respective churches, John with the United, Harry with the Anglican. When service was required, they were among those frequently providing it.

Their final link was through the fraternalism of the Masonic Lodge. John quite likely could be easily called "Mr. Mason" in Stirling, and indeed in fraternal service beyond this community. Harry was also a member of the "Craft" and made his contributions in a less heralded, but no doubt equally valuable way. Such members are vital to any fraternal work.

Although not a member of the "Craft" the editor does know something of the symbols of the Masonic ring; the square, the compass, and the letter G. The meanings and teachings are no doubt similar to his interpretation, and the two men mentioned are doubtless now within the realm of theirs.

Environmental assessment... There are four basic principles laid down in the Green Paper on Environmental Assessment released last week by Environment Minister James Auld.

That Ontario needs environmental assessment.

That the public should be involved.

That the public should be informed.

That the cost of assessing the environmental impact of a project should be applied to the cost of the project.

The first principle is a basic assumption. Environmental Ontario has developed comprehensive pollution abatement programs and is developing environmental rehabilitation programs. But these deal with existing situations. A wide range of planning and preventive activities must be brought together and supplemented so that an efficient and centralized system can be developed to head off environmental problems while development projects are still on the drawing boards.

This system is called environmental assessment.

Public involvement is essential to make it work. The people who are affected, or whose surroundings are affected by government or private development should take part in any program designed to see that the effects of the project are beneficial.

And the public must be informed... documentation on a proposal should be available for public scrutiny in the very early stages of a development proposal. There are, of course, limited circumstances that would create exceptions to this rule - for example, situations where full disclosure would not be in the public interest, would cause inflation of land or service prices, or would reveal confidential information about industrial processes.

Applying the cost of assessment to the project proposed is simply the fairest way to handle most situations. The agency that proposes a development which could affect the environment should be prepared to pay for the expense involved in avoiding or minimizing any adverse environmental effects from the development. Assessment is not that expensive a process in terms of development costs, and the streamlining that a thorough assessment procedure can bring to the process of government examination and approval could provide real benefit to the proponent of a development in terms of reduced delay.

There have been several systems proposed to meet these basic principles. And these will be debated over the next few months until a final procedure is established.

The important thing about this procedure is that it will give all of us a chance to take part in doing what it says on the licence plate of your car: Keep Ontario Beautiful.

Retta Wilson was installed as the Noble Grand of Laurel Rebekah Lodge 211 at the annual installation of officers. Sister Susan Chesher, District Deputy President of Belleville was in charge of the ceremonies.

Mr. William Fitchett, local poultry fancier, was in Norwood on Tuesday assisting with the judging of the poultry classes. The exhibit was a particularly fine one, with close to nine hundred birds being judged.

At a meeting of the congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church of Stirling and West Huntingdon, it was unanimously agreed to extend a call to the Rev. H.W.V. Walker of Janetville, of Peterboro Presbytery. He succeeds the Rev. J.A. Koffend.

The work of putting a top layer or finishing coat on the piece of highway from the Front Street Bridge to the residence of Percy Craighead, on the Belleville road, commenced Wednesday morning. The base was laid on this route last fall, but owing to the lateness of the season was not completed. The work is being done by the Route Construction Company of Toronto.

Charles Carter was installed as Noble Grand of Stirling Lodge 239, IOOF, succeeding Earl Fox. Dr. J.R. Beatty, District Deputy Grand Master, conducted the ceremony at the lodge rooms. Also present were 25-year jewels, William Fitchett, Arthur Andrews of Stirling and William Barrigan of Peterborough.

Plan Bridge For Tweed

The village of Tweed is expected to get its long-looked-for bridge next year but the new structure will not be at the same location. This was indicated Tuesday at Hastings county council by County roads engineer Frank Pinder, following the roads and bridges report by Reeve Ray Shortt, committee chairman.

Mr. Pinder said plans for the structure were on the drawing boards at Greer Galloway Associates and that if "all went well" the bridge would be built next year.

Location of the bridge in all probability would be downstream from the present bridge.

Mr. Shortt said that the county presently had 1.8 miles of road construction for portions of County Road 8, the Moira Road, out for tender. It was hoped that a contract would be awarded by the first of October and have a major portion of the grading work completed this year.

Five other projects are in the preliminary stages of design and pre-engineering, those being County Road 18 from Belleville City Limits to County Road No. 7, County Road No. 22 from County Road No. 21 easterly for four miles, County Road No. 13 from the Hamlet of Marlbank westerly for four miles and County Road No. 16 the urban section in the Town of Deseronto. Reconstruction for County Road 18 and 16 are planned for 1974, County Road 22 and County Road 13 are planned for re-construction in 1976.

Commissioner H.H. Graham this week announced that the force will test the four-day, forty-hour work week, commencing on or about January 1, 1974.

In accordance with the memorandum of understanding with the Ontario Provincial Police Association, four detachments of various sizes will be selected for this study.

It is anticipated that the test will be for a period not exceeding six months. Following this the results will be evaluated as to the possible implementation throughout the force.

APPOINTMENTS

ROBERT E. MARCOTTE

JOHN F. ROLLINS

RONALD C. MURRAY

Maurice H. Rollins, President and founder of Maurice H. Rollins Construction Limited and Rollins Lumber Limited, one of the largest land development and residential building contractors in Southern Ontario, wishes to announce the following appointments.

Mr. Robert E. Marcotte to Vice President in charge of all property acquisition and development. Mr. Marcotte has been with the firm for 3 years and brings with him many years prior business and mortgage experience.

Mr. John F. Rollins to Vice President, continuing in his capacity as General Superintendent for Belleville and district. While devoting major responsibility to Belleville and immediate area, Mr. Rollins will also be appointing superintendents to other districts as well as for the larger multi-family developments. Mr. Rollins has been with the firm for 17 years.

Mr. Ronald C. Murray to Vice President of Rollins Lumber Limited and continuing in his capacity as General Manager, a position he has held since its founding 11 years ago.

governmental health schemes.

Following the Russian Prisoners' improvement in health in the unproductive gold mine in the interior of Borekstein mountain, tests were carried out, the healing effects of the humid radon-impregnated air confirmed and the tunnels developed at "Heilstollen" (healing galleries.) About 60,000 sufferers have received treatment in them since they were opened in 1951 and careful statistics show there is a 75 per cent chance of recovery.

All treatments are closely supervised by specializing doctors and admission to the tunnels is not allowed without a medical examination. The high humidity and temperatures up to 120 degrees Fahr. are not suitable to everyone. The Borekstein galleries are the only ones of their kind in the world and it is probably the only medical centre where nurses attend their patients in Bikinis.

A small train takes the invalids to various prescribed stations deep in the mountain, the farthest station being one and two-fifths miles from the entrance. Treatments last an hour and are followed by an hour's compulsory rest. Ten treatments, taken over 20 days, cost about $75.00.

There are some 45,000 people who will say it was worth every penny.

IODE Art Show Success

The IODE Art Show and Sale sponsored by the Hon. J.R. Cooke Chapter, Stirling, on Saturday, September 29, was most enthusiastically received and very well attended by Stirling and outlying districts. The IODE members were most pleased by the enthusiastic response to their efforts and wish to thank all those who attended.

Stirling was well represented in the draw that took place in the evening on an oil painting scene of Stirling. It was painted by a Stirling artist, Mrs. Madeline McIntosh. Another Stirling artist, Gary Barr, made the draw and it was won by Miss Ann Morton of Stirling.

(By Mrs. Malcolm Mason) Mrs. Fred McKeown was a supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. Les McKeown and Robin at Morton on Sunday. Art Reid of the Royal Military College at Kingston spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mort Reid and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Wilson, Hockley, were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Preston. Mrs. Linda Wickens and Lori on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. A. Vanwart, Peterborough and Mrs. Ed Bateman were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Bateman and family on Sunday.

danger

Careless smoking is the greatest single cause of home fires.

Drowsiness, often brought on by alcohol or drugs, combined with smoking in an easy chair or in bed, is a sure invitation to disaster.

Always use large ashtrays with notches for cigarettes. After a party, they should be emptied and stuffed furniture checked for smoldering cigarettes.

Keep bits of paper out of ash trays and never empty them into a waste paper basket. A closed metal container kept for this purpose should be used.

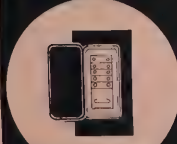

danger

Most paints, varnish removers, turpentine and similar cleaners are highly flammable. If you must have these fluids around the house, keep them in tightly closed, metal containers (never glass), and in a cool, well-ventilated place. Never store them near other materials that might easily catch fire.

Gasoline and naphtha should be kept in approved safety containers away from the house.

If home dry cleaning must be done, be sure to do it outdoors, away from open flames, sparks and cigarettes.

Never use flammable liquids to start fires.

Grease spilled or spattered on the stove may catch fire. Overheating can cause fat in the pan to ignite. Never leave heating grease unattended.

If grease does flare, don't pick up the pan or run with it. The flames may be fanned back against you. And never use water. Even a small amount will spatter the grease. Instead, turn off the heat and use a large lid to smother the flames.

A liberal dose of baking soda is also effective for controlling burner and oven fires.

An oven grease fire will extinguish itself, however, if the heat is turned off and the door kept closed for a few minutes.

danger

The safety fuse has a small link of soft metal which melts if too much electricity flows through it. This can be caused from a short circuit or too many appliances being plugged in to a circuit. When the metal link melts, or the "fuse blows", the electricity is instantaneously cut off.

The common household fuse is 15 amps. It allows just the right amount of electricity to go through the wires. If you replace this with a 30 amp. fuse, more electricity is allowed to go through the wires. Too many appliances plugged in to this circuit may cause the wires to over-heat resulting in a fire.

This pamphlet should not be considered a manual for high rise dwellers, but rather as a source of information that may be adapted to your particular needs and your particular building.

BUILT-IN SAFETY FEATURES OF HIGH RISE APARTMENTS

1. Fire Resistant Construction.
2. Fire Alarm System.
3. Interior Fire Escape Stairways.
4. Interior Water Supplies for Fire Fighting.

High rise apartment buildings, defined by the National Building Code as being seven storeys in height or over, are generally considered to be safer from the spread of fire than the average single family dwelling. In Ontario, such buildings are constructed of fire resistant materials. Suites are separated by solid masonry walls and floors, inhibiting the spread of fire from one suite to another.

These buildings contain a fire alarm system, which will alert the whole building when activated. The alarm system must be activated manually. The system is not, however, connected to the Fire Department and it is therefore necessary that any alarms be telephoned in to your local fire service in addition to activating the alarm. Give fire floor location as well as street address.

High rise buildings contain interior fire escape stairways. The stairways are marked on each floor by exit lights. To preserve the safety of these escape stairs, the doors leading into them MUST BE KEPT CLOSED AT ALL TIMES.

These buildings contain interior water supplies and hoses on each floor for fire department use. Most buildings have fire extinguishers in the hose cabinets. Learn how to operate the one nearest you.

In larger high rise buildings, upper floors may be beyond the height accessible by Fire Department aerial equipment. Fires must be fought internally because of height.

- High rises pose a potential for significant stacking effect. Differences in air pressure outside, combined inside with sealed windows and open elevator shafts, stairwells and central air conditioning, can tend to convert a high rise into a giant chimney.
- Larger high rise buildings require a considerable total evacuation time. Evacuation problems may be compounded by fire department personnel having to fight their way up through descending occupants to get to the fire floor itself.

IN A FIRE...

In an emergency situation, people tend to exit via the same means as they enter, the elevator. It is also the Worst Thing You Could Do. Heat can activate some elevator call buttons sending the elevator to the fire floor itself, where dense smoke may interfere with the elevator's light sensitive electric eye, stopping the door from closing. Also, water from fire fighting operations may short out the central switch, causing the elevator to stop.

Your major decision in reacting to a fire is whether to leave your apartment or stay where you are. Unless you are in immediate danger from fire, you may be better off staying in your suite.

IF FIRE IS IN YOUR SUITE

- Alert everyone in the suite.
- Leave your suite. Close door, leaving it un-locked.
- Sound fire alarm in corridor.
- Call Fire Department, giving street address, floor and apartment number.
- Leave your floor by the nearest exit stairway, closing door behind you to prevent spread of smoke and heat.
- Never Use Elevators.

IF FIRE IS IN THE BUILDING

- Call Fire Department, giving details. Never assume this has already been done.
- Unplug all appliances.

Either Evacuate...

- Be prepared to encounter heavy smoke and heat in your evacuation. If time allows, put on shoes and a heavy coat for protection. Cover nose and mouth with cloth, preferably wet.
- Test all doors before opening. If the door or knob feels hot, deadly heat and gases under considerable pressure have already filled the corridor. Even if the door is cool, be prepared. Brace yourself against the door and open it a crack. If you feel air pressure or a hot draft, close the door quickly. Remain in your suite and taken precautions.
- If the corridor is clear, close suite door behind you and leave the building via the nearest exit stairway, again closing door after you.
- Never Use Elevators.
- If you encounter smoke or fire in your descent, use an alternative exit or return to your suite.

Or Remain In Your Suite

- A closed door can provide good protection against fire and smoke. Use wet towels or sheets to seal cracks, transoms, mail slots etc. If smoke begins seeping through central air conditioning outlets, plug them as well.

- Move to balcony or most protected room, opening window.
- If smoke enters the room crouch low. Remember, heat and gases rise. A wet sheet held over the bottom opening of the window or balcony will help you get a cleaner supply of air from outside.
- Signal your position by waving.
- Wait to be rescued.

FIRE SAFE USE OF FACILITIES

Garbage Chutes

Don't put burning materials (cigarettes, ashes, etc.) into these chutes. Don't force cartons, coat hangers, bundles of paper, etc. into chutes, you may cause a blockage. If you find the chute blocked, inform the superintendent immediately. Don't dispose of flammable liquids or aerosol cans in these chutes.

Balconies

Using Bar BQs on balconies is a dangerous practice due to the limited space and the extra hazards created by use of starting fluids. They are often a smoke nuisance to your neighbours and a carbon monoxide menace in the apartment.

Storage and Locker Rooms

Keep storage area tidy and to a minimum. Do NOT store flammable liquids. When searching in a dark locker, do NOT use matches or candles.

And In General

Avoid careless smoking. Eliminate unsafe electrical appliances, frayed extension cords, octopus plugs, etc. Avoid unsafe cooking practices. Familiarize yourself with the building you live in: exits, fire alarm system. Call your local Fire Department whenever you need advice or assistance.

IF YOU should awake tonight to find your house on fire, how would you escape? If you can't answer that question, it's time you did some serious planning. The safety of your family is at stake. Fire prevention is most important, but you must also plan the family's escape in case of fires. Following are some simple suggestions.

1 Hold a family meeting. The plan you formulate may make the difference between life and death. Its purpose is to evacuate the house quickly and safely.

2 Assess your house for escape routes from every room. You need a route other than the door opening on the hallway. The hallway itself is like a superheated chimney during a fire and becomes impassable. In bungalows, bedroom, kitchen and bathroom windows are ideal escape routes if they can be opened. Everyone should know how to safely break a window if necessary. Use a heavy object—such as a chair—while shielding your face against flying glass. Then some object is run around the edges to remove jagged pieces of glass. Stairway doors should be closed at bedtime and it is advisable to keep bedroom doors shut as well to impede the spread of fire and smoke.

3 If upstairs windows open on to a porch roof or extension, you may be able to drop to the ground easily. Some families keep a ladder on the roof for this purpose. See if it is possible for room occupants to throw a mattress from their window before jumping to soften the fall.

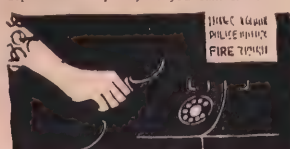

4 There must be an escape method from each separate room. This can be a heavy rope, knotted at intervals and fastened securely inside each window, or a rope or metal escape ladder. Suppliers' names may be obtained from the Ontario Safety League.

5 It is imperative that all occupants be alerted to the existence of fire. Home fire alarm units may be of value. If anyone hears the alarm sound, or senses fire, he should remember to warn others verbally.

6 Smoke and gases—not flame—are the primary killers. Closed doors will keep smoke out of a room for a time, giving you a chance to escape by an alternative exit. Never open any door without first testing it. If the door or knob feels hot, deadly heat and gases have already filled the hallway. Use your alternative exit, crouching low if smoke has already entered the room. Remember, heat and gases rise. Tie a cloth or towel, preferably wet, around the mouth and nose as a breathing aid in heavy smoke or heat.

7 Know how to escape 'blind' from every room in the house. Dense smoke may cloud exits, leaving them virtually invisible. A flashlight should always be kept handy for night escapes as well. Batteries should be checked once a month.

8 Don't waste time trying to fight anything but the smallest of fires. Notify the fire department as quickly as you can. If fire is close by, escape the building first and alert the fire department from a neighbour's phone. Give address FIRST. Many panic-stricken callers do not disclose the location of the fire.

9 Once you have escaped, never return to a burning building. Decide on a meeting place outside the building where everyone is to gather.

10 Your escape plan is useful only if remembered. Review it with the whole family at intervals, so that each person knows exactly what to do in the event of fire. Consult your local fire department about special problems you may encounter in working out escape routes.

11 Remember... in spite of precautions, you may someday have a fire in your home. If you plan your escape now, you can live through it.

Canada's fire symbol for hazardous household products. Flammable and inflammable mean the same thing—will burn.

with Bill Dodds

A dubious honor... UNESCO has announced that international studies show Mexico City as the world's most polluted city.

The United Nations organization reports "air contamination" in Mexico City is equivalent to smoking two packs of cigarettes a day.

The city is in a three-sided natural bowl where wind can enter to clear the air only through passes north of the town. This creates problems as a million vehicles, cement factories, oil refineries, steel plants and other industries—all with limited pollution control, dump 4,000 tons of airborne waste each day.

The altitude—7,434 feet above sea level—means that large doses of ultraviolet radiation act on this pollution to create smog heavy enough to block off the sun at noon.

Mexican government officials, concerned about the growing problems, have set a May, 1974 deadline for the installation of industrial pollution control devices. They have backed the deadline with legislation permitting fines of up to $8,000 for violations.

In Moscow, the concern over vehicle emission has led to a decision to change over about 35,000 trucks to liquefied petroleum gas fuel, because of its cleaner burning qualities.

And in the U.S., a recent supreme court decision can have significant effects on the practice some industries make of moving to relatively unpolluted areas when they are pressed to clean up their operations in heavily polluted locations. The court upheld a lower court decision forbidding substantial degradation of clean air.

For those of you who don't have enough worries, there's a report from Istanbul, Turkey. A professor at the University of Istanbul claims that air pollution in Ankara may be having detrimental effects on men's sex lives.

A FORUM ABOUT MATURE WOMEN

LONELY TEENAGER
Dear Margaret Brookfield:
I am a teenager with a problem. My father is a military man and, after many years in another town, we recently transferred here. I hate it because it is so different from where we previously lived. I tried to adjust but it is impossible. I wanted to stay with relatives near our old home, but either they didn't have room or they wanted to charge for my room and board and my father couldn't afford it. I can't stay here for another two or three years without going crazy. What should I do?

T.T.
Dear T.T.:
You should start by discussing this problem with your parents, particularly your mother, but either your dad. Perhaps they cannot solve it alone, but they can obtain help - through the military or their church affiliation - to help make your adjustment to this change smoother. You don't elaborate on the reasons why you "hate" the community where you now live. I suspect that the wrench from your friends may be a crucial one. But there are resources at the military base to help you adjust, as well as activities to help you meet new friends.

ANNIVERSARY PARTY
Dear Margaret Brookfield:
I want to hold a 50th wedding anniversary party and invite about 75 guests. My problem is an economic one. What would be less expensive: a catered affair outside the home or a catered one in my apartment? And how do I go about finding out the cost of each?

J.K.

Undoubtedly, the outside catered affair would run higher. Even so, the cost can vary depending on the spot you choose and the lavishness of the accommodations, the extent of the menu, and any extras (such as music) you choose to have. Your best bet is to check out a few local establishments (via your phone book or advertisements in the newspaper.) They'll gladly give you cost breakdowns. At the same time, contact local caterers. They, too, will not only provide you with the cost of feeding 75 guests but also furnish a list of the food they'll deliver to your home at a specified time. It's up to you to make the final decision.

Couple Honored

On Thursday evening 30 friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brown (nee Cheryl Burley) gathered at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holden to honor them on their recent marriage.

Everyone enjoyed a social evening, following which Mrs. Stan Thompson read an appropriate poem and Mrs. Joe Forestell presented the bride and groom with a four piece console and a black metal magazine stand on behalf of the Minto community.

Tom and Cheryl suitably thanked everyone for the lovely gifts and all who had contributed toward the lovely evening; also inviting everyone to visit them in their home in Hastings. For they are jolly good fellows was sung and lunch was served.

Healing Substance:
Shrinks Piles

Exclusive healing substance proven to shrink hemorrhoids and repair damaged tissue.

A renowned research institute has found a unique healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids painlessly. It relieves itching and discomfort in minutes and speeds up healing of the injured, inflamed tissue.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most important of all—results were so thorough that this improvement was maintained over a period of many months.

All this was accomplished with a healing substance (Bio-Dyne) which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulates growth of new tissue.

Now Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation H. Ask for it at all drug stores. Satisfaction or your money refunded.

Archie Bunker and his long-suffering family get ready for another successful season on CBC television—the new-season debut for Archie is Friday, Sept. 14, at 8 p.m. in a more relaxed mood than is usual in their on-camera roles. Carroll O'Connor and Jean Stapleton as Archie and Edith Bunker pose with their "daughter" Gloria (Sally Struthers) and Mike (Bob Reiner), to whom Archie usually refers as "Meathead".

ject to the rules of precedence and etiquette as his lowliest courtier.

Among the customs of the Spanish Court was the assignment by the King of little trifling duties concerning his personal comfort and welfare to particular individuals of his retinue. Such assignments were considered great honors, and were jealously guarded prerogatives.

The King himself felt bound by these designations and deemed it entirely unbefitting to have his candles lit by one who should bring him his royal slippers. The health of Philip III was none too vigorous, and he was very susceptible to variations in heat and cold. The royal body required just the proper temperatures. On one occasion the King was sitting before the fire with the Marquis de Pobar. The fire grew hotter, and the King became uncomfortably warm. He inquired of the Marquis if the Duke of Useda, the royal fire-tender, were available to extinguish the flames. It appeared that the duke was unfortunately absent at the moment, and etiquette would not allow the Marquis de Pobar to take any steps toward relieving the King's discomfort by tending the fire. The King, himself of course, was quite helpless in this regard, since it was far below royal dignity to be influenced by fires.

The King continued to sit, and the fire continued to grow hotter and hotter. When Philip III demonstrated this kindly impersonalness to fires, he retired.

ENERGY CONFERENCE

Energy, Mines and Resources Minister Donald Macdonald has agreed to convene a federal-provincial conference on energy matters.

The demand for a national energy conference came from the 10 provincial premiers when they met in Charlottetown in August.

Federal and provincial ministers and officials are to meet in Toronto, November 23, to discuss an agenda -- no date has as yet been set for the conference.

PM IN CHINA

Prime Minister Trudeau leaves Ottawa October 8, for a 7-day business trip to China. The Prime Minister will meet with Premier Chou En Lai and he will be accompanied by about 45 journalists.

FORMAL RECOGNITION

Canada has extended diplomatic recognition to the new military government in Chile.

External Affairs Minister Mitchell Sharp, in making the announcement, said the formal recognition would aid the Canadian Embassy in Santiago in its assistance to Canadians and others affected by the September 11 coup.

FOOD PRICES REPORT

The first quarterly report of the Food Prices Review

Board, released a week ago, has concluded that Canadian food prices "are not rocketing out of control."

Chairman Beryl Plumpre forecast that prices on beef, pork, poultry and eggs had peaked and could be expected to decrease.

The report predicts that food prices would continue to rise but at a decreasing rate and not at the 13 1/2% rate recorded in the first half of 1973.

WHEAT EXPORTS

Canadian wheat exports for the crop year 1972-73 reached 578 million bushels -- 15% above the previous year's total and the third highest on record.

LABOUR FORCE

Canada's labour force seasonally adjusted rose to 9,177,000 in August from 9,228,000 in July, an increase of 89,000, reported Statistics Canada.

DONATION DISCLOSURE

The latest Financial Times Survey of Business Opinion on the new Election Expenses legislation suggests that business strongly supports the public disclosure of donations to political parties.

The Survey shows that 71% of the business executives surveyed after the bill had received second reading agreed with the public disclosure of donations while only 26% disagreed.

OPEN HOUSE HUGE SUCCESS

Science was a popular attraction at the Open House held last Wednesday night at the Stirling Senior Public School. Many parents and students took advantage of the invitation of George Patton, principal, and his staff to come and inspect the new premises, and also have a chance to discuss students' progress with teachers in some instances. In the top picture, Larry Brandt, left, Ken Frost and Tom Anikiewicz, all Grade Six students, take a peek at the moon through a telescope set up in the hall. In the bottom picture, Suzanne Vezina, left, and Anita Pacey, prepare to operate the overhead projector in the science room. During the evening, a band concert was put on under the direction of Maurice Bell, and there were other activities planned in several rooms. The official opening of the school will take place in 1974.

Senior Citizens News-Argus Notebook Holds Meeting

There were about 50 in attendance at Senior Citizens on Thursday. After the singing of "The Queen", this being our year-end, Pres. John Kane thanked all officers and members for their support during the year. Several reports were given with Lil Heasman giving a complete Treasurer's report. We are 83 members strong and after a very active year still have an open bank account - (open for more).

Bob Patterson was appointed to chair the election of officers. To get all in a good mood he first told a "nice" story. This duty was soon over when it was moved by George Heasman and Clarence Fitchett and carried 100 per cent that all former officers were reinstated for the year 1973-74. Pres. John Kane, Vice Pres. Gordon Bailey, Treas. Lil Heasman, Sec. Bob Patterson, Card Sec. Luella Bronson, Games Com. Nellie Montgomery and Myrtle Tanner, Lunch Com. Edna Campbell, Evelyn Finkle and Luella Bronson; Pianist Margaret Fitchett, and all the men to form the House Com.

We were all happy to have Flossie Geen back after her absence. It was Ernie Munro's birthday and he was presented with lots of candy which he shared with all. A short session of cards followed with Helen Williams and Clarence Fitchett stealing the show and Flossie Geen and John Holmes, well "nut"ted.

A nice lunch was served by Lil Heasman, Edith Bradshaw and The Jeffries. Now we are all set for a happy 1974 of fun, we hope.

DO IT NOW
The two duellists were to meet at dawn. "In case I'm late," said one, a small meek looking man, to his confident opponent, "don't wait - go ahead and shoot," said the other.

Subsidies Only Alternative- Whealan

Federal Minister of agriculture Eugene Whealan had few answers last Friday night to the problem of lowering consumer costs but still ensuring adequate financial return to the grower.

Mr. Whealan was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Prince Edward Hastings Liberal Association.

For the most part subsidies have been the federal tool to ease cost hikes between the producer and the market place.

"It's against my philosophy to subsidize," said Mr. Whealan. He explained his milk subsidy bill as a "temporary arrangement - prices are expected to level when asked if Canadian taxpayers weren't paying for the milk bill through increased income taxation to provide subsidy funds.

Although Mr. Whealan appealed to the crowd by his steady plugging at increased rural benefits, one man clad in a T-shirt and suspenders called out "That's a fine government Lewis is running."

Mr. Whealan said the dairy industry profits are not large enough to cut back and subsidies are the only alternative.

Two challenges face Canadians on their agricultural community said the minister. One is meeting the "ever increasing demands of a world market," the second is "providing those Canadians in the bottom third income group with the income they need to pay a farmer a reasonable price for his produce."

"Farmers are the biggest spenders there are...if they have money," said the minister. "We're not paying the people in the farming industry what they are worth."

According to Mr. Whealan because meat is "so cheap" our consumption has risen 40 per cent. "If people in Canada can't afford meat, no one in the world can."

There is no need for anyone to suffer nutrition in this country. "We have agencies that supply all types of care and adequate amounts of money for people to live on."

Mr. Whealan said his government is investigating means of fixing a floor price for feed grains or a "guarantee the bottom will not fall out of the market in time of surplus through over-production."

A seven-year "guarantee" has been given to wheat producers.

He said an important step by the government was to do away with the capital gains tax levied on children taking over family farms, an attempt to keep people on the farm.

Low interest loans are made available for the purchase of building equipment and general expansion. Some 44 per cent of these loans have been made to farmers 35 years and younger, a good sign of youth staying in the business, said Mr. Whealan.

Mount Pleasant Sidnev Township Council Meeting

(By Mrs. Percy MacMullen)
On Tuesday, October 23, John Holmes will observe his 88th birthday anniversary.

Mr. Percy MacMullen and granddaughter Judy of Belleville, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Claire Knight.

Mrs. Percy MacMullen accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Sid Demorest and Betty of Marmora when they attended the graduation exercises in Centre Hastings Secondary School, Madoc, on Saturday evening, October 13. Thomas Demorest was awarded an Ontario Scholarship and an award for high standing in Engineering. Mrs. Demorest presented two prizes from Marmora Women's Institute, one to Dayle Acorn, high standing boy in the Marmora area, and one to Miss Dayle Koutish, high standing girl in the Marmora area.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan, Stirling, saw their grandson Randy Rivers of Tweed, receive his Ontario Scholarship and an award for high standing in English and History.

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Donnan and some of their family were also in attendance.

A former resident of Mount Pleasant, Mrs. Percy MacMullen of Stockdale (nee Irene Cline of Wellmans) died in Trenton Memorial Hospital on Friday, October 12. The funeral was held Monday morning, October 15 in Stockdale United Church. The interment was made in Hubble Hill Pioneer Cemetery at Mount Pleasant. Several folk from here assisted the Jones-Rowe Funeral Home, Frankford on Sunday and also attended the funeral. Deceased was the secretary-treasurer of the Hubble Re-Union Club.

W. BLAKE KETCHESON
Campbellford
W. Blake Ketcheson, 60 Elmore Street, Campbellford, (formerly of Trent River) died at St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterborough, on Friday, October 12, 1973. He was in his 82nd year, and had been in failing health for the past year.

He was the son of the late Franklin Ketcheson and Ida Dandard. He was predeceased by his wife, the late Margaret Murray, in November, 1971. He was a retired farmer, and later operated Parkside Cottages at Trent River. He was a member of the United Church of Canada.

He is survived by three daughters and two sons: Mrs. Ross Bailey (Thelma), Belleville; Mrs. Gordon Bailey (Vera), Harold; Mrs. Russell West (Marie), Stirling; William Ketcheson, Campbellford; and Ellwood Ketcheson of Vancouver, B.C., 21 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. One sister, Mrs. Charles Nicholson (Mae) of Havelock and two brothers, Arthur Ketcheson and Jack Ketcheson of Trenton, also survive.

Mr. Ketcheson resided at 77 Weaver, Campbellford. Funeral service was held Monday, Oct. 15 at 1 p.m. Rev. T.B. Asbell of Havelock officiated. Interment was in Stirling Cemetery.

Full-brothers were Paul Bailey, John West, Peter West, Richard Ketcheson, Dennis Ketcheson and Dennis Heasman.

Area Liberals Favor Nixon

Liberal delegates scarred by earlier battles are supporting Bob Nixon, but party new bloods are backing Donald Deacon in the race for the provincial leadership, according to party director Dr. Ian Wilson.

Dr. Wilson, one of 16 men who form the Liberal executive committee, made this comment Friday night at a special banquet for federal minister of agriculture Eugene Whealan.

If Dr. Wilson's analysis of the leadership race is correct, "a slight majority favoring incumbent Nixon, will keep him for another battle."

Mr. Nixon's Liberals have twice failed to gain ground and Donald Deacon of Toronto is a good alternative, says Dr. Wilson.

"I like his style and his philosophy of decentralization," said Dr. Wilson, a resident of Cobourg. "I back him."

Oshawa leadership contender Norm Catik would well be the "fly in the ointment." He could split the delegate vote, making Mr. Nixon's race an easier one to run.

According to Dr. Wilson -- a respected member of Liberal sentiment -- both Deacon and Catik are good bets as replacements for Mr. Nixon.

"I have nothing against Bob but he's lost twice -- rejected by the public," said Dr. Wilson.

"We have to make a judgement on who will stand the best chance."

The question of leadership is the hottest question at the time, he said. Whoever he is, he will have the complete support of the party.

Mr. Whealan refused to personally back any of the provincial leadership contenders but did say Mr. Nixon "had all the qualities -- he just needs to be a little bit tougher."

A delegation of approximately 40 persons attended with R.H. Brown as spokesman, and presented a petition (250 names) requesting the improvement of the Glen Ross Road, west of the Trent River and north of Frankford to Glen Ross.

Paul Tyrer attended and enquired if anything had been done about the garbage that was being left along the Glen Ross Road at "Horse Side Road."

H. Johnson, Lot 20, Concession 1, Rawdon Township, attended and enquired when his fence would be put up in lieu of the land he had given for road widening purposes, and requested the return of the land so he could put up the fence himself as he wished to pasture the front of his farm.

Moved by McCurdy, seconded by Kells that the estimated cost of $1,280 from the Ontario Hydro be approved for the relocation of their plant on Lot 12, Concession 9. Carried.

Moved by McCurdy seconded by Richardson that Rev. A. McDowell be refunded $21 due to duplication of Plumbing Permit. Carried.

Moved by Meyers seconded by Richardson that D. Tucker be refunded $12 due to error in listing dog tag sales. Carried.

The following items of correspondence were read and dealt with:

L. McDougall Insurance Agencies Ltd., Alford and Kerten; Ministry of Transportation and Communications (2); Ontario Hydro (2); McCaughan; Canadian Motorola Electronics; Department of National Defence; Ministry of the Environment (2); County of Hastings; Ontario Association of Rural Municipalities; Ministry of Treasury, Economics and Intergovernmental Affairs; Hastings County Historical Society; Ontario Municipal Board (3); Ministry of Solicitor General; Office of the Fire Marshal; Totten Sims Hubicki Associates Ltd. (4); Lower Trent Region Conservation Authority; Environment Canada; The Hastings County Board of Education.

Moved by Meyers seconded by McCurdy that Council now adjourn to meet November 5 at 1:30 p.m. Carried.

BOWLING NEWS

Monday Night Men's League

With the first quarter of bowling now over, the points are getting a little closer. On Monday night the Good Guys were five to two winners over the Odds and Ends and the Legion were five to two winners over the Straw Dogs.

In the other encounter the Alley Cats were four to three winners over the Maple Leafs. The points are now as follows: Good Guys 29; Maple Leafs 28; Odds and Ends 18; Alley Cats 16; Straw Dogs 15; and Legion with 9 points. The winner of the first quarter was the Good Guys.

High single for the week was bowled by Ray Poste with 328 and the his triple went to Mick Burns with 676. The high average is still held by Ray Poste with 236.

Some good games were Tom Hudson 233; Mick Burns 250; 227; Ed Svoboda 226; Albert Wilhelm 240; Ralph Sca 248 and Al Boersma 235.

Friday Night Mixed League

Robert Sararas bowled away over his head and as a result the Achers took 5 points away from the hard working Long Johns. The R.J.'s did the same to the Weary Willies so this weeks standings find the R.J.'s with 31, the Weary Willies with 18, the Achers 11 and the Long Johns solidly in last place with 10.

Good efforts for games John Reichert 262, Doug Sca 218, Ralph Park 205, Ralph Sca 282, 231 and 220 (for a 733 triple). Harold Morgan 219, Robert "Lucky" Sararas 207 and 249, Bud Riseley 232 and 209 and Garnet Seales 209. Muriel bowled real good too.

Teen League

On October 12 the Falling Stars took both games away from the Strikers. The Tail Enders took both games over the Winners. As a result the team standings are now: Winners 7; Falling Stars 11; and Doug Shortt 172.

Strikers 5 and Tail Enders 7. The girl's high single, double and average was bowled by Sherry Farrell with 234, 438 and 177. Ricky Clements bowled the boy's high single, double and average with 224, 434 and 199.

Good games bowled this week were Paul Munro 162; Debbie David 172; Kathy Cooke 151; Keith Wilson 218; Delanie Chyppha 165; Derrick Scott 188, 154; Rodney Bush 172; Heather Sine 177; Tim Whiteman 208, 189; Maureen Williams 184; Rob Hutton 158 and Doug Shortt 172.

Wed. Night Ladies League

The Mis-Fits took five points when they met the 7 Stoooges. The Stoooges were left with 2 points. The Jokers took 4 points. Team standings are: Rookies 20 points, Jokers 18 points, Mis-Fits 11 points and 7 Stoooges 7 points.

High single in A group was 293 for Marg Bird. Marg also had high triple with 608. Marlene Fraser still holds high average of 202.

High single in B group was 216 for Vina Rupnow. Vina also took high triple with 499. Other good games were: Joan Roe 301, 213; Marlene Fraser 216, 261; Eva Graf 207, 209; Shirley Wilson 202; Bonnie McKay 196; and Doreen Platford 190.

Merrie Bowlers

Those Merrie ones just can't seem to get their runners on the ground. Perhaps we should just say, some of them. They have no power. Did you ever hear of driving snowmobiles on dry ground anyway? Flo Parsonson's A-tic Cats and Dilly Montgomery's Cruisers sure need help. They've even flipped their addition; a new bowling term? Maybe they need a computer. Everything's run that way nowadays - snow machines -

Sidney Township

Moved by McCurdy seconded by Kells that the Township of Sidney, by its Council, adopt the Alternative No. 3, for expected urban growth as proposed by the Quinte Planning Board with the following revisions and additions: (1) that the area bounded by Highway 401 on the north, Wallbridge-Loyalist Road on the west, Canadian National on the south and City of Belleville on the east be changed to meet the proposed West Park Village Community Study; (2) that the Loyalist College property be excluded from any residential area; (3) that the area bounded by 6RD Road on the east; Canadian National on the north, Canadian Pacific Limited on the south and the Town of Trenton on the west, along with the area bounded on the south by Highway 401, on the west by County Road No. 4 and on the north by Johnston Road, be for residential growth; (4) that the area bounded on the south by the Canadian National, on the west by Sidney Street and on the north by Highway 401, be for an industrial park; (5) that the area bounded by the Frankford residential development area and (7) that certain areas of the Township be designated for estate type residential (Oak Hills and Trent River). In addition to the criteria for a rural non-farm residential that would perhaps, have to require that: (1) the land division will not be a significant drain on the serviced areas; (2) there is potable water available to the site in terms of a well located on the site and as well that the soil is such that septic tank drainage will not create health problems; (3) the total holdings that the land division is taken from shall be of a minimum size of 5 acres; (4) those persons seeking land divisions shall be granted land division if criteria (1) to (7) are met and if a land division has not been granted to the applicant on the subject lands in the period of the last two years. Carried.

Moved by Meyers seconded by McCurdy that the road widening agreement of Mr. and Mrs. H.E. Johnson, Lot 20, Concession 1, Township of Rawdon, be cancelled and returned to them. Carried.

The Reeve stated there will be a special meeting of Council October 15, 1973 at 7:00 p.m.
Council adjourned at 11:30 p.m.

Healing Substance: Shrinks Piles

Exclusive healing substance proven to shrink hemorrhoids and repair damaged tissue.

A renowned research institute has found a unique healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids, relieve itching and discomfort in minutes and speeds up healing of the injured, inflamed tissue.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most important of all - results were so thorough that this improvement was maintained over a period of many months.

All this was accomplished with a quick healing (Bio-Dyne) which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulates growth of new tissue.

Now Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation H. Ask for it at all drug stores. Satisfaction or your money refunded.

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

Timmy, 10, urgently needs the feeling of belonging that can only be found by being part of a family. And he needs the self confidence a mother and father can give by helping him realize that to them he is very special.

Timmy is a pleasant, polite youngster, eager to give and receive affection. Most things in life haven't worked out well for him but despite this he is generally happy.

Tall and thin, he has hazel eyes, dark hair and fair pale skin. His health is good but he needs strong glasses for near-sightedness and wears a hearing aid to circumvent an ear problem.

Academically, Timmy is behind the average in development. He attends a special school and will continue to do so. He enjoys school and is responsive to praise and encouragement. He is quite self-sufficient in day-to-day routines, looking after himself and his clothes well.

Timmy loves the outdoors and likes to go for long explorations on his bicycle. He enjoys music and dancing.

Sensitive, likeable Timmy really blossoms in an appreciative atmosphere. He doesn't like to be bossed but is amenable and cooperative when he feels accepted. He has a good sense of humor.

Timmy needs warm, relaxed parents who will give him much encouragement without pressure. It will be best if there are no other children in the household.

To inquire about adopting Timmy, please write to Today's Child, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, please contact your local Children's Aid Society.

HE NEEDS A FAMILY

Holstien Herd to be Auctioned

One of Prince Edward County's top herds of registered Holsteins will sell by public auction at the farm October 29.

Floyd Huffman, owner of the Valloville herd, has been working on the improvement of his herd for over 30 years. His goals have been both type and production.

In 1946, Mr. Huffman purchased the entire herd of the late W.A. Corrigan, Carrying Place. Included in this herd of 17 head, was a fine herd sire, Brownview Pietje Concentrate, whose maternal and paternal great grand dam was Montvic Bonheur Pietje B. (Ex.) with a 5 yr. record of 19,170 lb. milk, 564 lb. fat, test 5 percent.

Mr. Huffman is proud that his herd is 92 percent Valloville prefix. During the years, he has bred 18 Very Good cows. The animals in this herd show characteristics of strength of body capacity and better than average udders.

Since 1966 Valloville Holsteins have been on R.O.P. testing. The average test of the herd has been 4 percent.

In the show ring they have had success also. In four consecutive years, 1968, 69, 70 and 71, Mr. Huffman won the Premier Breeder shield for Prince Edward County, and returned to the show in 1973 to win it back again. He has won the Inter Breed best under three times, with three different cows, all still in the herd.

Valloville animals have placed first breeders' herd four times.

FEEL GOOD ABOUT TOMORROW

WHAT DOES TOMORROW MEAN TO YOU?
A good education for your children? A trip across Canada? A secure and happy retirement? Whatever tomorrow means to you, you can plan for it today with Canada Savings Bonds. They're Canada's most popular personal investment.

EASY TO BUY:
For cash or on instalments at any Bank or authorized Investment Dealer, Stock Broker, Trust or Loan Company and Credit Union. And at work on the Payroll Savings Plan. They are available in amounts ranging from $50 up to a limit of $50,000.

SIMPLE TO CASH:
Canada Savings Bonds are instant cash. They are redeemable anytime at their full face value plus earned interest.

GOOD TO KEEP:
Canada Savings Bonds are safe - backed by all the resources of Canada. And they pay good interest year after year.

New Canada Savings Bonds yield an average of 7.54% a year when held to maturity. Each $100 Bond pays $7.00 interest for the first year, $7.50 for each of the next six years, $7.75 for each of the following three years, and $8.00 for each of the last two years.

On top of this you can earn interest on your interest and make each $100 grow to $239.50 in just 12 years.

average annual interest to maturity

So whatever tomorrow means to you and your family, plan for it today with Canada Savings Bonds. You'll be glad you did.

Do You Remember?
25 Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bush and daughters, Adeline and Marjorie, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Tucker.

At a meeting of the Public School Women Teachers' Federation held in Madoc on Tuesday night, Mrs. R. B. Bell of Stirling was elected president and Miss N. Montgomery of Stirling secretary. Others attending from here were Miss G. Huffman and Mrs. G. Heath.

Principal C.A. Wells of Stirling Public School was host at a theatre party to the honor students in his 1948 entrance class on Friday night in Belleville. The honor students were Evelyn Lancaster, Denise Burgess, Marabelle West, Grace Carleton, Shirley Ackers, Mary Robb, Murie Devolin and Ronald Williams.

Sunday, Oct. 17 marked the 35th Anniversary of St. Paul's United Church, Stirling, and special services were held both morning and evening with appropriate music by the choir under the direction of Rev. R.W. Barker, minister.

Rev. A.M. Lavery, B.A., B.D., Chaplain at Queen's University, Kingston, and a former minister of St. Paul's was the guest speaker at both services.

Master Ivan Reide, Oak Hills, is spending some time with his aunt, Mrs. Burton Sharp.

Miss Wendy Warren of Stirling spent the weekend with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Warren of Frankford were Saturday visitors at the same home.

The International Plowing Match was held in Lindsay last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Farley Lindfield, Elaine and Carol, spent Sunday with friends at Holloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dettlor, Douglas and Ralph, attended the Plowing Match on Thursday and then went to Muskoka and home on Saturday by way of Algonquin park. The boys were much intrigued with the deer, 7 of which met them on the highway and graciously partook of all the apples in stock. They were very tame as were the partridge.

Dental Topics

Children's teeth have been treated with phosphoric acid in a study that showed a big jump in decay resistance.

A diluted solution of the acid was applied to the teeth of 200 children in a nonfluoridated urban community, before the dentist applied the fluoride "bath."

It was found that the acid increased fluoride retention by tooth enamel. The diluted acid mildly demineralized the enamel, but stepped up the potential of the enamel for remineralization—building up.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright and family spent Sunday in Peterborough, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McGee.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Shaw, Ivanhoe, and Miss Mary Crawford, Belleville, spent Sunday with Mrs. C.N. Baker.

Mr. Don Williams attended a convention of the Young People of the Bay of Quinte Conference of the United Church, which was held in Perth over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Morton, Miss Mary Sharp and Miss Ruth Higgins attended the presentation for Inspector A.A. Martin of Brighton, at the home of Mrs. Geo. Williams, Spring Brook, on Thursday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bailey and Mr. Wm. Reynolds spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reynolds, Stirling.

Decision Time

With the resumption of Parliament this week, one of the unfinished pieces of legislation to be dealt with is the matter of capital punishment. There has been a temporary ban on its use for five years, and the MPs must now decide to continue it, or return to the former practice of using this method of punishment for convicted murderers. At present, the penalty only applies to capital murder cases involving police or prison guards while on duty.

The death penalty is not a nice subject, but what is a matter of concern, is that if it is abandoned, what will replace it? The present alternative is life imprisonment, which, with time allowed for good behaviour, means a prisoner can be released in about eight to ten years on parole. This hardly seems adequate punishment for taking a human life. While there are lengthy arguments both ways on whether to extract one human's life for taking another, it seems impractical to allow such freedom, if the extreme penalty is not used.

Those who commit acts of murder, be it of prison guards, police, or any other citizens, usually do so in a fit of passion, connected with another crime. Often the victim is trying to preserve his own property or help rescue someone else when killed. It is also a safe comment, we feel, that those who commit such acts are at least temporarily insane, and the horrible act they perform is usually done in a state of agitation because their plans have gone awry.

Such individuals certainly are not, in the majority of cases, the type of person that should be moving about in society. Who knows when they may act in such a manner again. If their mental balance is still unstable, the least little provocation could cause them to act again with the same tragic results.

If the government sees fit to continue the ban, then in all fairness to the citizens who elected it, there should be provision for these offenders to be put out of circulation more than eight or ten years.

Stiffer Penalties

An article last week announced the fact that one provincial government official, George Kerr, favored hanging for conviction on drug trafficking. While his method may seem a little drastic to some, there is at least merit in the line of thought he seems to be pursuing.

Anyone who watches television or reads newspapers, is well aware that there is no greater evil afflicting our young people today than addiction to drugs. There may be a case for alcohol, and it has certainly caused much hardship, but it has never caused the wholesale havoc that drugs are doing at present.

While it is difficult to know where to put the blame, it is obvious that unless tougher punishments are meted out to those who distribute the material, there will be no let up. When the profits are considered, the people who control it do not worry about losing an operator for a few years, as he can be replaced. Fines are not good, because the profits from drugs are so huge that any court-ordered fines are merely more than pin money to such operators.

New York State has recently introduced tougher laws, we believe the toughest in that nation. It is too soon to know if they are working as well as hoped, but at least they are moving. Penalties of at least 20 or 30 years should be the minimum for distribution of this material. And there should be no thought of parole before that time.

It may sound cruel to suggest imprisonment of another human being for such a time, but if the descriptions of the havoc wrought on the hundreds of lives by one such pusher are accurate, then it is really not enough then.

Loyalist Board

The following members were present for the October 4th meeting of Loyalist College Board of Governors - J. Donelan (chairman), W.J. Wilkinson, (vice-chairman), F. Belstedt, J. Clemons, W.C. Down, The Rev. H.J. Maloney, Mr. F. Rabel, G.D. Walsley, G.A. Wishart, Mrs. G.S. Wonnacott.

Prior to the meeting the members reviewed a film and slide presentation prepared for the Applied Arts and Technology branch of the

Ivanhoe Women's Institute

Mrs. Russel Sills opened her home for an evening meeting of the Institute with a good number of members and visitors present. Mrs. Lindsay Sills, 1st vice-pres. took the chair in the absence of her pres. Mrs. Charles Irvine. Mrs. Sills opened with the Institute Ode, Mary Stewart Collect and roll call was 'name a Canadian Industry and tell where it is found.'

Mary Sills introduced our guest speaker, Bryan Boyce, Resources Manager for the Lower Trent Authority and the Moira River Conservation Authority. He showed pictures of the lower Trent consisting of the Proter House, Glen Miller Dam, Sager property, King's Mills, and many other pictures and explained them as he went along. Margaret Haggerty thanked Bryan for the pictures and presented him with a gift.

The remainder of the evening was turned over to Mrs. Tuimman, Agriculture. Conversations of the last two meetings were read and business dealt with.

Moved by Tillie Cooke and seconded by Mrs. Marriott that Mary Sills be sent as a delegate to the Area Convention in Peterborough, Oct. 23 and 24. Mrs. Mabel Irvine was selected alternate.

It was moved and seconded that we send a donation of $5.00 to Save the Sight Project.

Moved by Olive and seconded by Evelyn that we help serve the pot luck supper to the executive of the Federation of Agriculture on Oct. 23rd, and also cater to their banquet at a later date.

Moved and seconded that all bills be paid.

Mrs. John Wallace gave the motto entitled "The reason a dollar doesn't do as much as it once did, is that people don't do as much for it" which was very well given. Collection and Penny's for Friendship were gathered. Mrs. Tuimman thanked Marg for opening her home.

35 Years Ago

Maurice, young son of Mr. and Mrs. William Montgomery of 4th Concession of Rawdon Township, suffered a painful injury to his lip on Tuesday. While playing about the yard the young lad fell on a wire, which pierced his upper lip and inflicted a deep gash. He was brought to the office of Dr. W.H. Pedley, Stirling where 10 stitches were required to close the wound.

The congregation of St. Paul's United Church, Stirling, observed its 13th anniversary since Church Union on Sunday last.

Rev. J.D. Watts Ph.D., of the Faculty of Science, Queen's University was the guest preacher.

The Service of Praise was greatly assisted by a large choir under the leadership of Mr. G.L. Chute, with Mr. William Reynolds taking the solo in the morning anthem and Miss Ruby Stapley as the soloist at the evening service.

The Minister, Rev. W.J. Scott M.A., S.T.M., presided at both services.

Miss Edith Tanner of Harold spent the weekend with friends in Sudbury.

Frank Sprentall, superintendent of the Stirling Hydro

Electric system, escaped instant death about 10 a.m. Tuesday when he accidentally came in contact with a high tension line, carrying 2400 volts.

Mr. Sprentall, with his assistant, Gordon W. Bailey, were engaged in stringing wire on the power line on Henry Street, and was working on top of a pole at the corner of Albert and Henry Streets when the accident occurred.

Citizens of the village are loud in their praise of Gordon Bailey for his heroic efforts in rescuing Superintendent Sprentall, and all are convinced that it was only through his prompt action that a tragedy was averted.

IN MEMORIAM

HOLMES - In loving memory of a dear mother, Annie M.
Holmes who passed away Oct.
14, 1964.
God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be.
So He closed His arms around you
And you whispered come home to me.
You didn't deserve what you went through,
And so He gave you rest,
God's garden must be beautiful.
As He only takes the best.
- Always remembered by 41-1 husband, John W. Holmes

DOJARS & GOOD $ENSE

by WILLIAM J. MARTIN
Auto Financial Services

The bad check passer may be on his way out, and that should be cheered by all of us since he costs every man, woman and child about $50 a year in higher prices.

The answer seems to be a thumbprint, incontrovertible evidence about the identity of the check passer, applied to the back of a check by a new inkless process.

Following a successful test in California, many stores are now starting to order a "little black box" manufactured by Identicator Corp.

In the Redwood City pilot study, police reported a 31.2% drop in criminal complaints during the six-month test with savings of several thousands of dollars by retailers. One chain store operator in the city of 55,000 said that checks returned for insufficient funds dropped from $4,000 a quarter to less than $1,400.

With Identicator, a customer simply presses his thumb against the back of the check, usually in a square space stamped on it by the clerk. The check is then inserted into the "little black box" and a lever is pushed which develops the print by a dry chemical spray process.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Cranfield of Coe Hill visited Mrs. Mae Clarke and Mrs. Prentice on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Dora Prentice and Mrs. Mae Clarke spent the weekend in Deseronto with their sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Lyons.

Mrs. Frank Linn of Montreal was Mrs. Florence Hough's guest for a week at Thanksgiving time.

Local League Needs Players

A few years ago, there was a hockey league of local fellows who wanted to play hockey for the fun of the game and an attempt is being made to revive it this year.

McIntosh is spearheading the effort, which so far has met with some success.
Glen's predicament at the moment is that he needs another team, with a sponsor, of about 12-14 players who will come out for the action, and thus create a four team league. At present there is a team from Spring Brook, plus Glen's Barber Shop and Loy-Alert Concrete.

It is planned to play Sunday evenings from 7:30 to 10 p.m. and players signing with this league will not be allowed to play in any other league. Action will begin as soon as the ice is ready, expected to be some time in early November.

Any one interested is asked to contact Glen at his barber shop. Once all the interested names are received, the local teams will be selected so that they will be more or less evenly divided as far as talent is concerned.

Couple Honored

Friends and relatives from Wellman's surrounding and distant areas gathered at the Wellman's Institute Hall on Saturday evening, Oct. 6, to extend best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dunham who were married recently.

Mr. Craig Watson, of Belleville, was master of ceremonies, alternating his humorous jokes with the program numbers.

Mrs. Ken Tompkins of Stirling conducted the community singing with Mrs. Gerald Clancy as accompanist. The program numbers consisted of: vocal duets by Colin and Valerie Matthews, Colin playing the accompaniment on the guitar; piano solos by Mrs. Gerald Clancy and Mrs. Craig Watson; vocal duet by Joanne and Brenda Rainie; reading by Mrs. John Carlisle; trumpet and clarinet.

In the spring of 1898 more than 1,500 men and 3,000 horses set out for the Klondike in the Yukon Territory in their search for gold from Ashcroft in southern British Columbia. Only six men and none of the horses reached the gold fields.

TO RELIEVE STOMACH ACID... trust the dual-action Di-Gel formula Di-Gel is an effective antacid, designed to neutralize the excess stomach acid that causes heartburn. But Di-Gel does even more because it's two medicines in one. Its dual-action formula contains the dual-action ingredient Simethicone, to help break up gas bubbles that distend the stomach, cause that bloated, too-full feeling. With gas gone, antacids work much more effectively. Di-Gel, in liquid or tablet form. DI-GEL

BOWLING NEWS

Jet, Bantam & Junior Bowling

This week if your boy or girl asks if you have an extra chore he or she can do in order to earn an extra 25 cents, we hope you will co-operate. This Friday, for the Teen League and Saturday for the younger bowlers is "Shell Out For Mentally Retarded" day. All Y.B.C. bowlers pay an entry fee of 25 cents to enter the "I Beat My Coach" tournament, and this money goes to help buy crests for the bowlers we have bowling at our lanes on Friday mornings from Wingfield to the Point Piers, who got one game for 2 points and a total of 9. The Stirling Specials won both games for 5 points and a total of 14 from the Dingalings who lost two close games because one of the bowlers didn't bowl and they are now in last place with 8 points.

BANTAM AND JET
The girl's high single of 152 was shared by Bantam Ann Bonnin and Jet Shana Bedard. Ann's other game was 111 to give her high double of 263. Cheryl McGee has high average of 130.

Jeff Whitehead had games of 184, 106 (290) for boy's high single and double and Boersma has high average of 120.

Other good Bantam games were Don Boersma 151, 118; Cheryl McGee 134, 127; Marianne Flier 124, 115; Sandra Edgar 133, 103; Brian Adams 91; Lori Solmes 148, 104; Robert Jactett 95; Laird Weatherell 82, 77; Alyson Briggs 100, 92; Scott Whitehead 108, 88; Shana Bedard 99 and John Bonnin 78.

Good Jet games were Donald Montgomery 130, 127; Richard Sca 121, 86; Terry Aude 164, 75; Steven Adams 91; Lori Solmes 148, 104; Robert Jactett 95; Laird Weatherell 82, 77; Alyson Briggs 100, 92; Scott Whitehead 108, 88; Shana Bedard 99 and John Bonnin 78.

Girl's high single - Suzanne Jacket 165; high double - Joanne Campbell 313, and Suzanne also has high average of 146.
Boy's high single, double and average - Rodney McKewen 272, 496 and 204 respectively.

Friday Night Mixed League

The RJ's continue to dominate the league, but the Weary Willys are beginning to pick up the pace. The standings are: the RJ's first with 36; Weary Willys 24; the Achers 13 and Long Johns 11.
Good games turned in by Robert Sararas 242, 205 and 202; Peter Lippert 216; Sheiron Hannah 238 and 217; Ralph Sca 283, 275 and 224 (top triple 782); Rosa Spry 224 and 215; Lorraine Seales 212, 217; Mead 206 and Bud Riseley 260 and 239.

Merrie Bowlers

Help! Help! That's the song of the happy gang, maybe they're just a bit too happy, aren't ready to concentrate. Whether it's concentration or skill, they just "ain't no got it."

There were only three over 200's this week. Geri Huncar rolled high single of 236 and Ruby Tompkins, with that crazy ball she rolls, got a 208 and 221 — rolling high triple of 578. Maybe she's drifting on her Cruiser, recalling her bob sleigh days and it's doing something for her, but we won't say what. Barb Noble still has high average, now at 182.

Dilly Montgomery's Cruisers took all 7 points from Isobel Hutcheon's Sno-Jets. Lorna Wrightman's Yamahas drove hard to 5 points leaving Flo Parsonson's Arctic Cats with 2. Right now it's Sno-Jets 23; Cruisers 19; Arctic Cats 17 and Yamahas 11. The gaps are beginning to close in — more balanced — no not the drivers but the scores.

Wingfield Bowling
We had a real star bowler this week with Genevieve bowling a 208 game. She had a trike in the fourth frame and then an open frame followed by three strikes in a row. Her other game was 121. Patsy bowled 118, 115; Gregory 131; Elizabeth 100, 86; Janice 127; Heather 89; Steven 96, 81; Betty 82 and Beryl 97.

This week we will be giving out the crests from the Youth Bowling Council.

Monday Night Men's League
With the second quarter of bowling under the Maple Leafs and the Good Guys got off to a very good start. The Maple Leafs were seven point winners over the Odds and Evens and the Good Guys were seven point winners over the Straw Dogs. In the late encounter the Legion were 5-2 point winners over the Alley Cats.

The High Single and triple were bowled by Ralph Sca with games of 306, 297 and 156 to give him a triple of 759. The High Average is still held by Ray Poste with 236.

Points to date are: Good Guys 33; Maple Leafs 30; Odds and Evens 18; Alley Cats 18; Legion 14 and Straw Dogs 13.

Teen League

On Friday, Oct. 19 the Strikers and Tail Enders each won one game and the Falling Stars and Winners also won a game each. The extra points went to the Tail Enders and Winners for total pin fall. The team standings are now - Winners 10; Falling Stars 13; Strikers 7; and Tail Enders 10.

Debbie Chyppha bowled the girl's high single with 263. Maureen Williams bowled the high double and average with 477 and 183. Paul Munro bowled 217 for the boy's high single. Terry McGee bowled the high double with 349. The high average is held by Ricky Clements with 194.

Other good games were Ricky Clements 194, 151; Marilyn Williams 181; Mark Bisset 156; Kathy Cooke 159; Terry McGee 189, 160; Keith Wilson 168; Sherry Farrell 189; Rodney Bush 186; Bill Morton 202; Heather Sine 166; Bryce Whyte 191; Maureen Williams 220, 247; Rob Hutton 185; Trevor Crossman 208 and Doug Short 169.

Safety Tip: Keep Children Occupied

A summer vacation by car can be more fun and more safe if the youngsters are occupied and amused as the car rolls across the miles. A bored and whining child can make the vacation less than relaxing.

When traveling by car with children it is a good idea to bring along a toy that has movable parts, has sound, stimulates involvement, and keeps little fingers busy over an extended period of time. This kind of toy will not only keep a youngster happy, but it will also save on the wear and tear of the rest of the family.

The Farmer Says, a Mattel See 'N Say talking toy, is typical of the talking learning toys that make for great traveling as it is light in weight, has a handle, requires no batteries, and is fun for any child. There are twelve familiar animals illustrated on the face of The Farmer Says. The child turns the farmer's arm in the direction of one of the animals and pulls the

At times Johnny and Joan may bring home a dental slip from school, which requests your permission for their teeth to be checked and cleaned.

Because your children visit the family dentist regularly and haven't complained about toothaches, you may wonder about the check-up's worth. When a dental health team visits a school, it wants to provide a dental check for as many children as possible.

Many mothers forget how times flies and that it's close to checkup time. Aside from serving as a good reminder, school checkups often allow for detection of cavities when they are just beginning. The usual six months between visits provides enough time for decay to set in, especially in children's teeth.

You may decide after the school checkup that you'd better get your child to the dentist even before the six-month visit comes due to catch the decay while it's just beginning. This would save much time, expense and give less discomfort to the child.

The school health team can often spot if your child's teeth and jaws are not developing properly and you may want to get your dentist's views. After the examination, the dental team may clean and paint your child's teeth with fluoride to help prevent decay. The team may also give classroom talks, show films on dental health and teach the proper brushing technique. Sometimes the children are given a dental coloring book or a free toothbrush.

After the school checkup, if your child comes home shouting, "Look ma, no cavities," don't be lulled into thinking you can delay his appointment with your regular dentist. The school dental team does not use x-rays and cannot give a thorough checkup.

The school team alerts you that treatment may be needed but it is your dentist who establishes what type and how much treatment is needed.

Try Fresh Cranberry Cheesecake

Of all the rich, smooth, desserts in the world, none surpasses cheesecake. It's fresh cranberry time, and this cheesecake combines the tart and tempting flavor of cranberries with the creamy texture of an easy, no-bake cheesecake. What a luscious flavor combination! Fresh cranberries are in the market from late September through December. Buy them in season to store in the freezer for year-round use.

Cranberry Cheesecake
Crust: Mix together 1/2 cup fine vanilla wafer crumbs and 3 tablespoons melted butter or margarine. Press onto bottom of 9-inch spring form pan. Set aside.

Cheesecake Filling:
5 packages (8 ounces each) cream cheese, at room temperature
1 1/2 cups sugar
3 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon grated fresh lemon rind
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated fresh lime rind
1/4 teaspoon vanilla
5 eggs
2 egg yolks
1/2 cup heavy cream

Combine cheese, sugar, flour, salt, lemon rind and juice, lime rind and vanilla in large bowl of electric mixer. Beat at low speed until smooth. Beat in eggs and egg yolks, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Stir in heavy cream. Pour into prepared pan. Bake in 400°F. oven 8 minutes. Reduce heat to 225°F. and bake 1 hour and 20 minutes longer. Cool slowly (not in a very cold place), then refrigerate.

Cranberry Topping:
1 cup sugar
1 cup water
4 strips lemon rind
2 whole cloves
2 cups fresh cranberries

In medium saucepan mix sugar, water, lemon rind and cloves; place over low heat and stir until sugar dissolves. Add cranberries; cook over medium heat until cranberries begin to pop. Remove from heat; chill. Just before serving, spread over cooled cheesecake. Makes: 12 to 18 servings.

Ontario's Urban Transportation Program:

A choice for everyone.

Something very frightening can happen to cities when they grow up. They can get out of hand and almost overpower the very people that give them life. The worst offenders are often transportation systems.

Cars and trucks can become menaces. highways and roads—fuming bottlenecks. Subways can jam and buses simply refuse to handle an ever-increasing load.

Local communities have been doing their best to keep ahead of the problems. But new help is available—for now and for the future.

People come first.
People really do come first. That's why the Government of Ontario is encouraging an urban transportation system that will serve Ontario people the way they should be served—efficiently, comfortably, inexpensively, and with the least possible disruption of natural surroundings.

The Ministry of Transportation and Communications has instituted GO A NEW WAY, an urban transportation program to develop modern transit systems in our towns and cities and to support them financially.

New transit vehicles.
Comfortable vehicles and convenient facilities make public transit attractive. So the government is paying 75% of the cost of municipal buses, streetcars, trolley buses and related facilities.

Go Urban.
A new, exciting intermediate-capacity transit system is being developed for large urban municipalities. The system will be fully automated, quiet and emission-free. It is much less costly than subways or expressways, may use existing rights-of-way, and its elevated guideways cause little interference with regular pedestrian or vehicle traffic.

Cities will be subsidized to the extent of 75% in applying the GO URBAN system to their needs.

Another way to reduce peak-load congestion is to stagger working hours and alter daily and weekly traffic patterns. If passenger demands can be spread over longer periods, people can be moved more quickly. Feasibility studies will be subsidized up to 75%.

The government is implementing a staggered working hour program for its own employees and hopes others will benefit from its findings.

Computer controlled traffic
In Metro Toronto, a computer controlled traffic system has proved that a substantial increase in road capacity can be achieved with computers. The saving in road construction costs is many times the cost of the necessary computer equipment.

So 50% of the equipment necessary for implementing or expanding computer systems in urban areas and for installing traffic control devices is being underwritten by the government.

GO DIAL A BUS
Dial A Bus is a form of public transportation that has been pioneered in Ontario. It does not operate on fixed routes with predetermined stops. Instead, it operates from a fixed point, such as a mainline transit station, into a limited area, usually residential. Passengers are not required to board and leave the Dial A Bus at bus stops; the bus comes right to their homes when requested to do so.

Dial A Bus is now operating in Pickering, Stratford, Kingston, Ottawa and Bramalea and will be operating soon in North York.

GO A NEW WAY people first, all the way. And people have to be involved to make it work.

Resources, research and finances are available to help urban municipalities in Ontario build transportation systems that will surpass anything else in existence today. And prove that cities really are for people.

Urban transportation will be one of the most significant challenges facing us all for years to come.

That's why the Government of Ontario developed GO A NEW WAY, a modern transportation program for the needs of Ontario communities.

The benefits of this program are available to any municipality in Ontario wishing to participate.

Any Ideas?

In about three months, the annual meeting of the Stirling Agricultural Society will be held. Doubtless, one of the principal topics of the meeting should be—what can be done to improve the annual fall fair.

If published accounts of numerous other fairs in the area, such as Norwood, Marmora and Tweed are at all accurate, then there is something definitely they have we do not. Not being an expert on fairs, what this ingredient is, is difficult to establish, but all three of these locations had bigger and better turnouts than ever this year, while Stirling did little more than hold even. This would indicate they must be progressing, and Stirling standing still.

During the past two years, there have been comments about how successful the fair used to be—including a parade through the business section, and other related items to focus attention on the annual event. For the past two years, the only events connected with the fair have taken place at the fair grounds, whereas this could well be expanded into a community weekend.

During the next three months, not only those connected directly with the fair, and related activities, but all the citizens of Stirling and the surrounding area who participate, should give this event some consideration. Surely there must be a wealth of ideas among those who have both witnessed and taken part in the fairs over the years. Many local people have doubtless been to other fairs of similar nature in the area, and could make some concrete suggestions as to the ways our fair could be improved.

Those currently on the Fair Board cannot be expected to come up with all the ideas. If some reasonable suggestions were made, we feel the Board would welcome them. Beginning plans now would mean, undoubtedly, a bigger and better fair for not only next year, but also the years to come.

CHINA WHEAT SALE

Otto Lang, Minister responsible for the Canadian Wheat Board, announced the largest wheat sale ever with the Chinese government.

China will buy up to 224 million bushels of Canadian wheat during the next three years—valued at about $1 billion at today's prices.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL

Prime Minister Trudeau has announced that Jules Léger, Canada's ambassador to Belgium and Luxembourg, will be the next Governor-General of Canada.

Mr. Léger will succeed the Right Honourable Roland Michener, as this country's 21st Governor-General some time in January 1974.

Roland Michener has served as Canada's Governor-General since April 1967.

SOVIET FISHING BAN

The federal government has told the Soviet Union to cease illegal herring fishing on Georges Bank near Nova Scotia.

This action follows repeated violations of an international agreement by Soviet vessels, which had banned herring fishing from Georges Bank July 20, after the fleet had reached its catch quota.

Fisheries Minister Jack

Davis said in a release that the federal government had asked the Soviet ambassador to inform his government that Soviet ships must stop herring fishing immediately.

SHARP-KISSINGER

External Affairs Minister Mitchell Sharp will meet with U.S. Secretary of State Henry Kissinger in Washington early next month to discuss bilateral problems.

TRADE VISIT

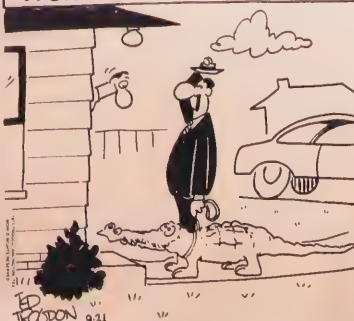

Trade Minister Alastair Gillespie and about 60 Canadian businessmen will be in Moscow, Leningrad and possibly in Belgrade, the capital of Yugoslavia, for a two-week trade visit.

The visit is aimed at increasing business ties and exchanging technical know-how between Canada and the Soviet Union.

SOCRED LEADERSHIP

Bill Bennett, son of former premier W.A.C. Bennett and a Social Credit Member for Okanagan South in the British Columbia legislature, announced he will run for the party's leadership at its convention in Vancouver, November 22-24.

Bethel UCW Holds Meeting

On Oct. 18 Mrs. D. Heath was hostess for the Thanksgiving meeting of Bethel U.C.W. Mrs. Ketchen opened the meeting with a poem, "A Woman's Thank you," and led in prayer. Mrs. Reid read the minutes of the September meeting and the correspondence. Several items of business were dealt with and cards were signed to send to members who are ill. Mrs. Carlisle gave a financial report. Mrs. O. Jackson will be hostess for the November meeting, at which a bale will be packed.

Mrs. Carlisle was in charge of the Worship Service. Mrs. Elliott was pianist for the hymns. O Come let us sing of the wonderful love, and O God of the Eternal now. Mrs. William Heath read the Scripture, taken from 1 Cor. Chap. 12. The meditation on the theme Christian Calling was given by Mrs. Carlisle—What is your line? To carry on Christ's message? This was followed by prayer and the Lord's Prayer in unison. The offering was received by Holly Carlisle and dedicated. The roll call was answered by 22 members on the subject of "What are we most thankful for?"

Mrs. Elliott was chairlady for a very enjoyable program. Readings were given by Mrs. Reid, "Old Fashioned Thanksgiving," Mrs. McGee, "Everyday Thanksgiving," Mrs. Light, "Thanksgiving." Mrs. Barron gave a very interesting account of a recent trip to Scotland. Lots of picture post cards and snapshots were shown and several ladies asked questions. As a result, all were a bit envious of Mr. and Mrs. Barron, but also pleased they had such a lovely trip.

With piano accompaniment, Mrs. D. Heath read a monologue, "A Young Lochinvar rode out of the west." Mrs. E. Sine completed our study book on India, speaking of the unrest and change not only in India but all over the world. The people of India are not so much in need of preachers and new religions as they are of teachers to show how to do things and how to use their talents.

Mrs. W. Heath had a contest of jumbled words. The Benediction closed the meeting. A dainty lunch was served and a social time enjoyed. Mrs. Ketchen thanked the hostess and those who had contributed to an interesting afternoon.

CARL KENNETH COONEY

Critically injured six days ago when he was in collision with a motor vehicle on the highway in front of his home, Carl Kenneth Cooney, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cooney, R.R.1, Stirling, died Wednesday in Kingston General Hospital.

The boy was injured Thursday evening when, as he ran across the road to join his brother and sister, he darted in front of a truck driven by Allen Faulkner of Peterboro. Born in Belleville, he is survived by his parents, a brother Rodney Marvin, and a sister Kimberley Diane. The funeral was held Saturday from the Hogle Funeral Home, Stirling, to Bethel United Church for service at 1:30 p.m., conducted by the Rev. W.C. Cox. Interment in Bethel Church Cemetery.

With the opening of the deer season only about a week away there is increasing evidence that these fleet-footed animals are quite numerous in this district. On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Thompson, of Sine, were motoring along the 6th concession of Rawdon, and when near the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Morton, two deer crossed the road in front of their car. It was necessary for Mr. Thompson to swerve the car sharply to one side to avoid hitting one of the animals.

Mrs. Geo. Legrow left on Tuesday to spend the winter in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rodgers of Ridge Road, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Montgomery.

A meeting of the members of the Stirling Bowling Club was held on Tuesday afternoon to discuss improvements to the local greens. President R.A. Patterson presided and it was decided to build new ditches at the east end of the greens and to fill in the ditch on the north side.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Robin and daughter, Lillian, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. J. Robin and son Stewart, and Mrs. Collins, Whitby, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C.B. Rollins.

Messrs. T. W. Solmes, J. S. Morton and Chas. Dracup motored to the latter's camp on Big Salmon Lake, in the northern part of Hastings County on Sunday. A general survey was made of the district with a view to making the camp the headquarters for the local Hunt Club during the coming deer season.

Dental Topics

Many Canadians believe cancer is a disease of middle age or later life. No age group is immune, although cancer may strike more often in older people.

Cancer can occur in any number of forms in almost any part of the body. About five per cent of all fatal cases occur in or near the mouth. Even in the mouth, cancer can occur in various forms with differing degrees of severity. About half of all cases of oral cancer are found in the lips, most frequently in the lower lip. However, the tongue, gums, cheeks and bones of both jaws can be affected as well.

Check for the following abnormalities of either the hard or soft parts of your mouth and point them out to your dentist: Any swelling or hardness, however small, which you noticed recently and which is increasing in size; any sore spot, roughening or whitish discoloration, or an ulcer which does not heal.

Although causes of cancer are not entirely clear, chronic irritation or oral tissues is definitely associated with the incidence of mouth cancer. Dental neglect that results in badly decayed, broken-down teeth, open-root abscesses, gum infections and excessive smoking are sources of such irritations.

Early recognition and prompt treatment of oral cancer is vital. Periodic routine dental examinations and regular home dental care will minimize the risk of oral cancer.

Westport Opens Sewer System

The new $1.4 million Westport Sewage and Water System will be officially opened on Friday, October 19, the Ministry of the Environment announced today.

This system, which includes three pumping stations, one for sewage and two for water, a 50 KW diesel generator, a one cell 8 acre lagoon and an elevated tank with a capacity of 100,000 U.S. gallons will be opened by the Honourable James A.C. Auld, Minister of the Environment.

The project, which necessitated the rehabilitation of existing ditches and the construction of new ditches and culverts, took approximately 2.5 years to complete.

The consulting engineers for this project were DeLeuw Cather. Construction was carried out by Horton Steel and the Taggart, Raken and Maple Construction companies.

An Appreciation

At this time we wish to express our sincere appreciation to the Stirling Business men, up town neighbors and friends for presenting us with a clock radio and electric knife.

When we awake to the sound of music or carve a roast we will be thinking of you. Your kindness will long be remembered.

Sincerely,
Fred & Anne Bateman.

St. Pauls UCW

Twenty-seven ladies attended the Faith Unit meeting on Oct. 18, held in the school room of St. Paul's United Church. Mrs. Wm. West received at the door, and the room was bright with attractive flower arrangements. The leader, Mrs. Clarence Fitchett, being ill, Mrs. H. Donnan presided. She opened with a poem, "I Am the Bread of Life," and all sang, "For the Beauty of the Earth," followed by prayer. Mrs. A. Bush read "Ten Commandments for Good Relations in Life."

An amusing contest on famous personages was conducted by Mrs. Harlow

The meeting was closed by the reading by Mrs. Donnan of an item encouraging neighbors to drop in casually on the elderly and shut-ins in these now early darkening evenings. She closed with prayer.

A social time was then enjoyed, and Mrs. R. Chambers expressed appreciation to all who had helped with the program and refreshments

A devotional period was led by Mrs. W. Harlow and Mrs. E. Warren on a Thanksgiving theme, developed in special prayers, hymns and readings. All joined in the Psalm 147, "Praise Ye the Lord." A solo, "Praise to God for Things I See," was sung by Mrs. H. Waite accompanied by Mrs. H. West. Thanksgiving should be done 365 days of the year, and being humbly conscious of our blessings makes us really live. "Thank" and "Thank" are words derived from the same root. Thoughtless people are thankful. Many events of Bible and history prove that the tensions of our times are not new, and an overcoming faith grows out of them. In our country we can be thankful for

Good Tidings Dedicates Parsonage

HISTORY OF GOOD TIDINGS PENTECOSTAL CHURCH

All the way our Saviour leads us, how our hearts rejoice this day.
As we review Good Tidings' history, see God's hand along the way.
The many prayers that have ascended, from those with deep concern.
That the souls of men in sin now dying, might to Jesus turn.
Where there is no vision the people perish, said Solomon long ago.
Because someone had a vision, Good Tidings began to grow.
As one sowed, another watered, God has given an increase.
And he promised if we're faithful, his blessings will not cease.

As Pastors come and Pastors go the parings we regret.
But each one leaves a part of him, that we cannot forget.
For as their faces differ so does their ministry.
And each one meets a different need, that only God can see.
Good Tidings was Branch work in fifty three and four.
As Rev. Pierce from Frankford, sought to open up the door.
God then sent Bro. Hodgen and David Meiklejohn this way.
Who began the S.S. Good Tidings has today.

In fifty eight Bob Donnan and Maurice Fostry came.
A few months later Maurice left, but Bob chose to remain.
Now there's an old saying that's very well known.
A prophet is without honor in the town where he's grown.
But there's an exception to every rule it's been said.
Which Bob Donnan has proved as by God he was led.
To help build the church where we worship today.
Rejoice for our God leads us each step of the way.

In May sixty-two the first turning of sod.
The Good Tidings lot was dedicated to God.
Bro. Hodgen attended, turned the spade in the ground.
On September the second, nineteen sixty two.
Good Tidings was dedicated all spotless and new.
Again came rejoicing as God met every need.
Which He still does today as His word we take heed.

Nearly eight years of service Bob gave with a smile.
Preaching the gospel in Stirling, Pentecostal style.
Then to far off places he and Connie did roam.
But now minister in Norwood, much closer to home.

God then sent the Youngs, Dorothy and Carl this way.
Who are now teaching Thailand children how to pray.
Next Bill and May Kenna who went to Westmeath.
And then came the ministry of Carol and Keith.
From here to Quebec City the Goodmans were led.
As from Bible College came Hope and Ed.
Two and a half years was the MacDonald's stay.
Who now preach the gospel down Florida way.

Praise God for Ron Phillips, Pastor Tubby, too.
And now God has brought us Pastor Gonyou.
With God's moving and blessing what more can we ask.
Except we be faithful each one to our task.

Behind this history of Good Tidings years.
Has been much rejoicing, and some shedding of tears.
But no good thing will God withhold, from them that walk upright.
And that's the reason for this banquet, and why we celebrate tonight.

This Sunday, another building, all modern and new.
A house for Pastor and family will be dedicated too.
Let's praise God for his goodness, and just think how it will be.
When we see the Home GOD is preparing for you and for me.

The Menace of Moderatism

Rev. Keith Gonyou
The greatest peril we face today is not extremism, serious as that is, but moderation. By moderation I do not mean "moderation." The scriptures teach moderation—temperance that avoids excess—but moderation is something else. The writer of Ecclesiastes says: "Be not righteous overmuch; neither make thyself overwise; why shouldest thou destroy thyself? Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die before thy time?" (7:16-17). Bible Scholars often differ over the interpretation of this passage. It could well be the creed of the middle-of-the-roader: "be moderately religious and moderately wicked."

The middle of the road is a poor place to live. It is a poor place to drive. It is a poor place to live. Jesus says in Revelation 3:15 "I wish you were either cold or hot." The moderate argues, "is it not better to be lukewarm than cold?" "Is it not better to go half-way than never to start?" The moderate works both sides of the street. He may sup wine at the Lord's table on Sunday morning and sip a cocktail on Sunday night. He makes sacred things common and dignifies the profane. He slaps God on the back in cheap familiarity and calls Him "the big Buddy upstairs." He is a product of world conformity, peacefully co-existing with sin.

The moderate drinker keeps the L.C.B.O. in business. The moderate drinker causes 90 percent of the automobile accidents. The out and out drunk is thrown into the back seat and the moderate sits at the wheel with multiple horse power in his hand and absolutely no horse sense in his head. It is the church office-holding moderate who is the devil's biggest asset today.

Some people talk about "worldly Christians." I believe you might as well talk about heavenly devils. James the apostle says the friend of the world is the enemy of God. Jesus said: "He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad." Mt. 12:30. A man who is faithful to his wife is percent of the time is not faithful at all. A divided loyalty is not loyalty at all. With Jesus Christ it is all or nothing.

This is a day in which so called Christians are living compromised, indifferent and watered-down lives. Preachers have done the same with the gospel. Little stories that appease and tickle the ears go forth over the sacred desk and men and women leave the church as lost and blind to the things of God as before. It's still the shed blood of the Christ of the Cross of Calvary that means anything to the eternal life of the individual.

So as Paul the apostle writes to the Hebrews advising them to seek salvation in none other than Jesus, he says "Let us look unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." Heb. 12:2.

Either take Christ and the Cross and live in accordance or take down the sign, but don't be a moderate.

CUB CORNER

Well we are into a new cub year; we lost some boys and have five new boys.

On Monday October 22, we had our full attendance - 26 boys. The White six led the Grand Howl. Eugene Thompson, Doug Lake, Tony Bensley, Jeff Thompson and Kelly Reed. Our Leaders this year are Ken Lang (Akela); Ken Frost (Baloo); and Agnes Thompson (Bagheera).

Apple Day is Friday noon at Elaine Footwear, 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. downtown, and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. We hope for an excellent turn out of Cubs. All boys are to bring decorated six quart baskets.

MRS. EDMUND SPENCER

formerly Wallbridge
The funeral of Mrs. Jettene Spencer of Hastings Manor was held Monday afternoon, Oct. 22 from the Howden Funeral Home, Marmora. Rev. John Lombard conducted the service with interment in Frankford Cemetery.

Twice married, her first husband was the late Lloyd Acker. Aside from her second husband, Edmund Spencer, she is survived by two sons, Walter of Bonarlaw and Benjamin of Oshawa, a daughter Mrs. Lloyd George (Minnie) Moore of Bonarlaw, 12 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren. Also surviving is a brother Earl Chapman of Belleville.

She was predeceased by one daughter, Mrs. Oliver (Lottie) Free, a sister and three brothers.

Mrs. Spencer died Friday, October 19, at Belleville General Hospital. She was 83. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Chapman, Mrs. Spencer was born in Murray Wallbridge for many years. She was a former member of the Anglican Church at Frankford.

The bearers were grandsons John and Wayne Moore, Benjamin Free, Kim, Terry and Kenneth Acker.

RECREATION TIPS

Mistaken targets are usually associated with the use of high powered rifles and the hunting of larger game. The Ontario Safety League reminds duck hunters that their record is far from clean in this regard.

There was the case of a canoeist who had to use paddles to shield himself as he was repeatedly pelted with bird shot by a pair of duck hunters in spite of his warning shouts. In another instance, a man was blasted out of a blind by a fellow hunter in the excitement of the shoot.

The Ontario Safety League claims the answer to avoiding such absurd and unnecessary accidents lies in the mind of the man holding the gun. Never let the excitement of the hunt distort your judgment and jeopardize a human life. Follow strictly the rules of safe shooting; sit close together in a blind, shoot your own birds and never shoot from a powered boat unless it is securely anchored in a blind.

Caution—Autumn Leaves
That autumn leaves are a pile of leaves might be anything but innocent, warns the Ontario Safety League.

Piled-up leaves are a natural attraction for children. They roll in them, throw them, and one of their favorite tricks is covering themselves up completely and hiding. That's fine in the yard at home, but when this little game is played in the street it's an open invitation to tragedy.

What can the driver do about it? Assume that there is a child or pet in every pile of leaves you see in or near the street. Avoid driving through a pile of leaves and expect the unexpected—meaning specifically a child leaping out of a covering of leaves and dashing in front of your vehicle.

Wet leaves can be slippery—another reason for regarding them with caution.

When brakes are applied, the wheels often lock easily. Leaves gather in front of, and under, the locked wheels, and could cause skidding. If you release the brakes for an instant, the wheels will roll over the packed leaves and you'll find yourself on clear pavement again. It may be necessary to release the brakes at short intervals to keep the wheels free of wet leaves.

The frost is on the pumpkin and Ontario's lakes and rivers no longer provide refreshing dips for hot summer vacationers. They are cold, deadly cold, for the hunters and fishermen who will be using boats to pursue their favorite recreations this fall.

The Ontario Safety League states that prevention is the most sensible approach to the cold water hazard. Take every precaution to prevent falling overboard, swamping or capsizing. This means keeping loads light, avoid high winds and heavy seas, do not stand up in a small boat on open water and curtain boating to daylight hours.

Ontario Safety League accident records show that a good lifejacket strapped over warm clothing provides effective protection against cold water immersion. It gives the victim additional time to escape from the cold water which he must do to survive.

Spring Brook WI

Well the Spring Brook Women's Institute got to Ottawa last night. At the invitation of George Hees, who found arrangements quite a task.

Full of anticipation and excitement we all met. Thinking of the dinner that we were going to get.

The bus was on its way to Ottawa, seven-thirty Tuesday morning. A day so full of sunshine made you glad that you were born.

Serving down in Ottawa just a little after ten. We took a tour around the city. Had our lunch and then.

Arriving at the Parliament Buildings just a little before two. We had to stand behind the line until the Speakers all marched.

Mr. Hees came down to greet us, and boy did we feel proud. When he invited to his office all the Spring Brook crowd.

First we visited the "chamber" where we listened on our phones to the questions and answers, the many cheers and groans. Then we got our crowd together and were taken on a tour.

Except for Ward and Bill, seemed something else held their allure.

At 5 p.m. our crowd arrived in our M.P.'s office suite. Where we viewed the pictures on the wall, the cartoons were really neat.

Now keep your eyes on Clayton Burkett. He may never be the same.

Then George arrived, I guess he thought that we had all got lost.

But we wouldn't have missed this visit, tho' our hair was all wind tossed.

For some photo's were explained to us as only George could do.

And telling humorous stories which he's a whiz at too.

Two capable assistants then took us down to dine.

They were two good ladies, who looked after us just fine. Served a meal just like a banquet that cost us not one dime.

Thanks to our Parliament Member, who gave us one grand time.

CNIB Holding Campaign

October is the month the Canadian National Institute for the Blind canvasses Stirling and area for funds to continue their work among the blind in this area. The money collected here is handled by the C.N.I.B. Board of Directors who represent Hastings and Prince Edward Counties.

To date the returns have been most gratifying but there are many more canvassers still to hear from. To date $428.00 has been raised.

In the event that you may wish to contribute and are unknowingly missed by the Canvasser, donations may be mailed to the Canvasser, Mrs. C.W. Coleman, Glen Ross Road, R.R. 3, Frankford. A receipt will be mailed promptly.

The CNIB is interested in preventing blindness caused through diabetes, glaucoma, and by accident as it is assisting the 130 registered blind people in the County of Hastings. Education is the answer and we all must become informed persons.

DOLLARS & GOOD $ENSE
Special Consultant to Auto Financial Services

Is your home secure? Would it stop an industrious burglar some night or prevent entrance while you're away?

Take a little security inspection. Check on your doors and windows. A likely spot for a burglar to enter your house is a side or rear door that is screened from the street where larger objects could be removed with relative ease.

If you have simple spring locks on these entrances, you are vulnerable. Even a child can easily open such a lock by slipping a piece of plastic against the latch and pressing it back.

The popular double latch lock is also dangerous, since it can be jimmied with just a little more effort. The answer, according to the experts, is the deadbolt.

An auxiliary deadbolt lock can be installed on most any door. This lock can not be shimmed like the spring lock. Especially secure is the rim lock, which uses a series of deadbolts.

In any case, your lock should extend the bolt at least a half-inch into the striker plate to thwart jimmying the door sideways.

Take a look around your home. How does it rate on security?

Stirling Lady At Conference

"With the increase in the quantity or years of survival, is our major objective to improve the quality of survival," Dr. Henrietta Banting told Canadian Cancer Society volunteers recently. Dr. Banting, chairman of the national committee for Service to Patients, was a key speaker at the Ontario Division Service to Patients Conference held in Toronto October 10 and 11. The conference attracted about 250 volunteer workers representing the Society's 14 Districts and 104 Units across the province.

The training seminar offered these volunteers information about organization of local committees, and presented details about a number of the volunteer services of the Society, such as transportation, home and hospital visiting, the activity program and

OFA Ceilings Unjust To Farmers

Hill was reacting to the federal government's nickel-a-quart subsidy on table milk that freezes the farm price of milk for a year.

Due to the subsidy, consumers will pay one cent less for a quart of table milk than they did earlier this month. The subsidy will also cancel the 10-cent-a-quart increase that had been set for Oct. 1.

On the farm, this move creates great concern. What happens next Oct. 1 if production costs remain the same, and the government ends the subsidy? Does this mean that farmers must take a price reduction or will there be a sudden price increase to consumers?

"Farmers cannot live with this uncertainty. No farmer can dairy a herd and run a dairy farm relying on such short-term policies. The risk is too great. This move by the government points out the real need for a long-term dairy policy. Farmers need a five-year dairy policy, that can be revised annually."

Hill also added that dairy farmers and their marketing boards, in the past, have tried to make price increases, modest ones, to avoid sudden jolts to consumers. "If the subsidy is dropped next fall and the milk price does jump by a nickel, what will happen to consumption? There is reason for both farmers and consumers to be concerned."

Shower

Miss Barbara Hoard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hoard was tendered a miscellaneous bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Oscar Merrick on Friday evening, Oct. 12. About 40 guests were in attendance from the Higher Williams Public School section. The co-hostesses were Mrs. Harry McAdam and Mrs. Archie Bailey.

A program of readings and music was enjoyed and this included the modelling of wedding dresses of some of the guests.

Mrs. Jim Thain read an appreciative address and Barbara was the recipient of a large array of wrapped gifts, for which she expressed grateful thanks. Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

services in lodges and clinics. Other guest speakers at the conference were Dr. Bette Stephenson of Toronto, President-Elect of the Canadian Medical Association, and Dr. W.B. Bates, of the Physics Division of the Ontario Cancer Institute.

Among those taking part in discussions were Canon R.C. Brown of London; Mrs. G.T. Johnston of Toronto, chairman of the Ontario Division Service to Patients Committee; Mrs. Egmont L. Frankel, C.C. of Toronto; and Mrs. H.C. Krug, C.M. of Kitchener.

The chairman of the Service to Patients Conference Planning Committee was Mrs. P.A. Gilbertson of Simcoe.

Attending the two-day conference from Stirling was Mrs. Lloyd Jones, Service to Patients' Chairman of the Cancer Society's Stirling Unit.

HARNESSING HORSEPOWER

Does one horse's power equal one horsepower? "Neigh," says the Teacher's Scotch Information Centre.

The average workhorse can produce only two-thirds of one horsepower. But don't accuse the horse of not doing his best. The blame belongs to a canny Scotsman, James Watt, who not only invented the steam engine but also created the term "horsepower" to assist him in selling his new-fangled engines to mine operators.

Watt measured the average strength of a horse and added a factor of 50 percent to create the unit of work he called a horsepower. Thus, his four horsepower engine could actually do the work of six horses.

Mine owners were so impressed with the efficiency of the steam engines that mines were soon mechanized and horses were turned out to pasture.

So only getting two-thirds of a horsepower from a horse is nothing to get steamed up about.

Healing Substance: Shrinks Piles

Exclusive healing substance proven to shrink hemorrhoids and repair damaged tissue.

A renowned research institute has found a unique healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids painlessly. It relieves itching and discomfort in minutes and speeds up healing of the injured, inflamed tissue.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most important of all—results were so thorough that this improvement was maintained over a period of many months.

All this was accomplished with a healing substance (Bio-Dyne) which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulates growth of new tissue.

Now Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation H. Ask for it at all drug stores. Satisfaction or your money refunded.

Reducing Heavy Thighs

For many women who have slim hopes of ever dieting or exercising off unsightly lumps and bumps from their thighs, the problem may not be normal fat at all. They may be suffering from cellulite—those unattractive areas of dimpled, rippling flesh resembling orange peels that seem to have little to do with a woman's age or weight.

Although most commonly found at the top of the thighs, even on slender women, cellulite is also found on the hips, buttocks, stomach, knees and upper arms.

Nicole Ronsard

This condition, while well known in Europe where it's been successfully treated, is practically unheard of here in America, where women simply had to learn to live with its humiliating ugliness. They could not comfortably wear shorts, pants, were embarrassed by bathing suits and short dresses. Now the relief they have been "weighting" for has finally come from France with bodyshaping expert Madame Nicole Ronsard and her six point program.

"Losing weight is not the point," contends Mme. Ronsard. Her plan, which can also help your health, includes the proper diet, the right exercise, breathing techniques, the best way to eliminate body pollution, learning to really relax and auto-massage.

Her treatment in New York cost $275, but Madame Ronsard has now published a complete, illustrated book showing how you can follow her treatments at home. If unavailable at your local bookstore send $12.95 for the deluxe and bound edition to Dept. S.N., B&H Publishing, 987 Lexington Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10021. "Cellulite can't disappear overnight," explains Mme. Ronsard, "but lasting results can be expected in most cases."

DR. A'S MINI-TALES The Cow With a Strange Moo

Once there was a cow with a very strange moo. Whenever she mooed, everybody fell asleep. The farmer decided to sell her. But as he was collecting the money from another farmer, the cow mooed. Both farmers fell asleep. The cow wandered off down the road, mooing now and then. She left a trail of sleeping animals behind her. Finally she reached the center of town.

The sleeping cars and trucks frightened her. So she mooed. Instantly, everybody fell asleep. A helicopter flew by. "Something terrible has happened on Main Street!" he reported. "Call out the National Guard!" The farmer's son heard about the "emergency" on the radio. He rushed over to the troop headquarters. "I know the answer," he shouted. The General wouldn't listen. Just then a voice came over the radio. "We're moving in now, Sir. Everyone seems to be unconscious. There's a cow in the middle of Main Street." Over the radio came the sound of the cow's moo. The radio went silent. The General and his staff were asleep. But the farmer's son had popped on a pair of earmuffs and had not heard the cow moo. He walked into the center of town, past all the sleeping soldiers, and led the cow home. Wearing earmuffs, he and his father looked her in the far pasture, where she lived contentedly. Copyright AVS Technical Services, 1972.

the troubled international politics of the twentieth century. He sought to make Canadians realize and accept their new international responsibilities. William Lyon Mackenzie King seemed to sense intuitively what would be acceptable to the majority of Canadians. During his three terms in office (1921-26, 1926-30, and 1935-48), his fundamental policy, like Macdonald and Laurier, was maintaining a political party within which English and French could work together harmoniously. King initiated with Great Britain negotiations which led to the passing of the Statute of Westminster. This statute formally gave to the Canadian Parliament the right to pass and enact legislation. In 1947 he was admitted to the Order of Merit, the first Canadian to receive this honor. Richard Bedford Bennett, who became prime minister early in the Depression on a platform based on Imperial preference and unemployment relief, served from 1930 to 1935. In 1934, however, he became convinced that tariff changes and direct relief could not end the Depression and announced that the days of laissez-faire were over and that the state must take an increasing part in the control of economic life. Bennett completed the work begun by King by settling the amended terms of the Statute of Westminster. His government also initiated negotiations with the United States for the construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway. Lester Bowles Pearson is remembered and honored for the work he did to advance Canadian unity. It was his government that gave Canada its first distinctive flag. In the many important positions he held in national and international organizations, for example as president of the 7th General Assembly of the United Nations, he showed his remarkable talent for finding a formula for the conciliation of opposing interests. This talent and his powers of persuasion made him one of the great negotiators of his time and resulted in his being awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. Pearson was prime minister from 1963 until 1968.

New Canadian Stamps

Canada's new set of low value definitive postage stamps features Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II on the 8 cent value and gives recognition to our historical heritage through the portrayal of six former prime ministers on the 1 cent to 6 cent values.

It is especially appropriate that a new stamp bearing a portrait of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II should be issued in 1973 as her two visits to Canada this year have focused more attention than usual on our monarch and have reminded us of our country's role in the Commonwealth. It is also appropriate in that 1973 marks the 20th anniversary of Queen Elizabeth's coronation on June 2, 1953.

Sir John A. Macdonald was a major formative influence in the union of the original four provinces and the first prime minister of the Dominion of Canada. His declared preference was for a strong national federation rather than a weak decentralized union of powerful provinces, and he sought at all times, through the division of legislative powers and the organization of the new federal institutions, to ensure the primacy of the new Dominion. During his two terms as prime minister, 1867-1873 and 1878-1891, he worked also for territorial expansion and international recognition for the new country.

On the crucial issue of English-French relations Sir Wilfrid Laurier, prime minister from 1896 to 1911, saw the fundamental necessity of building up an egalitarian bi-racial political party. Laurier's greatest achievement lay, perhaps, in the direction of his leadership of the Canadian Government helped give to the development of the British Empire. By thwarting all schemes for turning the Empire into a closely integrated political or economic unit, the colonies gained the time needed to grow to national maturity and the Empire developed into the loose association of nation-states we know as the Commonwealth.

Sir Robert Borden, prime minister during the First World War, was an outstanding proponent of Canada's right to be heard as an independent nation in the councils of the world. He brought to his life-work a high sense of duty, a capacity of unremitting hard work and a wide and statesmanlike view of Canada's capacities and future. Borden conceived of Canada as a mature nation playing an appropriate part in

NEW LOW VALUE DEFINITIVE STAMP series

OTTAWA — Postmaster General Andre Ouellet today announced that a new series of low value definitive stamps will be issued 17 October, 1973. There are seven denominations in all, with portraits of former Canadian prime ministers featured on the one-cent to six-cent values and a portrait of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II on the eight-cent value.

"The series reflects a new emphasis in the theme of Canada's definitive issues," said Mr. Ouellet. "Whereas, in the higher values of our definitive stamps, the emphasis has been mainly on geographic themes, the low value series will now highlight our historical heritage."

Although some former prime ministers have been honored on commemorative issues of the past, this is the first time that such figures have appeared on Canada's definitive stamps. Depending upon the period in which they lived, the six men honored in the new series played important roles in creating, consolidating or unifying the Canadian Confederation.

The former prime ministers and the denominations on which their portraits appear are as follows:

one cent - Sir John A. Macdonald two cent - Sir Wilfrid Laurier three cent - Sir Robert B. Borden four cent - William Lyon Mackenzie King five cent - R.B. Bennett six cent - Lester B. Pearson

The design for the eight-cent definitive is the first ever given royal approval on Canadian soil. The design was approved by Queen Elizabeth on 1 July, 1973, during her visit to Canada. Traditionally, proofs of stamps bearing the monarch's portrait are sent to Buckingham Palace for approval.

TECHNICAL FACT SHEET

The seven portraits which appear on the low value definitives are the work of David Annesley, Beaverton, Ontario. Each has been drawn with pen and ink in the style of a character sketch of the subject.

The first six denominations of the series are being printed by the Canadian Bank Note Company of Ottawa and the eight-cent denomination is being printed by the British American Bank Note Company of Ottawa.

All denominations are being produced by the steel engraving process on a continuous printing. The color of ink used for each stamp is as follows: one-cent, orange; two-cent, green; three-cent, brown; four-cent, black; five-cent, purple; six-cent, red; and eight-cent, blue.

All denominations will measure 20mm by 24mm in a vertical format and will bear general tagging. Marginal inscriptions including the designer's name appear in the four corners of each pane of 100 stamps available from the Philatelic Service.

Mint stamps will be available to collectors through Philatelic Counters at selected post offices across Canada as well as by mail order from Philatelic Service Philatelic, Postes Canada Post, Ottawa, Canada, K1A 0B5.

County Rally Well Attended

The County Orange Lodge of South Hastings held its first County Rally in Wallbridge Hall on Oct. 20. County Master Bernard Hollinger acted as chairman for the evening and welcomed the members and friends. The hall was full to capacity with representatives from nearly every L.O.L. and L.O.B.A. from South Hastings, as well as some from outside the county.

The purpose of this occasion was to honor Past County Masters. There were 17 present and they were presented with past county masters' certificates. Garfield Evans expressed the thanks and appreciation of being honored on behalf of all the Past County Masters present. R.W. Brother Rev. J.A. McGowan offered prayer and called for a moment's silence in memory of deceased members and those who were sick and not able to be present.

R.W. Sister Evelyn Richards, Grand Mistress of LOBA of Ont. East brought greetings from Grand Lodge East and thanked the committee for inviting her to share in this evening of fellowship with sisters, brothers and friends.

The Tweed Feed Mill Limited and its Branches: The Stirling Farm and Garden Supply, The Madoc Farm and Garden Supply, and Stockdale Feeds, is pleased to announce the appointment of Ted Reid to the position of General Sales Manager over all the branches. Mr. Reid, a graduate of O.A.C., was formerly the Branch Manager of Stockdale, however, over the past few years has held the position of Branch Manager for each Branch of the Company.

Horace Casey, Warden of Hastings County brought greetings from the county and gave an inspiring message relating municipal work and lodge work as being similar, as you are helping people and your community.

Rev. McGowan, Grand Master of Grand Lodge of Ont. East was guest speaker for the evening. He brought greetings and thanked the committee on behalf of himself and his wife, for the pleasure of sharing in this, their first occasion for honoring past county masters. He gave an interesting history of the Fraternal Order and related it to our present day needs. He spoke of our Grand Lodge Project, namely Ont. East Triangle Court, as a step in the right direction, as it served as an image for our order, and urged everyone to support it.

Announce County Awards

The Hastings County Board of Education has recently been advised that the winners of the Carter Scholarship Awards for Hastings County are as follows:

- (1) Rita Spannhauer - $100.00 - Centre Hastings Secondary School, Madoc, Ont.
- (2) Charles Geen - $50.00 - Belleville Collegiate Institute & Vocational School, Belleville, Ont.
- (3) Reginald Dunham and John Tokarewicz - tied for $20.00 each, both from the Centre Hastings Secondary School, Madoc, Ont.

The Carter Awards have been made since 1914 to outstanding students in the Province. To be eligible for the Carter Scholarship Awards students must obtain at least six credits at the Secondary School Honour Graduate Diploma level. Two of these credits must be Math and English.

The funds for the Scholarship are from the bequest of the late J.L. Carter of the City of Sarnia.

Directories Out In May

The 1973 Telephone Directory for this area will be delayed from its usual January delivery according to an announcement made by R.W. Carleton, local Bell Manager. "A periodic review of the schedule is necessary," said Mr. Carleton, "in order to keep the production load even, and to meet special conditions. In this instance the total number of directories is being reduced by combining books in areas where customer calling requires it. While the Belleville book is not being directly affected, it is in the rescheduling which results."

The closing date for the changes to the 1974 telephone directory is now March 28, 1974 with delivery in May.

Past County master Robert Rollins expressed the thanks of everyone present to the ladies of Wallbridge L.O.B.A. for a lovely banquet.

Harry Wasmund of Allisville Lodge, Prince Edward County, was present and spoke briefly on the co-operation he had received from his members in winning the trophy in Ont. East.

Jessie Chatten, Grand Lecturer of Grand Black Chapter of Eastern Ontario brought greetings from that body. Pearl Holmes, Past Grand Mistress of Ont. East spoke briefly in appreciation of the L.O.B.A. present.

Jessie Bhattien showed slides on different celebrations and lodge activities, which were enjoyed by all.

Plan Open House Nov. 16

The Stirling Co-operative Nursery School held a general meeting, on Oct. 25th at St. Paul's United Church. The school has applied for a Local Initiatives Programme grant. The result will be known in about six weeks as to whether the application has been approved.

A contribution, from nursery school parents, was made to the Association for Children with Learning Disabilities in memory of Carl Cooney, who was a nursery school student last year.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, Nov. 22 at 8 p.m. in the school room.

The social convener, Mrs. Margaret Kemp, served coffee and lunch.

Merrie Bowlers

The Merrie Ones are showing signs of improvement. Over 200 games were rolled by Ruth Glover, with the high single of 246, Barb Noble 204; Willie de Jong 209; Mildred Fraser 205; Dilly Montgomery 202; Betty Hubble 238, 227. Betty had the high triple of 610. Barb Noble still holds the high average, now at 180.

Lorna Wrightman's Yamahas are beginning to climb. They took 5 points leaving Dilly Montgomery's Cruisers with 2. Likewise Isobel Hutcheon's Sno-Jets took a 5 leaving Flo Parsonson's Arctic Cats with 2.

The standing is still the same but is tightening - the Sno-Jets lead with 28 points, the Cruisers 21, Arctic Cats 19 and the Yamahas 16.

Celebrates 88th Birthday

On October 23 John Holmes of Mount Pleasant observed his 88th birthday anniversary. His nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fitzgerald of Niagara Falls, New York, entertained John and his sister, Miss Annie Holmes at a special dinner at Mother's German Restaurant near Tweed. The Fitzgeralds came on Monday, Oct. 22 and that afternoon they visited Mrs. Frank Fitzgerald at Carrying Place. They report a heavy fog on their trip back to Anson.

During the week John was the recipient of a large array of birthday cards and personal gifts from a host of friends in the area.

On Wednesday Mrs. Don McLean entertained the group to a special dinner at a Belleville Hotel.

On Thursday Miss Annie Holmes provided the refreshments and decorated cake at the Senior Citizens club meeting.

On Monday, Oct. 15 Mr. Holmes' grandson, Doug Martin of Collins Bay took John and his aunt, Miss Annie Holmes to his home for a five day visit. During their holiday in the Kingston area they visited Mrs. Kenneth Holmes in her apartment in the city.

They spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stephens in their new home and they also visited the cemetery where Clifford Holmes was laid to rest. On their sight-seeing tour they visited several stores, some of the beauty spots of Kingston and the home of Sir John A. MacDonald, Canada's first prime minister. He lived in Kingston in the years 1848-49. It was a delightful holiday and they arrived home at Anson on Friday, Oct. 19.

John's many friends extend congratulations at this time and wish him many more happy birthday anniversaries.

Mount Pleasant

(By Mrs. Percy MacMullen) Twenty ladies and their daughters attended Hoard's U.C.W. bazaar and dessert luncheon on Wednesday.

Mrs. Percy MacMullen attended Tuesday sessions of the forty-seventh annual Trent Valley Convention Area W.I. at Northminster United Church, Peterborough. The 1974 convention will be held November 1974 in Cobourg.

Mrs. Frank Andrews spent last week with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lamoine, Ottawa, who will be taking up residence at The Radio Beam Station at an early date.

Mrs. Robert Hoard, president U.C.W., Mrs. Milford Wrightman, Mrs. Herbert Smith, Mrs. Kenneth Weaver, Mrs. Claire Knight and Mrs. Archie Bailey attended the Regional U.C.W. Rally at Madoc United Church on Thursday, Oct. 25. The group presented The Little Red Hen on the stage.

On Thursday, Oct. 25 Miss Annie Holmes provided refreshments and a birthday cake at the Senior Citizens club meeting in honor of her brother John Holmes who was 88 years of age on Tuesday, Oct. 23. Mrs. John Talsma assisted with the serving.

Mr. Fred Campbell, Belleville, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Milton Shaw on Sunday, Oct. 21. They all attended the morning service at Bridge Street United Church and were guests at noon at Maple Inn, Bloomfield.

The Messenger Group convened at the church hall on Sunday, Oct. 21. The president read a poem, "Anywhere with Jesus." The meditation was based on Christian Friends and a story of The Bird Family, by Mrs. Stanley Williams. Greg Joslin and Rick Knapton gathered the offering. Mrs. Ira David gave the special study story. For the program Joanne Campbell, Sandra Bronson, Loretta Howard and Dawn Bronson each contributed a piano solo.

A reading was given by Jennifer Joslin, Gail Merrick and Ann Bailey gave a baton selection and Mrs. Raymond McConnell conducted a concert.

Mrs. Fred Smith, Bradley Bay, the former Bessie Bedford, died Friday, Oct. 26 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Jeffs. She rested at the Weaver Funeral Home, Campbellford, where the service was held on Monday, Oct. 29. Several relatives and friends from this area were in attendance.

A former resident, Mrs. Charles Toffen (nee Lena Johnson) died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Johnson of Mount Pleasant, died at a nursing home in Sarnia on Saturday, Oct. 27 in her 88th year.

Rev. R.R. Bonsteel, Stratford, called on a few friends here on one day recent of the day. Mr. and Mrs. Reg Christopher, Belleville, who were observing their birthday anniversaries, entertained their grandmother, Mrs. Percy MacMullen on Sunday, Oct. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Merrick, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thain attended the wedding of the former's niece, Miss Barbara Howard and Karl Lloyd Howse at Hoard's United Church on Saturday evening, Oct. 27 and the reception in Campbellford. Carolyn Thain was a bridesmaid for her cousin.

Laurel Rebekah Lodge Meeting

The regular meeting of Laurel Rebekah Lodge No. 211 was held recently in the L.O.O.F. Temple with the new crop of officers in the chairs. The Noble Grand, Sis. Betty Johnson welcomed the good turnout of members and visitors.

Sis. Hilda McGowan, P.D.D.P. and two other Sisters from Madoc Lodge were extended a warm welcome.

Sis. Mac Clarke, Vice Grand reported that visitations had been made, also cards and gifts to several Sisters. We were sorry to hear that Sis. Gladys Elliott PNG has been ill with the "Flu."

An invitation to Quintess Lodge Fall Bazaar and Tea, Belleville, on Wednesday, Nov. 7 from 2 to 4:30 p.m. was received. The Noble Grand asked that all possible attend. Plans are in the process for Laurel members to cater to the Masonic dinner on Dec. 1st.

Members - Please remember our birthday party on Tuesday, Nov. 13 at 7 p.m. prior to the regular meeting. The United Church Women of Mount Pleasant are catering to a turkey dinner. Plan to attend and enjoy a really happy birthday.

At the close of the meeting, Sis. Hilda McGowan PDDP gave an interesting resume on her holiday to Australia, New Zealand, Fiji and Hawaii. She also showed some very interesting slides and souvenirs collected enroute.

Sisters Dorothy McCaughen and Muriel Sharpe convened a delicious lunch served in the banquet hall. Sis. Marguerite Sine voiced a vote of thanks for their efforts.

IGA Staff At Toronto

Thirteen members of the staff of Bird's IGA, Stirling, attended the Hawaiian Party Monday in Toronto, sponsored by the parent company.

Attending from town were Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bird, Mrs. Allan Bird, Mrs. Eleanor Scott, Mrs. Darlene Rose, and Mrs. Doug Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Nelson, Jack DeBruyn and Milo Billard.

The group travelled by bus with 14 members from Marmora, Havelock and Norwood.

The event was held at the Skyline Hotel in west Toronto, and included a banquet and dance. Entertainment was by the New Christy Minstrels. One feature of the evening was a draw for a two week trip to Hawaii, open only to staff members, not the dealers and their wives.

Bird's IGA last week celebrated 29 years of business in Stirling.

Visits Vancouver

Jack Ellis, M.P. Hastings, was in the group of about 75 members of the Progressive Conservative Party, who travelled to Vancouver, B.C. for a weekend caucus meeting on October 19th. Sessions began at 8 a.m., Saturday and lasted through 9 p.m., beginning again at 8:30 a.m. Sunday.

The purpose of the meeting was to obtain as much information on local matters as possible. To that end leaders of Unions and management were invited to speak in confidence on such topics as housing, fishing, mining, forestry, energy, ports and other matters important to British Columbia.

According to Mr. Ellis, the meeting was a tremendous success. Each speaker in turn was an expert and frequently a nationally known leader in his field. Given the confidence of caucus a free-wheeling question and answer period followed each presentation. All members returned to Ottawa with a far better understanding of the unique problems of the west coast.

Mr. Ellis explained that the M.P.'s travel allowance was used to travel back and forth but that accommodations and other expenses were born by the individual members. The B.C. Progressive Conservative Association hosted some of the meals.

'Non-government' Blasted

The minority Trudeau government cares for nothing but its own survival - and is manipulating the public interest to ensure its existence, Claude Wagner charged in Madoc a week ago.

The government's lack of direction and commitment is a tragedy for Canada's future and potential, claimed Mr. Wagner, leading Conservative spokesman, and the party's key Quebec political presence as MP, St. Hyacinthe.

What Canadians are tolerating is "non-government," he told Hastings riding Conservatives, who unanimously chose Jack Ellis, incumbent MP, as their candidate in the next general election.

Opinion polls now are a "tremendous source of encouragement" for the Conservatives awaiting that election, Mr. Wagner told the nomination convention at Centre Hastings Secondary School. "Canadians...are no longer

Senior Citizens hold meeting

Over 50 Senior Citizens were present on Thursday to enjoy the lunch of fruit bread, cheese, cookies and ice cream. This was a special and arranged by Annie Holmes in honor of her brother John Holmes' 88th birthday. To climax this lovely lunch she presented to him a flaming birthday cake. Mrs. Talsma, a neighbor, assisted in serving.

Evelyn Burgess was a very welcome guest. A big explosion of cheers went up as Ethel Duffin appeared for the first time since her sojourn in hospital. Look'n' good too. A second explosion went up when it was announced that Fred Bateman had donated a cribbage table to our club. Thanks Fred. Come up and see us sometime.

Twelve tables of euchre were in play. Dorothy Ross and John Kane were just too much for us and got the high count. Lil Heasman and Ernie Munro were down under for low.

Lil and George Heasman were recently dinner guests at Brother Fred's home. It was noted that George ate extremely well and when Lil mentioned this fact George replied, "What? Me eat a lot?" Heck I was only practicing for the Christmas Feat at St. Andrew's Church on Dec. 13th."

Ellis Candidate In Next Election

Jack Ellis is the unanimous Progressive Conservative choice as champion of the party's political ascendancy in Hastings.

Mr. Ellis, Hastings MP for little less than a year, was confirmed as Conservative candidate - whenever the next election is called - by a nomination convention at Centre Hastings Secondary School Wednesday night.

The confirmation became a formality of political ritual as no opponents emerged to challenge the incumbent, the single choice of 32 separate nominations.

For Mr. Ellis, 43, the nomination was in contrast to the convention in the same building little more than a year ago. Then, the one-time Belleville mayor had to fight off two challengers to win entry into national politics for the first time.

The convention became a showcase of party solidarity behind the Ellis incumbency - as the 490 voting delegates formally endorsed the unanimity of the nominators. In fact, one whole block of delegates, from Deloro, moved and seconded one of the nominations.

Provincial and local government spokesmen also had the opportunity to express approval of the MP's political style and co-operation during his brief term in office.

The ease with which support centralized on Mr. Ellis evoked a wistful reaction from one of the party's key personalities, Claude Wagner, guest speaker for the convention.

The former leading Liberal who came out of the 1972 election as one of the few Conservatives elected in Quebec, mused to the convention:

The political partnership has done more to destroy the "sincerity" of Canada's political system than could have been thought possible in so short a time, said Mr. Wagner. He charged the Liberals with a "disastrous record of wholesale theft" of other party programs in attempting to "give the impression that there is a government in Ottawa."

One direct result has been low morale in the public service - caused by lack of programs and direction from the government.

Leadership is needed in: - Economics - where world shortages, currency problems and new trading blocks are calling for new roles. Domestically, inflation sees pensioners and senior citizens particularly hard hit.

- Energy - where a national policy must be developed in co-operation with all levels of government.

- Farming - facing the problems of costs, needing new transport policies to equalize competition at home and abroad.

Mr. Wagner said after the 1972 election, the government labelled voters in eastern Ontario and western Canada as a "bigoted backlash."

What such voters suffer is "an abiding and sincere concern" about the direction and type of government the country needs, said Mr. Wagner.

"In my own province, where the battle is the stiffest, how I would like to see a repetition of an evening such as this, of victory that appears so easy. How I would like to see that in my province."

Mr. Ellis who has set a fast-paced style of representation since his election, admitting he "sometimes gets wound up and going too fast for some people."

Nonetheless, "I make no apologies for anything I've done, and I make no apologies for the fact that I've sometimes gotten wound up and going too fast for some people."

He criticized the Liberal government for leaving much undone since the election - including action on new homes, warranties, foreign trade assistance to industry and urban transportation.

Legislation was needed to cover relocation of railroad tracks in municipalities - a move of specific importance to Belleville.

New freight rates were also the best means of alleviating regional economic disparity, said Mr. Ellis.

Among those on the platform were Clarke Ross, MPP Hastings; Douglas Alkenbrack, MP Frontenac; Lennox and Addington; Lee Grills, former MP Hastings; Hastings County Warden Horace Casey and Mayor Robin Jeffrey.

WALTER TWIDDY Former resident of Stockdale where he operated a sawmill for more than 30 years, Walter Twiddy died at the Ottawa Civic Hospital on Oct. 17 following a three month illness. He was in his 84th year.

The funeral was held from the Tubman Funeral Home in Ottawa on October 19, 1973 with Rev. R.E. Dargan officiating, assisted by Rev. A. Moors and Rev. A. Moffatt. Following the Ottawa service Mr. Twiddy rested at the Frankford Free Methodist Church on Oct. 20 prior to burial in Stockdale Cemetery. Rev. D. Eyre conducted the graveside service.

The bearers were grandsons Eldon and Paul Kemp, Ronald, Walter and David Twiddy, and George Thompson.

Born at Crookston, Ont. Mr. Twiddy lived in Swift Current, Sask., before moving to Stockdale in 1918 where he operated the sawmill until 1949.

Predeceased by his first wife, Olive Esther in 1959, he is survived by his second wife, the former Ruth Lindsay, a daughter Mrs. (Rev.) G.W. Kemp (Lois) of Marmora, three sons Richard and Irvine of Stockdale, and Dr. Warren Twiddy of Caledon East, 17 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Also predeceased are sons Gerald and Paul and a sister, Anna Twiddy.

Jet, Bantam & Junior Bowling

Saturday, Oct. 27th the Y.B.C. bowlers were anxious to start bowling to see if they could beat their coaches' scores. They paid an entry fee of 25 cents to help with the Mentally Retarded crest program. They were allowed to add their league handicap to their scores and could use either game to try to beat coaches Doug Sca and Ivy Poste. Those who beat the coaches' scores earned a comical "I Beat My Coach" crest and were Robby Clements, Ricky Boersma, Suzanne Jackett, Cheryl McGee, Joanne Campbell, Marianne Flieler, Don Boersma, Ann Bonnin, Joey Hart, Alyson Briggs, Mark Wilson, Richard Sca, Andrew Briggs, Susan Briggs, Donald Montgomery, Laird Weatherell, Keith Aide, Terry Aide, Sandra Adams and Steven Adams.

Bantam — Cheryl McGee was in fine form bowling games of 197 and 179 (376) for girl's high single and double and gave her average a boost of 8 to 138.

Don Boersma bowled 169

4. THE STIRLING NEWS-ARGUS, Wednesday, October 31, 1973

Congratulations

This is another week in Stirling when there is a combination of the new and old. We refer to the official openings of the new premises of George Palliser Ltd., a brass manufacturing and sales firm, located at the west end of the village, and also the grand opening of the new facilities at Wells Ford Mercury Sales Ltd., one of Stirling's oldest businesses.

We welcome the former to the village and wish him well in his new venture. From what has already been witnessed, the new firm will have provided much business for several local establishments. While not a large firm at the moment, it is understood there are expansion plans being contemplated, and every little bit of growth helps in a community this size.

To the Wells operation, we offer congratulations on the expansion and consolidation of their long-established business in town. From some time now, the service and office facilities have been located in the original premises on East Front St., while the show room and body shop have been on Belleville Road. The recent building and moving of the former facilities to the latter's location means a better opportunity of providing service, as now all the various departments will be under one roof.

Stirling is slowly, but steadily expanding, and these two businesses making the moves they have, would indicate that there is a progressive future in the village, and it is up to all to try and participate in it.

Service?

One of the penalties of not having our own service personnel for Public Utilities work has been graphically displayed during the past few weeks.

A street light on St. James Street has been out for some time now and has been reported. While we must await the pleasure of Ontario Hydro crews in such instances, it seems funny that replacement of such a simple item should take so long.

Some years ago, it was decided that provision of repair services would be more practically handled in this manner, instead of having our own crews. The merits of this might be argued, but if they are to provide this service, such delays should not have to be tolerated.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

I read your article "Any Ideas" with some interest. We have been attending Stirling Fall Fair for about 12 years and I would like to submit some suggestions for the consideration of the Stirling Agricultural Society.

First of all the fair is known for its horses. So I would suggest that a great deal more emphasis be placed on this phase of the fair - that is, equitation, barrel racing, I would also include jumping and of course advertise the events widely.

Another suggestion I would like to make is that the local merchants be encouraged, threatened, bullied, into taking a more active part in the fair. They should have stands in which to display their wares and services.

There are a lot of new people in the area who do not know what wares and services are available in Stirling and simply drive down to Belleville. In that way, not only Stirling Fair is standing still, and in 1973 standing still is synonymous with falling backwards, but the whole town of Stirling is standing still.

One more suggestion I have, and that is that the children's work - sewing, etc. be contracted to about one quarter the space it has occupied in recent years. There has been little of any real quality in the work and it takes up half the space of the only building on the grounds. This space is at all times practically empty of visitors, being only of interest to proud parents and dutiful friends. That space could then be put to a more practical use.

Yours truly,
C. Wilson

Dear Mr. Jones:

Your editorial October 3 "Still Waiting" points up an issue which we at Bell Canada are as concerned about as you obviously are.

The fact that a survey was taken back in 1968 to see if Stirling customers favored toll free calling to Belleville, a majority was receptive to the plan and this service is not available to date is true. When the survey was taken we had planned to provide extended area service (toll free calling) between Stirling and Belleville within a two-year period. But a lack of capital funds necessary to provide the sophisticated equipment needed to carry out this program forced a deferral of the project.

We have recognized the need to extend the toll free service area of Stirling customers and have continuously reviewed the calling habits of subscribers between various communities. However, there seems to be an impression that reductions in rate applications made by Bell to the Federal Authority (Canadian Transport Commission) have no effect on service. This deferral is a clear indication that it does.

Toll Free Calling between Stirling and Belleville is tentatively scheduled for 1976, provided the capital expenditure required is available.

Yours truly,
R.W. Carleton,
Manager.

THAT SCRAP BUILD....
How would you like to live in a $60,000 scrap heap?

It doesn't sound too pleasant but a metal company put together a very desirable four-bedroom house in a fashionable neighborhood of Richmond, Virginia, using nothing but waste.

The ingredients were: aluminum cans, broken glass, old newspapers, carpet scraps, worn rubber tires, incinerator fly ash and garbage from New York City. The project was started, with the co-operation of about 30 other companies, as a demonstration of the current state of the recycling art.

The materials were chosen in terms of current availability or practical potential for use in the near future. And the builders reported that much of the material and techniques were competitive with traditional building methods.

The aluminum went for joists, framing, trusses and siding - all in metal reclaimed from beverage cans. Aluminum reclamation saves 95 per cent of the energy involved in creating the metal from the ore, bauxite.

The driveway was from crushed glass, bound with an asphalt-like material from reclaimed rubber tires.

Crushed glass was also used as fill under the basement, in the basement blocks and insulation, and mixed with quarry tailings in the bricks.

Plywood subflooring, side-wall sheathing and a roof deck, were replaced with board made primarily from recycled newspapers. Scrap wood and sawdust were the raw material for another type of board used for cabinets.

Carpets were made from reclaimed nylon fibre, over pads made from reclaimed jute sacks. Floor tile was made from reclaimed plastic, mixed with scrap wood chips and aluminum.

Fly ash reclaimed some of the cement in the concrete pourings, marble quarry tailings went into the bathroom fixtures and the lawn was fertilized with garbage compost.

And not a single neighbor complained about all this garbage in the community.

Nobody is claiming that revolution is imminent in the building industry and that all houses should be made of scrap.

But the day is not far distant when many more of the things we use and live with can be made from reclaimed waste.

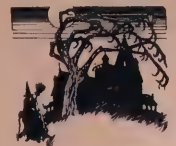

RECREATION TIPS

Let's make this Lessons in Truth Week, suggests the Ontario Safety League. When you tell yourself it's all right to cheat on the traffic regulations or chisel on the safety rules now and then, are you telling yourself the truth?

A gradual stop gives the driver behind you time to react and space to say, the Ontario Safety League.

Here's a protection-packed pair of night driving habits from the Ontario Safety League - reduce speed and increase caution!

Of course you dim your lights for other drivers, but what about pedestrians, asks the Ontario Safety League? They can see better when your lights are on lower beam, and there's less chance they'll be blinded into a hazardous act. Give pedestrians the same break you give the vehicles you meet.

Do You Remember?

25 Years Ago

Night classes in Farm Mechanics and General Shop work for the young men of the village and surrounding community will again be sponsored by the Stirling Board of Education at the local High School during the winter months.

Wolves are increasing so much that they are a real menace to sheep growers. Charles Gordian and Gary Golden of Bonarlaw displayed five dead ones in Campbellford which they had caught early Tuesday morning. Gordian and Golden are experienced trappers having bagged 15 within the past six weeks.

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 20 the students and teachers of Stirling High School enjoyed the first Students' Council evening of the season.

St. John's Anglican Church was well filled last night for the induction of Rev. A.J. Anderson as Rector of St. John's Church, Stirling. Trinity Church, Frankford and St. Thomas Church, Rawdon. The impressive service was conducted by the Right Reverend John Lyons, M.A., D.D., of Kingston, the Lord Bishop of Ontario assisted by the clergy of the Diocese.

35 Years Ago

A large crowd of happy people, both children and adults, gathered in St. John's Parish Hall for the annual Halloween masquerade under the auspices of the A.Y.P.A. The costumes were many and varied and the judges had a difficult task, but finally they awarded the prizes to the following:

June Conley - Cinderella; Gordon Ellis - Chinaman; Betty Conley and Jean Salisbury - The Twins; Mr. and Mrs. A. Strickland - Pa and Ma; Miss Lillian Turner - Cavalier; Mrs. D. Stapley - Old Fashioned Lady.

Jack Ormiston, son of Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Ormiston, Front St., has accepted a position with the Canadian General Electric Company of Peterborough.

Jackie, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lovell of town, suffered a painful injury at the Public School on Tuesday afternoon. While playing he fell, striking his head on the school building and sustained a severe gash in the top of his head. Ten stitches were required to close the wound.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stapley and baby were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George McMullen.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fitchett and Rosella spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Eggleton, Halloway.

A large number from Mount Pleasant attended the fire on Saturday evening at the home

Good Tidings W.M.C.

The October meeting of Good Tidings W.M.C. was held in the new parsonage with Sis. Lois Gonyou as hostess. President Marjorie Forbes thanked Mrs. Gonyou for opening her home and thanked each lady for their help in every detail on the opening of the parsonage.

Mrs. Helen Donnan prayed an opening prayer asking God's blessing on the meeting. We read together Ephesians Chap. 1 Ver. 1-15 inclusive. Marjorie Forbes brought the devotion from these verses, speaking of Paul's letter to the Church at Ephesus and to the faithful in Christ Jesus. How Paul loved these people, and how would Paul find the devotion of his churches today? Loving one another and stirring up the good gifts or faith finding?

We need to know the Spirit of Wisdom keeping our hearts and minds stayed on Him who will keep us from falling and present us faultless before Him one day. And let us not grow weary in well doing but ever being mindful of the needs of others and so fulfill the law of Christ.

Helen Smith led in singing choruses. The minutes were read and approved. Cash report read. Cash given in memory of Alma Donnan will be sent to Literature Fund. This is a precious way of bringing the gospel to many and this we know was very dear to Alma's heart.

Sis. Gonyou read the bulletin from Miss Roger and a time of discussion followed. The offering was lifted. A time of prayer closed the meeting with Mrs. Gonyou and Mary Girls leading.

Dental Topics

Dental research may have come up with another method of early detection of tooth decay.

Until recently, the tooth was believed to be inactive. But by applying a technique developed for studying fluid movement in major organs such as the kidneys, dental scientists observed that dental fluid did move from the pulp to tiny channels in the dentine to the enamel.

They found that a slowdown in this fluid movement, caused by a high sugar diet, may be an early indication of tooth decay developing. The higher sugar diet is said to disturb the hormone balance, and with the slowdown of this internal fluid, the teeth are more vulnerable.

The dental researchers found that healthy teeth with a normal flow are invulnerable to decay-causing bacteria that are always found in the mouth.

The scientists have found chemical ways of stimulating the flow of this dental fluid, which may some day be one method of preventing decay.

Among the Books At Stirling Public Library

Stirling Public Library Board met for the regular meeting on Monday, Oct. 29 and Mrs. D. Patterson reported to the Board on the Trustee's meeting held in Belleville on Saturday, Oct. 27 for Trustees and Librarians from the Lake Ontario Library System. A panel of four, Mrs. Jean Cole, chairman, Peterborough Public Library; Dr. Russell Scott, former Mayor of Belleville and library trustee; Mr. Mac de St. Remy, chairman, Kingston Public Library; and Mr. Harold Fisher, former chairman, Lake Erie Regional System, were introduced by Mr. George Hodgson, member of the Provincial Library Council. They discussed many facets of library service, and a lively question and answer period gave the Trustees an opportunity to explore specific conditions pertaining to their own areas.

The growing role of the Public Library in the field of continuing education and recreation is evident in the various services offered to the community. One of these extra services here in Stirling is the free films shown on Friday evenings for the children. The new season begins on Friday of this week at 7:30 p.m. and the film for this first showing is the International Award winning "The Red Balloon." Set in post-war Paris, this beautiful film can be enjoyed by people of any age, adults or children, and we are very fortunate to be able to bring this to Stirling again.

New books are arriving on our shelves too, and more news of titles will be given in the near future.

OPP Report

Children in the local towns and villages are now preparing for Halloween. Their spare time is spent preparing costumes and deciding what route they will follow on Halloween, Oct. 31, 1973 which is a Wednesday night.

Many safety precautions should be considered by both parents and children before leaving the home on Halloween:

1. Light colored costumes with reflective material are easier to see.
2. Costumes should be flame resistant and short enough not to trip children.
3. Call on one side of the street, then the other. Don't criss cross on the street.
4. Masks should not obstruct vision; make-up is the best where masks can not be fitted properly.
5. Young children should be accompanied by an adult.
6. Set boundaries and a time to be home.
7. For maximum safety carry a flash light.

Let's all have a safe Halloween.

BELLEVILLE EMPLOYERS NEED MANY MORE OFFICE WORKERS

WILL YOU BE READY? YES, IF YOU ENROLL TODAY!

THE ADVANTAGES OF Ontario Business College

EVERY PERSON needs to have at least a basic commercial course before going on to any other profession, yet if this is taken in Secondary School the educational background has to be diluted to make time for it. In one year or less you can have the advantages available to you at Ontario Business College which are:

YOU work at your own speed. You do not wait for the slow learner or speed up for the one who learns faster than you.

YOU may choose a partial course.

YOU get individual attention.

YOU can begin now, at the first of any month.

YOU are ready for a position when YOU have finished your course, and not looking for work at a time when the market is flooded with unemployed.

YOU can write each examination in the month the work on that subject is completed, and then you fill that time with other subjects.

YOU can re-write any examination the next month, you do not have to lose a year.

YOU can earn all it costs in your first two or three months of working.

YOU do not need previous commercial training. Adult training a specialty.

YOU obtain a complete training for earning your living for the rest of your life at such a low cost. Compare, if you wish and then enroll at O.B.C.

YOU can obtain, in one year, training which employers and our graduates find is at least as good, and maybe better than two and three year courses, in tax supported institutions. It costs more in fees, but you gain one or two years earning power by attending Ontario Business College for Better Business Training!

THE SUPPLY AND ERECTION OF THE STRUCTURAL STEEL REQUIREMENTS AT WELLS FORD MERCURY SALES

IN THIS BUILDING EXPANSION

Foley Machine

23-25 WALLBRIDGE CR. BELLEVILLE 968-3521

(BY HAROLD WELLS)

In 1929 Harold Wells came to Stirling and got a job as a mechanic with Ed Baker & Son who had a franchise for Durant cars and Rugby trucks. At that time there were hardly any cars or trucks on the roads; of those most were model "T" Fords and 490 Chevys. Wages were about $12.00 per 65 hour week.

In 1934 Texaco built a service station where the new fire hall will be, and needed somebody to operate it. Harold Wells and Sheldon McIntosh took on the task of making it operate in those depression days, and anybody that came through the depression well knows how hard money was to get. We worked every day, 7 a.m. to 6 p.m., every other night, and every other Sunday for years.

In 1936 we took on the franchise for Plymouth cars. Ivan Searles' father purchased the first new car we ever sold. In 1940 we took on the car, truck and tractor franchise with Ford Motor Co. Arnold Wannamaker purchased the first tractor we sold. Ford cars were assembled at that time on Danforth Street, Toronto.

About 1940 we added a three-bay addition to the service station, and we thought we had about everything. We also did away with the gas pumps which you had to operate by hand and installed electric pumps. A hoist for lifting cars, to be able to work under them, was also installed.

In 1948 we purchased from A. Wannamaker approximately five acres of land on the south side of the highway, for future buildings. The same year we added a new cement block workshop to the present building, and at the same time installed steam heating and a showroom for one car.

In 1958 we purchased more land where we later built a new body and paint shop. The next year we added another extension to our workshop, which took up all the land we had left on the north side of the road. By now we had about 17 employees.

After working together for nearly 25 years, in 1963 Mr. McIntosh and Mr. Wells dissolved their partnership, with Mr. H. Wells purchasing his partner's share. Also, Mr. Allan Wells joined as a share holder, as the Company went Limited.

In 1967 Wells Ford Sales built a new showroom, and at the same time added the line of Mercury cars to their Ford franchise, and with the addition of Mercury the new trade name was to be Wells Ford Mercury Sales Limited, which is still the official trade name.

With the sale of our old garage in 1972, to the Village of Stirling for a fire hall, it meant that we would have to build our new garage that we had been planning for two years. Now at November 1973, this new building is complete with more and better facilities to do better service for our customers. We feel now that with our showroom, bodyshop and garage all joined in one building, we can accomplish our work much better and at the same time have the extra room that we needed.

HAROLD WELLS

We think most firms will agree that employees have a lot to do with the progress a firm makes, and we have been lucky to have real good people in our employ. Some have been with us for a good many years, and have done an outstanding job for our firm. Also we have many customers who have dealt with us for good job, and ride along real smooth.

Wells Ford Mercury Sales, with its new modern establishment, hope they can give better service, and with the continued support of the people of Stirling and surrounding area; also the people of Belleville and surrounding towns, will be able to expand again in the not too distant future. We have already purchased extra land for when the time comes to add an addition.

Businessmen Plan For Santa

Stirling business men met last week and arrangements have been made for Santa to visit Stirling on Saturday, December 15 at 2 p.m. All boys and girls in the area are invited to come and meet him at the centre bridge and receive a free bag of candy. Through the courtesy of the arena commission it is expected that free skating will be provided after.

A calendar will be printed in the News Argus showing the special store hours for the Christmas season.

Decorative lights will be installed by the committee on November 19, with candy bagging on December 12 at the firehall.

If any persons or businesses who are not participating in the Co-Op advertising, wish to contribute to the cost of candy and lights, donations will be received by Doug Bird, the treasurer.

DOJARS & GOOD SENSE

Special Consultant to
Auto Financial Services

Increasing food prices are not only causing major alterations in the family budget, but are beginning to produce new diets as substitutes for traditional ways of dining.

With the U.S. freeze on beef prices lifted, consumers are now looking for something to replace beef as a menu staple. One answer is a beef mixture called the soyburger.

It's called by many different names depending on where you may shop, but its lower price is winning it more and more market acceptance.

Charles Olcott, president of Swift & Co., reports that hospitals, schools and restaurants as well as homemakers, are now taking to the soyburger regularly. The new mixture of beef and soybean is not only cheaper, says Olcott, but dietetically superior.

The soybean is becoming a most important food item around the world, and if supplies can meet growing demands, it could be a major factor in helping to ease high food costs.

It may not be long before the traditional cry for a hamburger is replaced by the soyburger. Look for it at your food store next time you shop.

It's one way to keep food expenses down, while maintaining well balanced diets.

Readers' questions are welcome and should be sent to Box 5876 London, Ontario.

(By Charles E. Staples)
Many of the customs which have become part of our way of life have a religious origin. At one time we used to think we were a Christian country, because of this fact. But we are less so than we have ever been. Halloween is just one of those religious events, which, for all intent and purpose, has lost its religious significance.

Weekly Meditation

CONTRIBUTED BY STIRLING CLERGYMEN

Historically, Halloween takes its name from the eve of all Hallow (All Saints). The custom began as an attempt to bring a little humour into the serious business of religion.

The point of dressing up in the costumes of ghosts and witches was to scare away the evil spirits in preparation for the day on which people would honour the memory of all the faithful Christian leaders. It is not certain from history whether this celebration was restricted to those people who were officially recognized as Saints or included all the people of God in the same sense in which the word "saints" is used in Scripture. Though we may have lost the real connection between Halloween and All Saints Day, we don't have to lose sight of the connection which should exist between the serious and humorous side of our religious life. We are told to love God with our whole being, that is our mind, heart, strength and strength; every part of us. God is to enter every aspect of life. So there should be joy in our Christian living as well as the serious pursuit of faith. Laughter should spring from a happiness based on the knowledge that God is the source of all goodness.

Unfortunately most people approach faith from the more serious side, beginning with a deep problem or a painful loss of a person through death. It takes a while for us to be able to say with the psalmist, "Thou shalt show me the path of life; in thy presence is the fullness of joy; and at thy right hand there is pleasure for ever." Joy can be a very elusive or fleeting experience. But when it is experienced we long for life to be like this for ever.

Perhaps, we have forgotten, that with the great event in the life of Jesus, joy burst forth. Beginning with the angelic song at his birth, "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace goodwill among men," right through to the miracle and every parable, joy was the outcome in someone's life. His resurrection and ascension and the coming of the Spirit produced joy. In fact St. Paul says the harvest of the Spirit is joy. Joy was something that Jesus wanted to be followed by. We would do well to ask ourselves how much of that same joy is being reflected through us to others.

One day our fleeting experiences of joy will be fulfilled but we might begin now rejoicing as the writer of the book of Revelations expressed it, "Hallelujah; for the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigneth. Let us rejoice and be exceeding glad and let us give the glory unto Him."

Men's League Monday Night

On Monday, Oct. 29 the points were split between all six teams. The Odds & Ends were five to two point winners over the Legion, while the Alley Cats were five to two winners over the Straw Dogs. In the late encounter the Good Guys were four to three winners over the Maple Leafs.

The Good Guys still hold down 1st place with 37 points, followed second by the Maple Leafs with 33 points. Third place is a tie between the Alley Cats and the Odds & Ends with 23 points. The Legion is fourth with 16 points and bringing up the rear are the Straw Dogs with 15 points.

High single for the week goes to Glenn Bird with 268 while Ralph Sca had the high triple of 694.

Carmel UCW

Mrs. Gerald Grills was hostess at her home for the October meeting of Carmel Unit U.C.W. on Thursday evening. The leader, Mrs. Tom Grills opened with a poem and a welcome to the 18 members and three children. The business was dealt with.

Mrs. Brian Savers was in charge of the program. Mrs. Art Buss read the scripture and Mrs. Savers read the commentary on "Courage," a closing with prayer.

Mrs. Retta Grills and Roxanne Savers gave readings. Debbie Grills sang a solo and Mrs. Vera Pyear played a piano number. Mrs. Savers conducted a Bible contest and a humorous art contest.

After the benediction Mrs. Fred Brandt, Mrs. George Wilson and the hostess served refreshments. Mrs. Tom Grills expressed appreciation to all who had a part in making a helpful and pleasant evening.

CUB CORNER

Our regular meeting Monday saw 21 boys present. Some of our boys were sick and we sure hope they are back next week.

Our duty six for the night was the Blue Six: Randy Lake, Dale Ashley, Greg Mackay, John Harris, Don Ashley.

Akela congratulated the boys on their hard work towards apple day. It was decided we must all get down to work on our badges and stars.

Baloo led us in marching so our parents will be proud of us on November 11.

We worked with a work period and then some games. Bagheera led us in a rousing sing song.

Next week's duty six is the Red Six.

As this Cub Corner we know is read by many, we want to thank the many fine folks from Stirling and surrounding area without whose help we could not do a good job.

A very special thanks to two fine Dads who helped us, Mr. MacKay and Mr. Brandt. Your cubs are sure proud of you and we all thank you.

See you all next week.

Hold Rally In Spring Brook

The members of Central Hastings County Orange Lodge held their annual social evening and dance in Spring Brook Orange Hall recently. A bountiful meal featuring fried chicken was prepared and served by the members of Bethel U.C.W.

The supper was followed by a program during which County Master Bro. Delbert Mumby introduced the guest speaker, R.W. Bro. Willis Cunningham, a member of the Board of Directors of the True and Blue and Orange Home at Richmond Hill. Bro. Cunningham gave a very interesting address on the operation of the Home and showed a number of slides to illustrate the work that is carried on there.

Deputy County Master Bro. Ted Pollock replied to the guest speaker and presented him with a gift. Entertainment was provided by the Madoc Quintones with Miss West as their accompanist. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

LEGION NOTES

The annual Legion Poppy Campaign starts this week-end. On Friday and Saturday, Legion members will be on the local streets selling the bright red symbol of Remembrance. Won't you please support this annual campaign and wear a poppy with pride and in Remembrance?

Local and district schools will also be covered on the Legion Poppy Campaign. In addition many local merchants are co-operating by having poppy boxes in their stores. All profits of the campaign are retained locally in trust, to aid and assist needy veterans and their dependents. Wear a Poppy and Remember!

All Legion members are asked to be on parade this Sunday, November 4. Fall in at Tanner's at 8:30 a.m. for Remembrance Church Service beginning at 9:00 a.m. at St. James the Minor Roman Catholic Church. Branch Padre Rev. J.F. McGarvey will deliver the address. All veterans are urged to be on hand this Sunday for the church service.

Also on Sunday, November 4, the annual Silver Cross Mothers' Tea will be held at the Legion Hall from 2:30 to 4:00 p.m. Invitations have already been sent to all known nearest next of kin, municipal officials and the clergy will also attend along with the wives, officers and executive members of Branch 228.

Sunday, November 11 is Remembrance Day — and the usual Remembrance Day service will be held at the Stirling Cenotaph commencing at approximately 10:30 a.m. The parade of veterans, Guides, Scouts, Brownies and Cubs will fall in at 10:15 at the Community Hall. The Trenton C.F.B. Pipe Band will lead the parade to the Cenotaph.

All local citizens are invited to join in this Community Service of Remembrance. As in the past, wreaths will be placed by the nearest next of kin of those who paid the supreme sacrifice. Municipal officials and representatives of local organizations will also take part. All persons placing a wreath are asked to be in their seats inside the Memorial Park just prior to the arrival of the parade at 10:30.

Healing Substance: Shrinks Piles

Exclusive healing substance proven to shrink hemorrhoids and repair damaged tissue.

A renowned research institute has found a unique healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids painlessly. It relieves itching and discomfort, in minutes and speeds up healing of the injured, inflamed tissue.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most important of all — results were so thorough that this improvement was maintained over a period of many months.

All this was accomplished with a healing substance (Bio-Dyne) which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulates growth of new tissue.

Now Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation H. Ask for it at all drug stores. Satisfaction or your money refunded.
